re Red Springs Citizen

OLUME XXXII. NUMBER 25.

RED SPRINGS, N C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1930.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.50 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

t. Pauls Man Makes | Seek To Stimulate Address At P. T. A.

The Parent Teacher Association on. The meeting was opened with rey, State Dairy Specialist, to addrayer by Rev C. T. Rogers, pastor of the Methodist church. Mrs. J. T. Rowland, Thursday, Jan. 23 at 3 dom, president of the association, esided

After the minutes, Mrs. J. B. lack, chairman of the school ground 7:30 p. m. (Court House.)

at work had been started on the chool grounds and asked that ten byyars be appropriated to buy fer-live and the most incomplete in the m was decided that the pictures on by the rooms winning the atndance records should be left it.

e winning rooms The subject for the afternoon was higher Miss Louise Purcell made interesting talk on "Thrift in the se of Time." Miss Louise Mande-

Mrs. Robeson had charge of the Bridge Party For ogram for the afternoon. The bject was "Polyphonic Music." Mrs. eson played several selections on victrola and piano, from that iod of music.

hes and tea were served.

J. D. C. Plans For

en veterans in Red Springs, gave eresting reports of their visits to e places.

ting is held annually at the high

A. Bullock were appointed to we on the dinner committee; Mrs. A. Love, Mrs. M. E. Watson on committee on arrangements, and s. D. P. McEachern, Mrs. M. F. agg and Mrs. R. L. Eastham on program committee.

Miss Cornelia McMillan read the of prizes being offered for es-s written on "Unwritten History the Civil War." Both adults and dren are eligible to enter this test. A list of these prizes will published in a later issue of the izen for the benefit of the school his was an unusually interesting l enthusiastic meeting with a genumber present and several itors. At the close the hostess ved hot coffee and cake.

ssistant Cashier

Of Bank Arrested mbroke, Jan. 14.—C. E. Cole, ascashier of the Bank of Pemwas arrested today and reed under a thousand dollar bond charge of making false entries deposits. Preliminary hearing is for January 23.

Interest In Dairying

The Parent Teacher Association eld their January meeting in the igh school auditorium Friday after-have arranged with Mr. A C Kim-

p. m. (this meeting at E. H. Mc-Kinnon's Dairy near Rowland.)

Parker of Matthews, Miss Mary Lou for the cup with Floral College Haynes of Mt. Airy, Misses Mary Linda Vardell, Mittie Smith, Katie Floral Vardell, Mittie Smith, Floral College Christophere Who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Linda Vardell, Mittie Smith, Katie Floral Christophere Who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Louisian Springs who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Louisian Springs who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Louisian Springs who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Louisian Springs who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Louisian Springs who less than the race Parker of Matthews, Misses Mary Louisian Springs who have the company of Mrs. W B. Robeson and Mrs. Marin McKinnon were joint hostesses to McPhaul, J. F. Pugh, Malcolm Buie, Red Springs Music Club on Frank McLeod, Austl. Roberts. Z. B. Jing up at rough the county show-ling up at rough to be a free for all so far, Red Springs, who last year in addition to winning the county championship also won the Southeastern Championship, being much weaker than last year with the other teams of the county show-ling up at rough to be a free for all so far, Red Springs, who last year in addition to winning the Southeastern Championship, being much weaker than last year with the other teams of the county show-ling up at rough to the county show-ling up at rough to the county show-ling up at rough the county shows the count McPhaul, J. F. Pugh, Malcolm Buie, Frank McLeod, Austin Roberts, Z. B. McMillan, "Doc' Covington, J. A. Love, Jr., J. A. Graham and Dr. H. E. Bowden.

At the close of the game the hosters rever delicious at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Robeson bereing to the design and the host-

Mrs. W. B. Townsend gave a de-Two beautiful lightful bridge party Saturday afterroen in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Bell, of Tuxedo, who is

At the close of a number of interesting progressions which occupied the afternoon the hostess presented Mrs. Bell with a lovely box of hand-Lee-Jackson Day kerchiefs and served a delicious salad course.

