Visiting Golfers Flock To Golf Courses Despite Misbehavior of Weather

Party of Thirty-One From Washington Conducts Own Informal Tournament.

PRIZE FOR LEAST PUTTS

By A. Linde Fowler.

Mother always said that my brother Vic was a perfect little angel except when company came. Then he seemed to be possessed by the spirit incarnate and undoubtedly sent the visitors away with the thought in mind that here was a spoiled brat, whose parents were not fit to bring up a family. That's the nearest thing to an analogy befitting the weather Pinehurst handed out yesterday to the largest February contingent of guests the local resort has known in at least seven seasons.

Here we had been experiencing some corking days, some with bright sunshine, others with clouds but no precipitation, and all with moderate temperatures, lasting until the trains began coming in with Pullmans peopled to capacity with guests for over the week-end and Washington's Birthday. Then Jupe Pluvius, crusty unfeeling and notoriously inconsiderate old codger, saw fit to put on a fit of the weeps yesterday to the discomfort of resident and guest golfers, and the disruption of schedules, so that the weekly tournament of the Tin Whistles was among the events postponed.

Another of the interrupted programs was that of a group of thirty-one golfing enthusiasts from Washington, D. C., composed largely of lawyers and business men, but with Senator Edward Burke as one of their number. They comprise a sort of society that started fifteen years ago as a group of four, to make an annual pilgrimage to some point south in mid-winter. The original group began to grow in numbers until it attained a maximum of forty-five members. A majority of those here at Pinehurst on the present pilgrimage are members of the Washington Golf and Country club.

A number of them got in eighteen holes yesterday in spite of the rain, for the morning was not half bad. In fact, it is worthy of note that it was one of the most active days at the Country Club this entire season. There were a hundred and twenty registrations on the day book, and that did not include the many who had weekly, monthly or season tickets, so that during the day, including those who started out in the afternoon and did not finish, there must have been all of two hundred and fifty starters on the three courses that are in play.

While the Washington group did not carry out their second day program of the four that their stay embraces, they did take full advantage of the excellent playing weather on Friday to put through a quarter of their program, so that some of the prizes which will be passed out at their final meeting are in the records.

The best gross so far recorded is a 78 by R. T. Harrell. The low net for eighteen holes so far is the 96-37-59 of Arthur May. The low gross prize for the first nine holes of the first day was a 41 by George Elliott, and for the second nine a 39 by P. W. Calfee. The low nine hole net of the first nine resulted in a triple tie between Maurice Horton, Gay Harrell and W. B. Putnam. The low net of the second nine was turned in by Freeman Stricklin. The lowest gross for any one hole was a tie at deuce between R. T. Harrell and Charles Claggett, who got their 2's on the fourteenth hole of the No. 3. The highest score for any one hole was a 13 by K. P. Parkinson on the seventeenth hole of N. 3, whereby he spoiled an otherwise excellent round. R. T. Harrell was the only member of the party who thus far has broken 80. P. W. Calfee had an 84 as second best, and George Elliott an 85, his chances for the runner-up gross position spoiled when he took an 8 on the seventeenth hole of the No. 3 course.

There is a special prize for the least number of putts in the four days, and Calfee, the man whose 39 at present stands as low gross for the second nine on the No. 3, has made a good start toward copping that trophy, for he took only 24 putts in his first round. That equals the low mark, set by George Elliott last year on the Bobby Jones course at Augusta, Ga.

Samuel Rosoff, I. R. T. King Sought as Material Witness In Union Worker's Death

Alleged to Have Threatened Life Of Slain Subway Workers Union Leader.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR ARREST

TEANECK, N. J., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Prosecutor John J. Breslin announced this afternoon that he was issuing a warrant for the arrest of Samuel Rosoff, wealthy New York subway builder, as a material witness in the slaying of R. Norman Redwood, New York business manager of a subway workers' union.

Breslin's announcement came a short time after Rosoff, in New York, said he would not come here for questioning about the slaying, but would submit to examination by authorities at his New York apartment.

The prosecutor said county detective chief Henry B. Lockwood would sign the warrant for Rosoff. Lockwood had been directing the detectives investigating the killing of Redwood by an auto load of gunmen in the driveway of his secluded Laurelton Parkway home here last night. Labor troubles have been blamed by authorities for the killing.

Breslin declared he had an affidavit from a material witness which told of a meeting in Rosoff's New York apartment February 5. The affidavit said, Breslin stated, that Rosoff told Redwood at that time that if he ever "pulled a strike" he would kill him. Breslin declined to reveal the name of the witness from whom the affidavit was obtained.

