Mrs. Gilbert Walker returned Sunday from a visit to relatives at Evergreen.

Communion of the Lord's Supper will be held at Centre church Sunday at the 11 o'clock service.

We hear nothing but the highest praise of the musical program held in the Floral school auditorium recently. It consisted of anthems, piano solos and quartets. Mr. Ernest D. Hancock and his glee club of the Maxton school added much to the program by rendering a selection as did also Mr. Duncan Sinclair with his guitar.

Mr. Dorsett really is to be commended for being instrumental in putting on such an unusually fine program.

Mrs. L. E. Campbell and little daughter, Mary Carolyn, spent the weekend with relatives in Laurinburg.

Mr. C. D. McCormick and sister, Miss Lucy, of Laurinburg spent Sunday afternoon with relatives here.

P. T. A. TO MEET TODAY

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold their regular monthly meeting in the high school auditorium Wednesday, April 5th, at 3:45 o'clock.

Miss Blue Heard In Charming Recital

On Monday evening, March 27, in the college auditorium, Miss Katherine Blue of Carthage, was presented in her graduating recital by Flora Macdonald Conservatory under the direction of Hugh Williamson, dean.

A large audience, including many relatives and friends from Carthage, Southern Pines, and other nearby towns, greeted the young artist with much applause and presented beautiful floral offerings.

From her first number, the Rigaudon by Raff, which she played with clean technique and beautiful phrasing, and throughout the program Miss Blue exhibited unusual poise, intelligence, decided brilliance, and splendid all round musicianship as well as much versatility.

Quite outstanding was the virile handling of the Brahms E Flat Rhapsodie; this she played with sure technique, rich deep tone and mature interpretation.

A fitting climax to the lovely program was the artistic reading of the closing number—the beautiful Romance from the Mozart Concerto in D Minor. The beauty of this was further enhanced by the able support given by Miss Weatherly who played the orchestral parts on the organ.

A delightful reception followed the program. Among those present from out of town were: Mrs. M. C. Dalrymple, who will be remembered in Red Springs at Floy Jones, brilliant graduate in piano from the conservatory, and Mrs. L. R. Sugg, both former teachers of Miss Blue; Miss Margaret McLeod, Mrs. O. B. Welch, Mrs. S. H. Miller, Mrs. J. K. Roberts, Mrs. R. W. Pleasants, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Blue and family, all of Carthage; Mr. W. L. Spencer, Jr., Paul Burns and twenty-five boys and girls of the Carthage high school glee club; Miss Alice Blue of Fayetteville; Mrs. Annie Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McNeill, Miss Flora McNeill, and Mr. Hiram Westbrook of Southern Pines.

School For Adults Opens In Maxton

A school for adults who missed the opportunity to learn to read and write in their younger days, has been recently opened in Maxton.

Miss Katharine Galloway is the teacher and classes are held in the bank building on the second floor of the bank building.

This school is managed by R. F. C. funds under State direction and its purpose is to give employment to teachers. Both Negroes and white people are admitted with classes, of course, held at different hours. To date three white persons have enrolled and twenty-two Negroes.

Classes are held every afternoon and evening on regular school days. The term will cover a period of ten weeks.

Miss Galloway is exceptionally well prepared for this work, having graduated from Flora Macdonald College and taken special summer courses at the University of North Carolina.

Music Clubs Of P. J. C. Present Snappy Minstrel Show Friday

Before an exceedingly appreciative audience, the combined music clubs of Presbyterian Junior College presented an up to the minute minstrel show at the College auditorium Friday evening. It was packed with wholesome fun and good music during the entire performance.

Especially good were the solos by Neilson Russell, Haywood Barden, Oliver Cross, Mrs. V. A. Sydenstricker, Mack McKellar and the duet by Misses Fern Andrews and Janet Steed; the quartet, composed of Russell, Barden, McMillan and McKellar; the clog dancing of Charlie Powers; the co-ed dance and the string band, composed of Palmer, McLean, Prof. Key, Powers, Smith, Wilson and Council.

Starring among the end men was James McMillan who gave a lengthy discourse on the wonders of science, electricity, etc. Also much credit goes to Raymond Jennings, interlocutor.

In an interview with Professor Key, director of the minstrel, he stated that he was pleased with the students taking part in the show and was also proud of the audience. Proceeds amounted to $20.05.