The local chapter of the U. D. C. Guests included Mrs. Frank Den, of Tuxedo, Miss Genevieve McMillan, of Tuxedo, Miss Genevieve McMillan, of Tuxedo, Mrs. W. A. Bullock, Mrs. Martin Mc-Millan, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. Mrs. W. A. Bullock, Mrs. Martin Mrs. The meeting was opened by a prt devotional service followed by reports from the different comttees. Miss Cornelia McMillan and fs. J. J. Thrower, who delivered by Christmas baskets, to the Conternate Woman's Home and to the ren veterans in Red Springs and the content of the c afternoon Book Club last Tuesday Hammond, who before her marriage afternoon at the home of Mr. M. N. Folger. The meeting was called showering her with many beautiful and Jackson's birthdays. A cial program is being planned the annual dinner will be served the U.D.C. members. Mrs. E. was taken up. As this was the said "Jo brings Showers." Mrs. E. was taken up. As this was the said "Jo brings Showers." the u.D. C. members. Mrs. E. Coxe, Mrs. A T McCallum, Mrs. A. Bullock were appointed to

PEMBROKE NEWS

The club is studying Health topics this year, so pellagra was topic for the meeting. Interesting and instructive papers on the subject were read by Mrs. N. H. Biddell, Mrs. M. N. Folger and Mrs. Allen Biddell. Then a social hour was enjoyed during which the radio been promoted to assistant sales was listened to and Miss Snipes assited by Mr. Folger, served delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream services of the past nine years, and and wafers, entertained a number of her little Wilmington. friends Friday afternoon from 3:30 The Royster company's business in until 5 o'clock in honor of her 8th eastern North Carolina made it necbirthday. Among those present were essary for the company to build a Doris Ray, Carroll Paul, Evelyn factory at Wilmington about a year Doris Ray, Carroll Paul, Evelyn factory at Wilmington about a year Cain, Mary Emma Folger, Eloise Jones, Alice Maddry, Frances Maddry, Elizabeth Snoddy, Charles E. Snoddy, James Paul, Horace Paul and Earl Williams. Many interesting and enjoyable games were played pany over several counties. Mr. Parand Janie Bryan was the recipient of many pretty and useful presents promotion will be gratifying to his Refreshments consisting of ice cream, many friends. cake and candy were served by Mrs.

Sawyer assisted by Miss Bateman and Mr. Ephraim Sawyer.

Mr. Bill Tyner underwent a ton-

ROBESON COUNTY BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT HERE FEB. 12th-14th

ourth Annual County-Wide Tour-nament Sponsored by Local High School Promises to be Best Ever SCHEDITE FILE Fourth Held. Seven of Twelve Accredited Schools of County Already Entered.—Others Expected.

The fourth annual county basketball tournament for Robeson county will be held at Red Springs February 12-14. This tournament was started by the Red Springs high school three years ago and has been growing in favor and popu-

Mrs. Hiram Grantham, reported or the playground committee. Miss of farming.

Mr Kimrey is well posted on his subject and is considered one of the best speakers in the North Carolina best speakers in the Schools of the country with the several schools of to be even greater. There are 12 been safely tucked away under the accredited schools in the county, red and white jerseys and in reality Men, women and children are in- seven of which have already signiseven of which have already signified their intentions of entering the contest, and most of the others are not taking for granted that they are expected to enter brift" Miss Louise Purcell made interesting talk on "Thrift in the se of Time." Miss Louise Mandele sang "A Pirate's Dream," achieves at the piano by Miss Genevieve McMillan Saturbay manied at the p by Miss Genevieve McMillan Saturary McEachern. Mr. J. C. Lentz ary McMillan ary M ing up stronger, so far as the boys are concerned. The girls' champion is also a wide guess now. Several teams of the county are already claiming the best team afield. But wait! February 14 isn't so far off and that will tell the story.

Mrs. Frank Bell Soccer Tournament F. M. C Begins Jan. 16

The Inter-Class Soccer Tournament socities, Epsilon Chi and Zetesian. The schedule of the games is as fellow:

First game, Phuraday afternoon, 4:30 P. M., January 16th. Second game, Friday afternoon, 4:30 P. M., January 17th. If tie, third game, Tuesday afternoon, 4:30 P. M., January 21st.

