

Social And Personal News Of

RED SPRINGS

Miss Peggy McDaniel, Society Editor

Mrs. E. H. Alexander Is Aces Hostess

Mrs. E. H. Alexander was hostess to the Aces of Clubs at her home last Friday afternoon with four tables of bridge in play. A delicious dessert course was served when the guests arrived.

After several progressions of bridge high score prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Ashford for the club members and Mrs. Bob Cathey for the guests. Mrs. Warren McNeill scored low and the traveling prize was given to Mrs. R. D. McMillan, Jr.

Mrs. Alexander presented a lovely guest prize to Mrs. Hazen Fouts of Jacksonville, Fla., houseguest of Mrs. William McLean.

Mrs. Norwood Gives Supper For Choir

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Norwood were hosts on Saturday night when they entertained members of the Baptist church choir with a delightful supper at their home.

Those guests present at the affair were: W. S. Morgan, Hartman Baxley, Misses Mae Boone, Elizabeth Murray, Eunice Duncan, Elsie Ray Britt, Rosalyn Davis, Jackie Morgan, Mrs. Dave Cope, Mrs. F. M. Ammons, Robert McMillan, Greely Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Martin.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

RED SPRINGS.—Mr. and Mrs. Jurney Edgerton announce the birth of a son, Joseph Franklyn, on Monday, March 28, at the Scotland Memorial hospital in Maxton.

Paul McNeill, patient at the Scotland Memorial Hospital in Maxton, is somewhat improved.

Clarence Ammons returned to Wooster, Ohio, on Sunday after spending the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ammons.

Among those who spent Saturday and Sunday in Wilmington attending the Azalea Festival were Mrs. Pete Stanton and her sister, Mrs. W. L. Davis, and daughter, Betty Jane, of Danville, Va.; Mrs. George Bullock, Mrs. J. A. Love, Mrs. David Ratley, Mrs. Sam Thomas, Mrs. Clyde Stanton, Miss Evelyn Odum, Miss Dalia Stanton, and Mrs. Clarence Stanton.

W. B. Morgan Honored On Birthday

W. B. Morgan was guest of honor last Sunday when his wife entertained with a delightful dinner at their home upon the occasion of his birthday.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, and daughter, Alice Lou, all of Dunn, and D. T. Morgan of Fayetteville.

Misses Gay and Bessie Rose Watson of Four Oaks visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Watson over the week end.

Miss Ruth Graham returned to Queens College in Charlotte on Tuesday after spending spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graham.

Morehead Stack, student at the University, spent the week end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. McMillan, Sr.

Mrs. Rosa McMillan Gibbs of New Bern is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. J. L. McMillan, who recently suffered a broken arm.

Miss Agnes Coxie of Womans College faculty returned to Greensboro Sunday after spending last week with her mother, Mrs. E. L. Coxie.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hall of Burlington visited her father, J. D. Odum, several days last week.

Roy Singleton returned home Friday after spending several weeks in the Scotland Memorial hospital in Maxton.

Mrs. Mark Russell of Williamston, W. Va., is visiting her father, Mr. J. A. Singleton, Sr.

Mrs. M. J. Covington who has been sick for several days, is improving.

Miss Carolyn Graham, student at RPI in Richmond, Va., arrived Saturday to spend her spring vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ernest Graham, Sr.

Lt. Col. Willford Webb, professor at Staunton Military Academy and assistant director Camp Wallawhatoola in Millsboro Springs, Va., spent last Monday with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graham and son, Jack.

Mrs. Hiram Grantham, Reid Grantham, and J. B. McCloskey, left Saturday night for Boston, Mass., to visit Mrs. Charles Willis whose son has virus meningitis.

Mrs. Willis, the former Miss Emma Brown Grantham, also has a second child, a daughter, Martha Fedi, born on February 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Townsend of Lumberton and Mr. and Mrs. George Nurnberger, Jr., of Charlotte visited their mother, Mrs. George Nurnberger, Sr., during the weekend.

Miss Dorothy Coleman of Monroe spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Coleman.

Mrs. Thomas Britt of Lumberton visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Coleman, on Saturday.

Mrs. Preston Covington was hostess to her bridge club last Thursday afternoon at her home on Peach Street with three tables in play in the living room.

Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. John J. Bender entertained at a small dinner party at the country club in Lumberton on last Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. Bender, Mr. and Mrs. James Dickson McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gibson.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Allen McLaughlin and two sons, Charles Allen and John Franklin, of Wake Forest returned home on Saturday after spending last week with Mr. McLaughlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McLaughlin.

Special guests for the afternoon's game were: Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Mrs. Tommy Tucker, Mrs. Reece Snyder, and Mrs. MacPherson Bue.

After several progressions of bridge, scores were tallied and high score prize for club members was presented to Mrs. A. S. McKeithan with high for visitors going to Mrs. Tucker. Mrs. Warren McNeill received the consolation prize for low score.

Mrs. Hiram Grantham assisted the hostess in serving a sweet course with punch. Coca Colas were served during the game.

Mrs. Waverly S. Barham, who has been a patient at the Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem for the past ten days, is progressing nicely, according to Mr. Barham who visited her Monday.

