Miss Joyner Bride Of Captain McRae

Miss Miriam Scott Joyner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Wiley Joyner of Wilson, became the bride of Captain Roland Lacy McRae, son of Mrs. W. W. Nance of Lexington and the late Roland McRae of Maxton, on Saturday evening at Hayes Barton Methodist church in Raleigh. The Rev. William P. Jones, pastor of the independent Presbyterian church in Greensboro, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The progressions of the nuptial music was given by Dr. Frederick Smith, organist, and David Witherspoon, soloist. Sam Thompson of Mount Olive was the best man and ushers were Jim Vogler of Chapel Hill, Colon Byrd of Kinston, Major James Brewer and Major Lee LaCasse of Arlington, Va.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. John Clegg Lockhart, Jr., Hotbrook, Penn. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Laurie Tully Reed of Chapel Hill, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Roderick Innes of Pinehurst. Miss Linda Scott Lockhart, nee of the bride, was the flower girl and Masmon Polk of Chapel Hill, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Raleigh Woman's club, following which the bride and groom left on a wedding trip. They will be at home in Arlington, Va., where Captain McRae is stationed with U. S. Air Force in the Pentagon, Washington, D. C. Mrs. McRae is a graduate of Woman's College in Greensboro and is assistant home demonstration agent at Wake County.

Captain McRae attended schools in Maxton and is a graduate of University of North Carolina. He served as a pilot during the war. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Pickett Lofton and family of Maxton and Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Polk and family of Chapel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bowman of Chapel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stewart, Miss Wilma Bodiford, Gene Stewart, and Lee McFarland, all of Maxton and Mrs. Frank Tyner of Charlotte.

MAXTON SCENE

Seen Under The TOWN CLOCK

By BOBBY STEWART

Spring has finally descended upon Maxton in all its glory of blossoming dog wood trees, azalea gardens and other early spring flowers making our town more beautiful than at any other time of year. The dogwood trees this year are surely a joy to all who survey them and many a tourist through our city has commented on their beauty. The pink dogwood in front of Mrs. McClelland's especially pretty this year and other flowering trees can be enjoyed throughout town such as the delicate pink blossom of the crabapple trees at Mrs. M. A. Biles' and Miss Lib Austin's.

AZALEAS IN BLOOM

Despite the frost which definitely blighted the early blooming azaleas, the garden at the T. O. Evans' home has been one of the most outstanding in town with its blaze of color creating a small azalea festival of its own. Mrs. Fred Frostick's large azaleas in front of her home are lovely this year and the huge single shrub of azaleas at Mrs. Bessie Nicholson's and Mrs. J. B. McCallum, Sr. are also evidences of the rare beauty and dogwood color of the azaleas. Other proud owners of just as beautiful azaleas round town are Miss Carrie Lee Shaw and Mrs. A. B. Croom. The larger azaleas are surely more showy because of their size and color beauty, but just as lovely and just as enjoyable are the scores of smaller azaleas growing in gardens of other proud owners in Maxton, all adding together to beautify the town.

LOVELY GARDENS

Early gardens of purple and white iris are especially lovely at Miss Bessie McLean's and at Mrs. R. M. Morgan's. Mrs. L. E. Daniel has a most attractive and colorful pansy bed in her front yard and the thrift and tulip border along the front sidewalk at Mrs. Henry Carter's against a background of green spring grass is also surely worth a trip to see. Too numerous to mention the thrift beds all over town are a riot of color especially at Mrs. Taylor Benson's and the

VISIT GARDENS SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Drennan and daughters, Sallie Ann and Judy, J. E. Whitlock and Glen Crofton, Jr., spent Sunday visiting the gardens in Wilmington. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Helleson for the weekend were her niece, Mrs. Clifford Cunningham and three children, and her uncle, James D. Snow, all of Arlington, Va.

Junior Woman's Club Meets Monday Night

The April meeting of the Junior Woman's Club will be held Monday night, April 11th, at the Community Club at eight o'clock. A business session will be conducted by the newly-elected president, Mrs. J. B. Hord. Club dues are to be paid at this meeting or during April, while the membership drive is underway.

A program of entertainment will be presented by pupils of the Maxton Kindergarten following the business meeting. Refreshments will be served by the new officers, Mrs. Hord; Mrs. Malcolm Gillis, vice president; Mrs. Mills Kirkpatrick, treasurer; and Mrs. R. R. Look, secretary.

All club members are urged to attend and interested prospective club members are cordially invited to the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Winters, student at Woman's college in Greensboro, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Winters, and attended the Azalea Festival in Wilmington Saturday with Powell Jones of Lake Waccamaw.

Mrs. Lucy Williams and Miss Marguerite Townsend spent the week end in Florence, S. C., and visited the Hampton Plantation in Georgetown and other gardens.

Earl McEachin and Miss Janice Brown of Laurinburg, spent Sunday in Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Allen, and children, Peggy and Sandy, spent Saturday at White Lake.

Enjoying a fishing trip over the week end at Lake Waccamaw were Murphy McGirt, G. P. Henderson, Dr. Fred Ford and R. C. Holland.

Sgt. 1st Cl. Frank L. Campbell recently re-enlisted in the Army and left for Fort Jackson, S. C., for assignment last week. Mrs. Alton Greene has returned home after spending a week receiving treatment in a hospital in Pittsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cottingham spent the week end in Wilmington with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cottingham. Mrs. Cottingham and little son, Warren returned home with them to visit for a week.

Little Jean Winters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Winters, Jr., underwent a tonsillectomy at Highsmith hospital in Fayetteville on Thursday of last week and returned home on Friday.

Mrs. C. H. Phillips, David Phillips, Clifton Jones, and Misses Eleanor Britt and Ann Nash Maynard spent the week end at Carolina Beach and attended the Azalea Festival and parade, in Wilmington on Saturday.

Miss Betty Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, is spending this week with her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Kirkpatrick, in Blenheim, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Purcell left on Monday for a business trip through Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hord and Janice Marie were visitors in Fayetteville on Thursday of last week.