The executive committee of the ta. Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyerian church met at the home of Mrs. Lacy Buie Monday afternoon. At the close of the business part Plans for the coming meeting on Snipes was hostess to the Tuesday one of their members, Mrs. H. C. Snipes was held annually at the high a lot of business had to be transacted. After this the program was entered into.

Mrs. Lacy Buie and Miss Anne

Mrs. Lacy Buie and Miss Anne Buie served a delicious salad course the and hot chocolate.

Mr. J. Q. Parnell of Parkton has Little Miss Janie Bryan Sawyer 708 North Carolina Bank building in

The Pembroke home demonstration reliminary hearing is set for silar operation one day last week. Martha Lewis today at the time for dnesday as to C. E. McDaniel, Dr. Hodgin of Red Springs, per-the regular meeting a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Roy Lewis,

SCHEDULE FULL

The Red Springs high school bas-

The play this year, as in forevery night, realizing that they have remainder of the season:

Jan. 17—Wagram at Wagram. Jan 24—Laurinburg at Red Springs.

Jan. 31—Parkton at Parkton. Feb. 7 — Philadelphus at Red Springs. Feb. 12-Robeson County Tourna-

Feb. 13-Robeson County Tourna-

Feb. 14—Robeson County Tournament.

Field Secretary

spoke to the men of the local church last Thursday night in the hut on the church grounds.

Mr. Nag proved to be an interesting speaker and the large num-ber of the men of the church present went away from the meeting feeling that they had been well paid for the time spent listening to him. shortage discovered a few days ago and my Democratic colleagues in the done by Mr. Naff comes directly mer cashier of the Bank of Pemportant responsibilities, and I regard under the supervision of Dr. J. Ed-For Mrs. Hammond win Purcell, who is in charge of all Pembroke livestock dealer , who was and her daughter, Miss Louise Pur-cell, mother and sister of Dr. Pur-

Harold Lloyd To

Danger" at the Red Springs Theatre

Harold goes to San Francisco and by a lucky break gets the reputa-tion of being a hard-boiled wielder of the law. Then he is plunged into will have business headquarters at a series of amazing battles in the 708 North Carolina Bank building in underworld in which thrill after for fun and excitement.

The plot takes a new turn every other minute. There is a girl and her crippled brother. There is a kindly old Chinese doctor. There is part in increasing the business of the a white man who poses as a reformer but who is really a crook. There is Lloyd swirling through it all in a great whirlwind of rollicking en-

> The star's voice is happily a fine one for the best purposes of the alltalking screen.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of

Read A Book For Only Ten Cents

Have you been wanting a good book to read? Something new? Two Games Already Played With tion. Instead of having to pay $2.00 Eight More On Schedule; Local in order to read a very much dis-Lads Starting Off According To cussed book you can get it from our library for four days for the small sum of 10 cents. You've read numbers of books on ket ball schedule, as announced by Prof. J. R. Ormand, athletic director in the school, carries ten games for the season. Two of these games for the season. Two of these games for the season. Two of these games for the season at the same time engage in an active campaign, and that he had no money to finance a state-wide campaign.

All Quiet on the Western Front, have already been played, the local you ought to read it. Herr Remarther the massive of War.

There is not a scrap of fight in the announcement of his candiday. been growing in favor and popularity ever since.

These meetings are being held with the hopes of stimulating much interest in the COW which is so badly the schools of the county, each putters in the COW which is so badly the playground committee.

The meeting of the Allenton Farmbeen growing in favor and popularity ever since.

These meetings are being held with the schools of the county, each putters in the COW which is so badly ting forth her best to win the silver and Maxton with scores of 28 in the COW with so much truth loving cup offered, one for the winners of farming. authorities censored several pages ment that more than a year ago he here and there throughout the book. announced he would be a candidate There are now two million copies of it, and it has been translated into announcement was made in the midst nineteen different languages.

can get this book from your library. Have you ever wondered how a five, and ten cent millionaire feels? Why not find out by reading Fannie Hurst's "Five and Ten?"

