New power, speed and sleekness are expressed in the advanced design of Studebaker's 1950 passenger car models. Embodying a complete change in frontal appearance and fender treatment, these cars designed by Raymond Loewy Associates appear to be in motion even when they are standing still. Shown here is the 1950 Studebaker Commander convertible.

Author Visits
Faculty Members

PEMBROKE—Miss Ella Deloria, author of the pageant "A Story of the People," presented at Pembroke State College in 1940 and 1941, visited Miss Frances Stinebring at her home with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Baldwin in Elyria, O. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pate Lowry were guests at the Baldwin home at the time. A pleasant evening was spent reminiscing over happenings in Pembroke.

Miss Susie Deloria, who is also known in Pembroke as the artist and costumer of the pageant, accompanied her sister.

Miss Ella Deloria is the author of five books, one of which is "Speaking of Indians." She has been spending time at Oberlin, O., working on her most recent book, "The Dakotas," a social study which will go to press in September.

The Deloria sisters plan to visit soon in South Dakota. Later, they plan to go to Florida at which time they will stop over in Pembroke.

Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Brewington accompanied by Sanford Sampson visited Seaside and the newly acquired Baptist property, Fort Caswell, on Thursday.
