COWSLIP

Clamorous cocktail crowd . . . amusing—
 All but me . . . dull repartee . . .
 Let them think that I'm half snoozing;
 What I'm seeing they don't see,—

Don't see inept women present,
 Don't see poor, tame men, heads bowed.
 Well, being bullied were not unpleasant,
 But it's fatal to be cowed!

H. C. KENNERLY DIES HERE AFTER FEW DAYS ILLNESS

H. C. Kennerly, proprietor of the Pinehurst Greenhouses, and one of Pinehurst's most respected business men, died yesterday morning of pneumonia at the Moore County hospital. He had been ill only a few days.

Originally from Everett, Mass., he and his wife, who now survives, came to Pinehurst in 1916 and took over the management of the Pinehurst Greenhouses. They had no children. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

LARGE SANDHILLS ESTATE SOLD BY BIDDLE AGENCY

One of the most important real estate deals of the Spring season in Pinehurst was transacted yesterday by the L. L. Biddle Agency when Whittemore Grove was sold to W. H. and H. P. Rummage of Laurinburg and Ellerbe. The tract of land, comprising over two hundred acres, is located near the Charles T. Crocker estate and is one of the largest timber tracts in the section. Several years ago, Mr. Whittemore maintained a cabin near the lake, but it was destroyed by fire. The new owners plan to make a hunting preserve and eventually build on the land.

The Village of Pinehurst has 23.9 miles of gravelled sidewalks ideal for walking in all kinds of weather.

member of the Duke team, all had seventy-fives, playing the last five holes in the rain, and the last hole in the deluge. Bill Meany, of New York, James T. Hunter, of North Adams, Mass., and the long-hitting H. J. Blue and Dick Davidson, seventy-sevens. R. Murray, with a seventy-eight, and Bill Cozart were other two among the seventy-five finishers who broke eighty, and it looked at that time as if a total of eighty-two or eighty-three would qualify in the championship flight.

The course, because of the rain late Sunday and overnight was in the best condition since last Fall, the fairways surprisingly resuscitated by the moisture, and the putting greens never finer.

PINE NEEDLES

"Not Urban, but Urbane"

PINE NEEDLES possesses too many attractions to enumerate them all here. But among the outstanding ones are:

ACCESSIBILITY. Easily reached by train, automobile or airplane from all parts of the country; midway between Pinehurst and Southern Pines, less than 5 minutes ride from either.

CIVIC ORGANIZATION. Property owners have a voice in the management of community affairs regardless of where their voting citizenship is located.

PUBLIC UTILITIES. Water, sewers, fire hydrants, improved streets properly maintained.

CIVIC SERVICES. Adequate policing, watchman day and night during summer, waste removal twice a week, fire protection.

HOTEL. Pine Needles Inn, fireproof hostelry of the highest type.

SPORTS. Eighteen-hole Donald Ross golf course with perfect fairways (grass putting greens are to be installed ready for play next fall), beautiful new Club House, finest eighteen-hole putting course in the world (not simply a putting green), tennis courts, children's playground.

LOTS. Ample in size, moderate in price; one-half acre to an acre, $1,000 each.

CONVENIENCES. All the conveniences of a city without its annoyances, all the attractions of the country without its disadvantages.

NATURAL BEAUTY. Rolling terrain with beautiful vistas, abundance of pines and dogwoods.

LOW TAXES. $19.60 on $1,000 assessed valuation, appraisals reasonable; total annual taxes on a vacant lot are but $7.84; no bonded or other municipal indebtedness.
