

Complete All-Day Program Announced in Dedication Of Airport Here Tomorrow

Stunt Flying, Parachute Jumping and Races in Air; Army Maneuvers, Band, Speeches on Ground

FIELD ARTILLERY COMING

The upside-down flying—and other aerial stunts—of Johnny Crowell of the Carolina Aero Club, the parachute jumps of Jack Huber, North Carolina boy, from a height of 12,000 feet, air races by members of the Aero Club and maneuvers by Fort Bragg's Army Air Squadron will feature the air part of the program at the dedication of the Knollwood Airport tomorrow. The program starts at 11:00 o'clock with a concert by the Fort Bragg Band.

On the ground will be as many features as in the air, to relieve the tension on the 10,000 or more necks expected at the new $75,000 flying field midway between Pinehurst and Southern Pines, on the Carthage road. There will be speeches by United States Senator Robert R. Reynolds, by Brigadier General Manus McCloskey, commanding officer at Fort Bragg, by Congressman Walter Lambeth of this district, by Second Assistant Postmaster General Harlee Branch of Washington, by State WPA Administrator George W. Coan, and Major A. L. Fletcher, State Commissioner of Labor. The dedication ceremonies are slated to start at 1:00 o'clock.

The air races are scheduled for 2:30, with a light plane race, a ribbon cutting contest in mid-air, a cabin plane race and a free-for-all event. Both Crowell and Huber will also perform in the afternoon.

At 4:15 comes the retreat ceremony by the U. S. Army Band and military units from Fort Bragg, which include a battery of motorized field artillery. This will be followed by a reception for army officers, fliers and notables present at the Pine Needles Club house at 5:00 o'clock.

At 10:00 o'clock tomorrow night the Aviation Ball will be held in the Pine Needles Club house for those desiring to trip the light fantastic, and for other will be an exhibition of motion pictures of the dedication of battle monuments in France, with a talk by Congressman Lambeth, at the Carolina theatre in Southern Pines. This starts at 10:30.

Ample facilities for parking have been arranged for at the airport. Many plan to be on hand early so as not to miss anything, and will carry their lunches with them. Light drinks will be available at the field.

International Harvester Co. Men Gather at Pine Needles

The Pine Needles Inn, one of the most outstanding and important hotels in the Sandhills, opens informally today with about 100 members of the International Harvester Company holding their annual convention. The company, which has state headquarters at Charlotte, will have a number they will remain through Saturday. Emmett E. Boone, manager of the hotel since its opening several years ago, arrived yesterday from a successful season at The Howell House in Westhampton, Long Island. Mr. Boone reports a large number of reservations for the formal opening next Thursday, the 18th, and also a full house over the Christmas holidays.

ENTERTAINS KIWANIS

I. O. Wolf of the Ethyl Gasoline Corporation, with headquarters in Columbia, S. C., entertained members of the Sandhills Kiwanis Club at the Pinehurst Community Church yesterday noon with motion pictures of the development of the automobile and with it, modern gasoline.

WHAT TO DO AND SEE

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1937

GOLF

At the Pinehurst Country Club.
At Southern Pines Country Club.
At Pine Needles Club, Knollwood.

TENNIS

At the Pinehurst Country Club.

DANCING AND DINING

Dancing, dining and entertainment at the Club Chalfonte on the Pinehurst-Aberdeen road, 13 miles from Pinehurst, every night from 8:00 to 4:00.

Dancing and dining at the Dunes Club on Midland Road between Pinehurst and Southern Pines every night.

RIDING

For hacking or instruction apply at desk of your hotel.

BOWLING

At the Pinehurst Casino, noon to midnight.

COMING EVENTS

Thursday, November 11—Armistice Day Turkey Shoot at the Pinehurst Gun Club from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Friday, November 12 — Dedication of the Knollwood Airport and Armistice Day celebration at the airport, starting at 11:00 a. m. and continuing all day, with an Aviation Ball in the evening.

17th Annual Mid-South Professional Tournament at Pinehurst Country Club Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 16, 17, 18, 19.

At Southern Pines: Today at 3:00 and 8:20—Irene Dunne and Cary Grant in "The Awful Truth."

At Aberdeen: Tonight at 7:15 and 9:00—"This Ice" with Sonja Henie and Tryone Power.

Opening of the Pinehurst Theatre: Sunday night at 8:30—Jeanette MacDonald and Alan Jones in "Firefly."

F. Shelby Cullom of Dunn To Manage Bank of Pinehurst

The directors of the Bank of Pinehurst announced yesterday that arrangements had been completed with F. Shelby Cullom of Dunn, this state, to take over the active management of the bank. Forest W. Von Canon, who recently resigned, will continue as president until his resignation becomes effective on January 1st and Mr. Cullom's official connection in the bank will be as vice president.

