MAXTON-Plans were made to sponsor an amusement carnival which is being held this week in Maxton, at the monthly meeting of the American Legion which was held Friday at the Legion Hut. C. A. Hasty was appointed in charge of this project from the post.

Commander R. E. Hellekson appointed D. L. Stone, Sr., as assistant finance officer for the organization and R. F. Morris and Percy Phillips were appointed as chairman in charge of securing program for the annual Legion banquet to be held this year in November. Jas. Drennan was appointed chairman of the food committee.

commended by their comrades in The playground committee was the recent playground project which proved of much value to the community during the summer months and is still serving vital purposes. It was decided that the age limit of children using the playground would be set at 12 years of age. It was announced that the annual membership dues would be increased effective October 1st to $3.50 and all members were urged to join now, thereby saving fifty cents on their dues.