BIDDLE AGENCY ANNOUNCES TWO NEW RENTALS HERE

Two important rentals have been announced by the L. L. Biddle, II, agency. Mrs. L. G. Dana of Bradford, Pennsylvania, has leased the William E. Whiting home in Knollwood for the remainder of the season and the Stanton Cottage in Pinehurst has been taken by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Cheseborough of New York City.

Calling All Horses

If you happen to be in the vicinity of the Carolina Hotel about three o'clock this afternoon and you see something that looks like a barnyard scene, don't swear off drinking or anything like that, because you won't be "seeing things," you'll be SEEING THINGS . . . Pigs, donkeys, horses, etc., will be up there for the special gymkhana which is scheduled to begin at three o'clock.

Featured on the fun card is donkey polo, in which ladies will ride horses and gents mules. An inflated beach ball will be used as a polo pill, brooms will be used for clubs and who knows what or who will be used for goal posts.

Everyone is invited to come and bring a friend.

Picard Ahead Half Way Through Thomasville Open

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Henry Picard, one of the game's consistent money winners of recent years, cracked par again today to break the three way opening round deadlock and assume command of the $3,000 Thomasville open golf tournament with a 36 hole total of 140.

Picard was 4 under par at the halfway point but held only one stroke lead over a trio of combatants in the scramble for top money of $700.

Right on the heels of the pace setting Picard with cards of 141 were Ky Laffoon, Horton Smith and Jimmy Thomson.

GUN CLUB TO HOLD DUCK SHOOT MONDAY AFTERNOON

Manager Leonard Barrett of the Pinehurst Gun Club announces a Washington's Birthday Duck Shoot at the Gun Club from 2 to 5 Monday afternoon. There will also be skeet, rifle and trap shooting all through the day, both Sunday and Monday.

You do not have to be an expert to win a duck, manager Barrett says, and a large field of novice shooters is expected.

President Marshals Forces To Push Court Reform Legislation Thru Congress

No Talk Of Compromise in Second White House Conference Yesterday.

COMMITTEE TO SIT MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(AP) President Roosevelt gave congressional leaders tonight the signal to go ahead with legislation for reorganizing the courts.

Senators emerging from the second of two conferences at the White House forecast that the Senate Judiciary Committee would begin work Monday on the President's proposal to name six new justices to the Supreme Court.

Some said there was no talk of compromise at the White House. As legislators left Thomas Corcoran, young presidential adviser, who is widely credited with helping draft the Court program, went to dine with the President.

Two of the dozen senators who attended the conference tonight, Frazier and Nye, (R-ND) already were opposed to the presidential idea, and said afterward they had not changed their attitude.

Others who attended the second conference were LaFollette, (Prog-Wis) and Bone and Schwellenbach (D-Wash). Bone has prepared a constitutional amendment as a possible substitute for Court reorganization. Schwellenbach and LaFollette have sided with the President.

Some of these Senators said they had general discussions of the Court situation and various amendments which have been proposed as alternatives to the chief executive's program.

One said he got the impression the President would not be opposed to a constitutional amendment being sought along with the program. But there was no indication the Chief Executive would give up his plan in favor of a congressional amendment.

Club Chalfonte Floor Show Wins Unanimous Acclaim

A special Washington's Birthday week-end of gaiety is planned by the Club Chalfonte, with five featured entertainment artists augmenting the soft syncopation of Bernie Brenner and his London Terrace orchestra.

The evening's round of entertainment at the Club Chalfonte features Jeanette and Kalan, a talented ball room team who come to the Sandhills from an extended engagement at the Roxy Theatre in New York. Their Manhattan after Midnight number is done to a special arrangement of the smooth, swinging Manhattan Serenade, originated by Kalan himself. Dashing, twirling and with grace of rhythmic motion is their Whirlwind which is done to the music of Broadway Rhythm. Aside from their engagement at the Roxy, Jeanette and Kalan have performed at the Commodore in Philadelphia; Coconut Grove in Boston and the Drake Hotel in Chicago.

Petite blonde Mae Miller, of Baltimore and Washington is also featured with a different tap and acrobatic number.

Topping it all off is Peggy Roberts, famous in the New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington night spots for her clever and talented rendition of continental songs.

Davidson College Glee Club To Sing in Southern Pines

Those persons who attend the program by the Davidson College Glee Club and Little Symphony Orchestra on Sunday, February 21, at 8 p. m., in the Church of Wide Fellowship in Southern Pines are assured of hearing two talented and well trained organizations. These groups have been acclaimed far and wide through their concerts and their weekly radio programs.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Bright of Princeton, New Jersey and Pinehurst announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Rodman Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rowland Morgan of Chestnut Hill, Pennsylvania. Miss Bright was graduated from the Ethel Walker School in 1934 and made her debut in Princeton and New York the following fall. Mr. Morgan will be graduated from Princeton University in June and is a member of the Cap and Gown Club.
