

SCOTTISH CHURCH
WEDNESDAY, Oct. 21st
LIVE LOCAL NOTES.
 Numerous Navy Notes and Many Merry Moments Paraphrastically Packed and Fitfully Printed.

The sixth and best annual fair of the Border Exposition of the Carolinas will be held at Maxton on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday Oct. 30th, 31st and Nov. 1st.

Good times are here! Mr. Frank Armfield, of Mt. Air was here Sunday.

Mrs. Nancy Morrison, of Branchville, is quite sick.

J. S. Bishop, of Monroe, spent Sunday in Maxton.

Mr. L. T. Cottingham, of Hasty, was in town this week.

Mr. Robert Morrison, of Alma, spent last Sunday in town.

Mr. Acey O'Brice, John Station, was on our streets Tuesday.

Don't forget that S. W. Wright's is the headquarters for fruits of all kinds.

Mr. Thaddeus R. McRae from near Alfordville, is at home on a visit from Atlanta.

Mr. J. S. Smith, Sup't. of the Maxton Cotton Mills, paid Fayetteville a visit Tuesday.

Miss Sallie Millard, of Konausville, is visiting Miss Nellie Plummer at Maple Shade Inn.

S. W. Wright has the finest and nicest line of groceries in town. Meal, meat, molasses, &c.

Ho, boys! the circus is coming, and will be in Maxton Oct. 23rd. Don't fail to see the animals.

Mr. M. G. McKenize has been ordered to Southport, but will return the latter part of this week.

Capt. T. D. Meares' Atlanta Exposition party from Wilmington, passed through Wednesday night.

On Saturday a number of race horses arrived in Lambertton to take part in the races at the fair this week.

A negro on the streets recently said "money's just rollin' round wad off and made twelve dollars in twelve days."

The evangelist, Mr. W. P. Fife, will conduct a two weeks meeting at Winston in the Methodist church, beginning Oct. 30th.

Miss Leslie Grace spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Annie McRae, who returned with her to her home at McColls Sunday evening.

The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Steel was badly injured a few days since by eating some lye left on the kitchen floor by the servant.

Mr. C. L. Williams, collector for Empire Stove Works, who makes his headquarters at Red Springs, says the people are paying their debts promptly.

Rev. D. D. McBryde, of Little River Academy, passed through here Friday on his way to Laurel Hill where he went to assist in the sacrament on Sunday.

The verdict of the coroner's jury, Dr. W. L. Barns acting coroner regarding the death last Friday at Blue Springs of Anthony Patriage, was, that the deceased came to his death by poison administered by his wife.

We were glad to shake hands this week with Mr. W. H. McCullum, of Rowland. Although the crop is short he says farmers are busy, the prospect brightening, and the people in good spirits over the increase price of cotton.

On Monday, Mr. Robert McQueen, son of Rev. A. McQueen, from Queensdale, in upper Robeson, paid Maxton a visit. He reports his father's health as better, and says that Rev. J. M. Moore, Principal in Greensboro, having an enrollment of 40 pupils.

Rev. W. H. Bridges postponed his engagement at Maxton from last Saturday to the conventional date this week in order to comply with the church's request to attend at Maxton. There will be a grand street parade at 10 o'clock accompanied with glittering banners and preceded with a band. There will be a grand street parade at 10 o'clock accompanied with glittering banners and preceded with a band.

If you want fresh supplies, cigars, tobacco, notions, apples, bananas, &c., call on S. W. Wright.
 The ruling price for cotton yesterday (Wednesday), on this market was 35. About the highest price paid was 1.10. Today 9.21.
 Rev. J. D. Beatty, of Lambertton, is assisting Rev. M. Bradshe in a protracted meeting here this week in the Methodist church. Service is being held morning and night and there seems to be a growing interest in religious subjects.

Mr. O. F. Lawler, recently and for a number of years, foreman of the Alma Lumber Co., has leased the wood machinery of the Maxton Mfg. Co. We are always glad to welcome experienced men to our industrial establishments.

