Miss Flack Honored At Morrow Home

Mrs. Roy Morrow and Mrs. C. W. Morgan were hostesses last Thursday evening at the Morrow home on South Main Street with a bridal shower and party, honoring Mrs. Morrow's sister, Miss Betty Jo Flack of East Marion, whose marriage to Allie Lee Stepe, of Old Fort, will be an event of December.

The home was charming with arrangements of white snapdragons and pink carnations to carry out a color scheme of pink, white and green.

The guests enjoyed cleverly planned games and contests and a number of prizes were awarded the contestants. The games of "dress the bride," and a treasure hunt were especially appropriate for the party. At the end of the treasure hunt Miss Flack received as her most precious "treasure" an array of very lovely and useful gifts from the guests.

Refreshments, served buffet style, consisted of ice cream molds in shapes of bells, hearts, wedding slippers, rings, and love birds, cup cakes, iced in pink, green and white, a variety of tiny sandwiches, nuts, and Russian tea.

Approximately 25 guests from Marion, East Marion and Old Fort enjoyed this delightful party.