We also have the following books

"Roper's Row," Deeping; "They Stoop to Folly," Glasgow; "Peder Victorious," Rolvaag, (this is a sequel to 'Giants of the Earth');
"Joseph and Brethern," Freeman.

from your library for four days for the negligible sum of 10 cents. The announcement makes it clear Library hours 4 to 5 on Tuesdays that Mr. Bailey or any other opand Fridays.

The library is also glad to announce that Miss Mamie McNeill has contributed $1.00 to the Book Fund and Mrs. M. L. Saunderson has contributed the following books:

Gaston Leroux; "In a Winter City," by Oudia; "Love Me Little Love Me Long," Charles Reed; "My Unknown Chum," Henry Garrigy.

Young Church People To Meet Sunday Night

Feb. 21—Maxton at Red Springs.
Feb. 28—St Pauls at Red Springs.
March 7—St Pauls at St. Pauls.
March 14—Parkton at Red Springs.
March 14—Parkton at Red Springs.

The second of a series of joint senator Simm meetings of the young people's ory nouncement of his ganizations of Red Springs churches at primary follows: ganizations of Red Springs churches nomination in the June Democratic the Baptist church, with members of the Senior B. Y. P. U. furnishing the program. The first of these for reelection to the United States Addresses Local Men meetings was held at the Methodist Senate, and, pursuant to that declachurch in December, at which a very ration, I shall, in due time, file nombers were played from Handel Palestrina.

The Inter-Class Soccer Tournament of Plora Macdonald College will be gin January 16th. This tournament of her parents.

After the program was completed visiting in the home of her parents, social hour followed in which sand-like and Mrs. B.W. Townsend.

Mr. J. A. Naff, of Staunton, Va., field secretary of the Men's club of the

Make Arrest In Pembroke Bank Case

Pembroke, Jan. 13 .- The first arrest in connection with the $12,000 broke, was that of C .E. McDaniel. the men's work of the church, and taken at his home in Red Springs is directed from his office in Atlan-last night by Sheriff B. F. McMil-While in Red Springs Mr. Naff lan of Robeson county and later released under $1,500 bond.

McDaniel is charged with control.

ing and confederating with Paul to defraud the bank out of large sums of money by means of forged signatures and worthless checks.

The warrant was sworn out more Play Here Next Week home here with Bright's disease and than a week ago. Paul is ill at his no warrant has been served upon This time Harold appears in his him. Preliminary hearing for Mcfirst all-talking picture—"Welcome Daniel is set for January 14.

Shortage in the accounts of Paul Monday and Tuesday.

"Welcome Danger" is all that the cember 28, and he was dismissed as achier. Since that time an audit of title implies. It is plentifully sup-cashier. Since that time an audit of plied with chilling thrills. And Lloyd, the books has been in progress to of course, is all that his name im- determine the exact amount of the PARKTON MAN WINS
PROMOTION WITH ROYSTER

Of course, is an onat his hame in plies—namely uproarious comedy.

Lloyd never fails to produce the unique in his plot and in his situations, and here he does it again, and

U. D. C. Program For Next Tuesday

Members of the local U. D. C. lina. chapter and citizens of Red Springs. "I have been in active political than forward to the annual life for the past 40-odd years. My thrill and laugh after laugh are produced by that rare Lloydian genius for fun and excitement Jackson, in the high school auditorium. The program for this year which will be on Tue-day, January 21, at 10:50, wil be as follows: Opening prayer by Rev. C. T. Rogers.

"America."

Flag drill by members of the Junior Reserves. Special music.

Recitation by a Junior Reserve. Special music. History of Capt. Norment's Flag. by Mrs A. T. Parmele of Lumber-formed the operation.

Veterars. "Dixie."

Mr R. B. Harper who had his tondefraud the bank out of money means of forged signatures and these checks.

Mr R. B. Harper who had his tonsils removed about a week ago, had the Baker Sanatorium
in Lumberton for treatment last

Shower in honor of Mrs. Roy Lewis, a recent bride.

