

THE ROANOKE PATRON.

This paper is entered at the Post Office at Potocasi as second-class matter

THURSDAY ..... NOV. 15 1888.

LOCAL.

Fair at murfreesboro this week. Biggest frost this fall on Monday morning. Baptist State Convention in session at Greensboro this week. The little snowbirds remind us that old winter is most here. Hurry up, bro. farmer, it will soon be too late to sow wheat. Don't get left. Those who have cotton in the patch, should get it out as soon as possible. The election is over, and our country is safe, we hope, and now for business. Tricots, Henrietta Cloths, Dress Flannels.

BUXTON & BAUGHAM

The fair premium list takes much of our space this week, but we thought our readers would prefer to have it all at once.

Bros. A. E. Peelle and T. C. Parker represented Potocasi church at the organization of the new church at Margarettsville, last Sunday.

Bag Cloth and Ties for Bailing Cotton, 80 to 90 cts per sett, weight 23 to 25 lbs., for sale by

BUXTON & BAUGHAM

Mr J. B. Weston, a boss carpenter on the A. & D. rail-road, is at home with his family this week. He has been quite sick, but is better.

We cannot help feeling glad that our little sister Susie got the premium on bouquets again this year. She worked so hard to get it, it would have been a pity if she had failed.

Messrs LeKies & Collins continue to buy quantities of pine lumber in this county. Mr. LeKies was in our village Tuesday, settling with parties who had sold to him.

The President has set apart the 29 day of this month as a day of national thanksgiving. David says: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."

The Raleigh News and Observer of the 13th says: "From the income state returns so far received it looks to be between 15,000 and 17,000."

MARRIED—In the Methodist church, Jackson, N. C. by the Rev. John O. Moss, Mr. Richard A. Weaver to Miss Myda Calvert, Nov. 14th 1888.

We were pleased to receive a call from Mr. W. H. Ivey, this week. He said he was out looking for seed wheat. Sorry we could not inform him where he could get some. He came up to see us about the PATRON, however.

We are glad to know that the Master of our State Grange, W. R. Williams, has again been elected to the Senate. We hope he will succeed in getting through the measures he so earnestly fought for, in the last session of our Legislature.

We are glad to report Mr. G. D. Hollomon, who has lately suffered a very severe attack of neuralgia in the head, as much better. He was able to sit up by the fire Sunday, and we hope he will soon recover his usual health.

If the reader knows any one wishing to buy the best sewing machine in America, please say to him or her it can be had of Buxton & Baugham, at a price to please.

The New Domestic, five on hand and they must go.

Mr. J. T. Johnson, of our village was called away by telegram Sunday night, to visit his sick brother near Purvis, Va. He returned Tuesday night. He says there is not much hope of the recovery of his brother, who has a severe attack of congestion of the brain.

"Behold, I thought," according to the Republican doctrine of protection, cotton would go up should Harrison be elected, but it seems to be going the other way. Maybe Harrison is not elected, or the cotton kings have not found it out.

In obedience to a request of the Supt of the Oxford Orphan Assylum, we call the attention of our readers to the matter of getting up a contribution on Thanksgiving day, to help provide for the 245 children now at the assylum through the winter months. A contribution is needed, and it could not perhaps be given to a better cause. "He that giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord." If you like the security, invest your spare change in this way.

Rev. Thos. C. Britton preached his farewell sermon to the church here on Sunday. He gave his reasons for being a missionary, and surely they are enough to make a missionary of every one who has the spirit of Christ. At the end of the sermon a collection was taken, which added to the amount contributed on Saturday, made $5241. Bro. Britton said he expected to start to the Convention Tuesday morning, from whence he would go to Richmond and thence to San Francisco, Cal., and would sail for Shanghai, China, on the 20th, we think, and would be about four weeks in reaching his destination. He asked to be remembered by us, and said, he wished to shake the hand of the dear brethren and sisters of his old mother church, before leaving. After the benediction, many pressed forward, and grasped the hand of this devoted servant of God. It was an affecting scene, and few were those who did not weep at having to part with such a beloved brother, and many earnest prayers went up to the throne, for protecting care and blessings on his labors. To be sure old ocean will separate him from his dear home-people, but God's people may take comfort in this:

"Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet. Around one common mercy seat."

Official Vote of Northampton County.

To School Committeemen.

There will be a regular meeting of the Board of Education on the first Monday in December. All who have any business to bring before the Board can do so on that day. Those who have not done so, will do me a favor by sending in the Census Report of the children in their district at once.

My next County examination for the white teachers will be on Thursday the 13th, and for colored on Saturday the 25th of December. I will examine on the histories of North Carolina and the United States as well as on the reading schools.

School Committeemen will also bear in mind that each teacher must have a Certificate dated within twelve months of the time they are employed, and that the teacher must furnish evidence of good moral character, as no other persons ought to teach school.

JOHN W. FLEETWOOD, Co. Supt. Pub. Instruction, Jackson, N. C., Nov. 7, 1888.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

It behooves the farmers to look sternly at facts that effect them in any particular, and especially when their interests are to be seriously involved.

The crop of both corn and wheat are short in this State—shorter than for years past. The wheat crop is also short throughout the United States. Flour has already advanced greatly recently, and the crop of wheat seems to be in the hands of a few monopolists. If this is so, then there is no telling where the price of flour will go. Farmers, of all other men, should be self-supporting, and the only way to be so is to produce all supplies necessary for farm consumption. The grain, forage and most crops should receive special attention at all times, and under all circumstances, but more especially should they be carefully looked after at this time, as it will be money saved, and that is money made, according to the old axiom.

Be sure, then, to sow wheat. If not able to sow as much as you would like, sow what you can, after having prepared your land well, and I don't think you will regret it. Sow what winter oats you can, before it is too late. By all means sow land thoroughly prepared and mowed in rye, and let it be done without delay, for there is no green forage crop that can take the place of it for spring feeding in this latitude.

Be sure also to have some land well prepared for clover, or some of the grasses, to be seeded next spring—not later than the month of March. These crops here mentioned appear to be small and not of much importance, but are very important to any farmer, and will be appreciated by all who will test them.

JOHN ROBINSON, Commissioner.
