Crosby Adams Hold Meetings Last Saturday

The Crosby Adams Junior Music club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Margaret McLarty, secretary of the Club, who presided over the meeting in the absence of the president. There were ten members present. The following members participated on the program which consisted of piano and vocal solos, and choral numbers sung by the Junior Choir: Margaret Hawkins, Jane McIntosh, Eleanor Grayson, Roxanne Dark, Margaret McLarty, Pollyanna Atkins, Martha Stepp, Hope McCall, and B-Linda Finley. Mrs. McMurray, counselor, read a sketch of Edward MacDowell's life and this was followed by the playing of a composition by the composer by Barbara Fisher. Margaret McLarty played her original composition during the program called, "To A Mountain Stream." At the close of the meeting the Junior Choir sang two Christmas numbers in anticipation of the coming festive season. The home of the hostess was beautifully decorated with Christmas reminders, and refreshments of sandwiches, nuts, candy and hot juice were served. Mrs. J. B. McLarty and Mrs. John Poteat were also guests at the meeting.

The Crosby Adams Junvenile Music club met at the home of Carolyn McBee on Saturday afternoon with 12 members present and three visitors, Helen McBee, Patsy Long, and Barbara Fisher, a member of the Junior club. Doris Wilson, president, presided over the business session which opened with the singing of the Junior Federation Hymn, accompanied by Jane Story. The following members presented a musical program which was interspersed with the playing of Christmas numbers: Amelia Yancey, Greta Evans, Mary McIntosh, Anne McIntosh, Nona Burnette, Patsy Collins, Martha Twitty, Margaret Anne Pyatt, Jane Story, Carolyn Young, Carolyn McBee, and Doris Wilson. December is the month celebrated as MacDowell month honoring the great American composer, Edward MacDowell. Mrs. Carl McMurray, Counselor, read a brief sketch of MacDowell's life which was followed by the playing of a MacDowell number by Barbara Fisher, a member of the Junior Music Club.

While the hostess was serving the festive refreshments of Christmas bells, with lighted tapers, and punch, the group was led in the singing of Christmas carols, accompanied by Carolyn Young, Margaret Anne Pyatt, and Carolyn McBee. Mrs. John Poteat and Mrs. McBee were guests also and during the meeting Helen McBee presented the club with a generous purse, to carry out the many worthy projects to which the club contributes. After the refreshments a picture was shown depicting the Christmas story.

Benefit Party Postponed

The Benefit Party scheduled for December 15 to raise funds for building a new hospital has been postponed, Mrs. G. W. Kirkpatrick announced this week.

The change was made to avoid conflict with the Marion High School Band, she explained, and the party will be held at a later date to be announced later.