Mrs. Jack Moore and her brotherin last

Shower in honor of Mrs. Roy Lewis, the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held Tuesday P. M., at 3:30 o'clock. A large the defining. The eliming. The bride before her martiage was Miss Elizabeth Watson.

World wars will be guests of the the exercises. Veterans of the Conthe line Baptist church will be served at the high school immediately after
in Lumberton for treatment last

Sometime with relatives in Georgia.

The defining. The bride before her martiage was Miss Elizabeth Watson.

World wars will be guests of the the exercises. Veterans of the Conthe Allering.

The defining. The bride before her martiage was Miss Elizabeth Watson.

The defining of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be served at the high school immediately after the exercises. Veterans of the Conthe Allering of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be served at the high school immediately after the exercises. Veterans of the Conthe Allering of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held Tuesday P. M., at 3:30 o'clock. A large the the difference of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held Tuesday P. M., at 3:30 o'clock. A large the the operation.

The defining of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held Tuesday P. M., at 3:30 o'clock. A large
the the operation.

The defining of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held Tuesday P. M., at 3:30 o'clock. A large the the definition by Dr. C. G. Vardell.

The defin

Simmons Gives Notice Of His Candidacy

Washington, Jan. 11-Senator Simmons tonight formally tossed his Well, we have it for you. Just hat into the political ring as a can-recently we have bought some of the very best sellers of latest ficmary.

He issued a mollyfying statement to the effect that Senatorial duties Washington, that would keep him in Washington, that his physical strength would not permit him to carry on his Senatorial duties and at the same time engage the announcement of his candidacy. The nearest reference to the last Presidential campaign is the statefor re-election to the Senate. That You of the Presidential campaign, when brary the Senator was actively opposing the election of Governor Smith, the Democratic nominee for President.

While making it clear that he regards himself as strictly a Democrat the Senator treads very softly There. "They is only the faintest suggestion that "Peder he still regards himelf as leader of the Democratic party in North Carolina. This is expressed in the hope that nothing may occur in the cam-Remember you can get these books paign to create or revive division in the party ranks. The announcement makes it clear ponent will have to take the fight to Simmons. There is little doubt that Senator Simmons expects this to be done, but there is nothing in his announcement to indicate it.

The announcement came without Wharton; "North Carolina," Erwin S. Cobb; "The Phantom of the Opera," nouncement and subsequent criticism cratic dinner in Raleigh.

Every indication was Senator Simmons would await statement of the Bailey platform. Such a role does not suit the Senator ,though. He must be up and at it, and his formal announcement came today, but no platform of principles. Just a simple announcement, a little sentiment, and a friendly gesture.

Senator Simmons' formal an-nonprement of his candidacy for the for reelection to the United States and supporters them of the reasons why I shall not be able personally to conduct or finance an active primary campaign.

"In the first place, the Congress, which is now in session, will not finish its work until after the primary campaign is over. The party is as imperative that no personal considerations shall be allowed to interfere with the proper discharge o fthese official duties in the interests of my constituents, party and coun-Neither would my physical strength, which must be conserved for the effectual discharge of my duties in the Senate, be sufficient to carry, at the same time, the added burden of any active campaign on my part.

"Furthermore, having spent the best years of my life in the public service, I now have no money to finance a state-wide campaign. In these circumstances and for these reasons, I am obliged, but quite content, to leave my candidacy in the hands of my friends and the people of North Carolina. "With profound gratitude to my party and to the people of my State, I enter this, my last primary contest, promising only consecrated service, guided and directed by conscientious devotions to duty, and earnestly indulging the hope that nothing may occur in the campaign which might create or revive divi-sion or discord in the ranks of the Democratic party in North Carorecord during those years is an open book and is known to the people of North Carolina, and I am entirely satisfied thus to leave it to them to say whether or not they wish me to remain in the Senate longer than my present term." MR. AND MRS SMITH RETURN FROM BRIDAL TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. Smith have returned from a bridal trip to Washington, D. C., and other northern points. Mr. and Mrs Smith were married on Sunday afternoon, Dec. on.

29, at the Highland Presbyterian Reminiscences of the Sixties by manse, in Fayetteville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Koelling. The bride before her mar-