Miss Mary Lamont, niece of Mr. Jno. W. McLaughlin, of Rutherford, N. C., was married at the residence of her uncle yesterday morning at 11 o'clock to Dr. M. L. Harrell, of Arkansas. Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., conducted the marriage ceremony.

Wade Locklear was sentenced a Lambertton last week to be hanged, and his accomplice, G. W. Locklear and Patrick Locklear, were sentenced to life imprisonment. The motion for a new trial was overruled, and the defendants appealed.

We had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Walter Townsend, of Parvis, and Mr. X. W. McDiarmid, formerly of this county, but now a prominent lawyer of Atlanta, at Mr. Martin Monroe's Monday. His many friends were delighted to see him.

Mr. W. H. Walden, who was at one time a compositor on the Scottish Chief has gone to Charleston to put himself under the treatment of Dr. Kollock, an eye specialist. He has made his home in Bennettsville since leaving Maxton.

Capt. A. H. Green formerly a popular Cape Fear river boat captain, spent Saturday in Maxton. Capt. A. H. Worth, his old river competitor showed him how much more he could pull over the rails on a ride to Fayetteville behind 138 box cars that night.

The gin house of Mr. Angus Currie on South Patterson street caught fire about three o'clock Saturday afternoon and promised at one time to be a serious fire, but was gotten under control, resulting in a loss of only about $25, fully covered by insurance.

I wish to thank my friends and the public generally through the columns of the SCOTTISH CHURCH for the generous and timely assistance rendered me in extinguishing the fire at my gin on last Saturday afternoon before any considerable damage was done.

On account of the meeting of the State Grand Lodge L. O. of G. S. & D. of S., to be held at Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 27th, 1895, the O. F. & Y. V. railroad will sell round trip tickets from the following points at the following rates:

Tickets on sale Oct. 27th to 29th returning good until Nov. 4th.

Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., excused himself from the meeting of the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphanage at Barium Springs, on account of the increasing religious interest manifested at Center Church. He will be obliged to leave, however, on Thursday of this week, for a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Union Theological Seminary, which has been called to convene at Danville, Va., on the 15th inst. In sit upon and consider the question of the removal of the Seminary from Hampton Sidney, Va.

A great big circus without an equal! That's the verdict of all who have seen Bob Hastings' circus, music and magic. The very best Equitarians, Gymnasts and Acrobats, both male and female, are engaged with it, and the old reliable Bob himself, the monarch of all clowns is there to dispense the laughing matter bringing over innumerable. There will be a grand street parade at 10 o'clock accompanied with glittering banners and preceded with a band. There will be a grand street parade at 10 o'clock accompanied with glittering banners and preceded with a band.

These trains are composed of the handsome Pullman Drawing Room, Buffet Sleeping cars and day coaches. The 5:00 p. m. train (the Atlanta Special) is re-equipped with end to end and is open to all from Washington to Atlanta without change.

The route from New York to Washington, Frederickburg, Haham and Petersburg, Virginia, Weldon, Raleigh and Southern Pines, North Carolina, Chester, Clinton, Asheville, South Carolina and Elberton and Athens in Atlanta, Georgia.

Excursion tickets will be sold to Atlanta and return, via the Seaboard Air Line as follows:
 On Thursday and Saturday September 17th to Dec. 31st, inclusive at $14.00 from Washington and $12.00 from Portsmouth and Norfolk limited to 10 days for a date of sale.

Senator Morris Hill will deliver his annual address at the Fair Grounds at Fayetteville on Thursday, November 7th, during Fair week. Go to the Fair and hear him. The Fair will be one of the most interesting ever held because of the numerous attractions and exhibits promised. There will be a Fine Band of Music in every day.

Bob Hastings Big Railroad Shows, across museum and meagerie is now billing Maxton in the most elaborate manner, and the gorgeousness and variety of the beautiful printing strikes one with bewilderment. The show is three times as big as it ever was, and no money has been spared while building it larger—to make it keep pace with the very best. The irresistible Bob will be in the ring himself much of all evenings. The enormous tents will be spread on the Fair Grounds. Don't forget the day and date Wednesday Oct. 23rd.
