Living on the Reputation of Others.

"Take everything that I have but my good name; leave me that and I am content." So said the philosopher. So say all manufreturers of genuine articles to that horde of imitators which thrives upon the reputation of others. The good name of AllCock's Po-ROUS PLASTERS has induced many adventurers to put in the market imitations that are not only lacking in the best elements of the r genuine article, but are often harmful in their effects. The public should guard against these frau is and when an external remedy ineeded, he sure to insist upon having ALL-
