Officers Elected For WSCS For Year

Mrs. Robert Marsh gave a most interesting talk on "Human Values" at the Labor "Questions" at the regular meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. F. Lowry. She opened the program with the beloved poem by Longfellow, "The Village Blacksmith," which represents labor 100 years ago. She then discussed the changes which have taken place during the century, the effects of these changes on society, and the obligations upon Christians today with respect to labor.

At the conclusion of her talk, Mrs. Marsh showed pictures which she had gotten during her extended visit to Europe, of the blacksmith shop which inspired Longfellow to write the poem, "The Village Blacksmith." She showed other pictures of the church in the same town as was the shop.

At the business session the officers for the year were elected as represented by the nominating committee composed of Mrs. Ira Pate Lowry, Mrs. John R. Lowry and Miss Marjorie Kanable.

The office, the name of the outgoing officer and the name of the newly elected officer are given below:

- President, Mrs. Joe Smith, outgoing officer, Mrs. Lee Neville, incoming officer.

Thank You Pembroke Progress Contributors

PEMBROKE.—A little more one year ago your present editor took over the responsibility of editing your news for the Pembroke Progress. She wishes here to express her sincere thanks for your fine spirit of cooperation in collecting and sending in news, without which your paper would be impossible, and she wishes to invite your continued support of the Progress in every way in the years to come.

Special mention is made here of some of the correspondents to the paper. You have been very faithful in submitting news: Mrs. W. G. Revels, Pembroke grade school; Mrs. James T. Sampson and her news reporting class of Pembroke High school an particularly Miss Genevieve Lowry who has been so instrumental in seeing that the news reaches the office; Mrs. Mary Sanderson and Mrs. Josephine Locklear, Prospect High school, Miss Mary Martin, Fairmont High school, Mrs. Dorothy Locklear, Ashpole Center school, Mrs. Nettie Godwin Piney Grove school, and all others who have contributed school news.

Deep gratitude is here expressed to Dr. R. D. Wellons for his patience in keeping us informed concerning news of Pembroke State college, to Miss Marjorie Kanable, librarian of PSC who is so helpful in collecting school news, to Miss Lucy Belle Oxendine for Union Chapel news, to Miss Adelaide Locklear for Mt. Airy news, to Mrs. N. C. Stubbs, Sr. for the local Pembroke news, to Mrs. Gaddy Hunt and Mrs. Albert Hammonds for the Fairmont news, to Miss Hennie Oxendine for St. Anna news, to Miss Eula Mae Dial for Harper's Ferry news, to Miss Anna Mae Locklear for the WMU news, to Rev. Harvie Brewington and the other ministers for church news, to Miss Inez Soles for Eeen-Age news, to Dew Beaton for articles of interests, and to the many others who are so patient and kind to answer the phone each week to contribute personal news.

The covering of the PSC sport news by Ray H. Elk and Lindsay Martin is especially commendable. Appreciation is expressed to all others whose names are not mentioned above who have contributed news to the Progress from time to time. Again we say thank