OPENS GIFT SHOP

Mrs. Mary Logan Sanderson, retired former professor at Flora Macdonald college, writes friends here that she and her son, Sam, have opened a gift, novelty and book shop in the Hazelwood section of Waynesville. Her address is Route 1, Waynesville.

ATTEND FUNERAL

A number of Red Springs folk attended the funeral services for J. T. John, 85, which were held Sunday afternoon at his home at Johns. Mr. John was the uncle of Lacy John of Lumber Bridge, and the father of Mrs. Henry McLeod, whose husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McLeod of Red Springs. He was the founder of the town which bore his name and one of Scotland county's largest farm operators.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. McLean and son, Dickie will leave today for Key West, Fla., where Mr. McLean will do a two weeks tour of duty with the Naval reserve class in anti-submarine warfare.

Mr. Charles Gardner attended the funeral of his grand-father, Mr. C. B. McCauldless, in Goldsboro on Sunday.

Mrs. Tommie McLean of Fayetteville and her mother, Mrs. Ralph Ellis, of Okmulgee, Okla., spent some time with Mrs. J. D. McLean last week.

Miss Catherine Johnson of Laurinburg spent the weekend with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskall Hall of Pineville arrived Monday to spend several days this week with Miss Mae Brown.

Mrs. George Nurnberger, Jr., of Charlotte is spending this week with Mrs. George Nurnberger, Sr., and her daughters, Judy and Juanita.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Sinclair were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Stark in Columbia, S. C. Mrs. Stark returned with her mother for a short visit.

Miss Sarah Ivey was a weekend guest of Mrs. J. E. McKellar.

Miss Mildred Monroe of Flora Macdonald will return to the college today after spending spring holidays at Barium Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Currie spent the weekend in Raeford with Mrs. Currie's mother, Mrs. Milton Campbell.

Mrs. Elbert McPhaul spent several days recently as the guest of her sister, Miss Amanda Clark, in South Boston, Va.

Mrs. Robert Chapman spent the weekend in Newton with her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Heffner.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reuter attended the piano concert given by Vladimir Horowitz in Columbia Friday night.

J. L. Duncan is reported to be improving at Baker hospital, where he underwent a major operation last week.

Miss Carol Robertson spent the weekend in Asheville with Miss Ora Blackmon, former member of the Flora Macdonald family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bullock and William G. Coxhead visited the Charleston Gardens Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Hunter and son, Bob Jr., of Greensboro are visiting Mrs. Neill McKinnon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Harris of Troy spent Sunday with Mrs. Harris' mother, Mrs. Neill McKinnon.

Allen Warren and Wade McGougan are spending several days in Wilmington this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ashford are spending several days in Washington, D. C., this week. They are expected to return on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graham, Jr., announce the birth of a son, Michael Rogers, on Thursday, March 24, at the Scotland Memorial hospital in Maxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sheets of Fayetteville announce the birth of a son, John Conelius, on Saturday, March 30th, at Pittmans hospital. Mrs. Sheets is the former Miss Johnnie McKellar of Red Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Watson and Barbara motored to Wilmington Sunday for a visit to the Azalea Gardens.

Billie Lewis Wins Rotary Medal

RED SPRINGS.—Billie Lewis, high school junior, will represent Red Springs in the county speaking contest to be held Friday evening at the Lumberton High school. The subject of the contest is "World Peace through the United Nations."

Misses Carolyn Graham, Ruth Graham, Jean McGougan and Mrs. Haskall Hall spent Monday shopping in Fayetteville.

Billie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Knox M. Lewis, won over a field of contenders in a contest among the students of the Red Springs school last week, and in so doing will receive the Rotary club medal which is awarded at commencement time each year for the winner of this feature.

The contest is directed by Miss Cornelia Ayres, teacher of history.

Two-week courses at 76 schools are offered Naval Reservists for annual training with pay.

SPRING Interpretations

Today, choose one of our new hair styles for flattering perfection. They're as new and fresh as the first day of spring.

- Plain Shampoos and sets, $1.00
- Oil Shampoos and Sets $1.25 & up
- Manicures 75c
- Permanents $1.00 and up
- Cold Waves, $6.50 and up

NEW LOCATION

Fourth Avenue - Rear of Scottish Bank Building

Phone 5116 For Appointment

MODERN BEAUTY SHOP

Mrs. Bert Carlyle, Manager

Red Springs, N. C.

LET US QUOTE YOU A PRICE BEFORE SELECTING YOUR MONUMENT

Southern Marble Works
Lumberton, N. C.

STARTING THIS MORNING

Grahams Annual Pre - Easter Sale

Of "Name Brand", Spring Wear

Coats -- Suits Early Spring Dresses

Generous reductions in prices on a wide selection of smart, Nationally Advertised Ready-to-Wear for women, Misses, the Junior Miss and children.

For Your Spring and Early Summer Wear - Come To

Graham's Dept. Store

RED SPRINGS, N. C.

CHOOSE YOURS FROM OUR LEADING STYLE!

Best items in your Easter wardrobe - smart Coats and Suits. All priced for the thrifty.

PRICES REDUCED

Late spring Coats, Suits and Toppers 1-3 off. Other Coats and Suits Reduced one half.

BELK - HENSDALE CO.

Your Home of Better Values

RED SPRINGS, N. C.