Mr. Cullom has been with the Branch Banking and Trust Company of Wilson since 1929, and had had extensive banking experience before forming his connection with that institution. During the past two and one half years Mr. Cullom has been located with the Fayetteville branch of the Branch Banking and Trust Company where he has had charge of the Loans and Discount department.

The directors have been in contact with Mr. Cullom for some time, and are much pleased at being able to interest him to come with the Bank of Pinehurst. Mr. Cullom is a man of very pleasing personality, is thoroughly grounded in all phases of modern banking and has been highly recommended both for his ability and his personal character. Mr. and Mrs. Cullom will live in Pinehurst, where they have already rented a house.

THE WEATHER

Cloudy and threatening. Occasional rain in south and central portions Thursday. Probably clearing Friday. Slightly colder.

Cut Expenditures. Balance Budget, Sec'y. Morgenthau Urges in New York Speech

Treasury Head Calls For Less Spending in Relief, Highways, Public Works and Agriculture

BYRD DEMANDS CURTAILMENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—(P)—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau tonight called upon the administration to balance the budget by cutting expenditures. In what appeared to be an effort to encourage business to pull itself out of its current slump, the treasury secretary intimated that tax receipts would be insufficient for the current rate of spending, and advocated a $695,000,000 reduction in next year's federal expenditures. Specifically he called for less spending for relief, highways, public works and agriculture—apparently aiming a blow at some proposals to be up for consideration at the special session of Congress which convenes next week.

In addition Morgenthau advocated broadening the income tax structure to include more persons on the tax rolls.

Senator Byrd, Virginia Democrat and advocate of economy, also demanded tonight that the federal government stop "writing checks" which will eventually visit terrible consequences on our people. In his speech before the Academy of Political Science Senator Byrd declared that it is inevitable that the national credit will be impaired unless we retrench.

PINEHURST SCOREBOARD

By Robert E. Harlow

Donald J. Ross, Chief of Staff of Pinehurst golf, played himself in for the 1937-38 season yesterday over the No. 3 course with a remarkable score of 35-33-68. He accomplished this with a brilliant finish of 2-4-3-3-4.

Mr. Ross was a member of a four-ball match in which Lloyd D. Brace of Boston was his partner against former Governor Channing H. Cox of Boston and Richard S. Tufts. It was a game in which two points were credited to each hole and Mr. Cox and Mr. Tufts nosed out a one-point victory.

It was the professional finish of the former Governor which brought victory for his side. He played the last five holes in 3-4-4-5-6.

Mr. Tufts scored 35-37-72. He played on even terms with Mr. Ross for the first nine but lost ground to the exceptional 33 Mr. Ross stroked on the final nine.

The first tournament played on grass greens in Pinehurst was the 1935 Mid-South events when Gene Kunes and Dick Metz won the pro 36-hole bestball competition with a card of 137, and Orville White, of Greensboro, the individual with 144. Previous to the grass greens the competition was held over the sand greens and produced three winning scores of 131, by Henry Cuici and Joe Turnesa in 1928; by Tom Creavy and Harmon Barron in 1931, and by Tom Armour and Al Watrous in 1932. The best individual record over the sand was Mike Turnesa's 135.

Among those who were disappointed when the Duke and Duchess cancelled their American trip was Horton Smith, American Ryder Cup team member, who has played a number of times with the Duke of England. Smith had high hopes of playing with Windsor during the American tour and had cabled the British nobleman an invitation to join him in Pinehurst.

Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, women's national golf champion, states that the first time she ever struck a golf ball was at West Point and that she took an iron and hit it onto the green of a short hole.

(Continued on page 3)

$46,193,000,000

That Was Cost of World War to U. S., Says Treasury on Eve of Armistice Day

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(P)—Between tonight's civilian sunset and tomorrow's military taps 83 Americans now living will join an old comrade in death.

They are veterans of the World War who 19 years ago on Nov. 11 laid down their arms in armistice and who now, the veterans administration said, are dying at that daily rate.

Their comrade is that mute sentinel of the warrior dead—America's unknown soldier.

Many of the survivors are well and happy, but:

Fifty-two thousand are in hospitals and institutions . . . six times that number are without regular jobs . . . some have no eyesight . . . others are maimed of limb and mind.

The veterans administration has expended $22,236,749,214 . . . adjusted service certificates have gone out to 3,468,967 veterans . . . about $1,400,000,000 of the bonds have been turned into cash.

The treasury, on the eve of Armistice Day, checked back over the yellowing ledgers and estimated that the World War has cost the United States—

$46,193,000,000!

Destiny in 19 years has kicked the scene upside down.

The war president, Woodrow Wilson, is long dead.

The wartime assistant secretary of the navy—Franklin D. Roosevelt—will go to the sloping hills of Arlington cemetery tomorrow to lay a wreath on the Unknown Soldier's tomb.

Soldiers have become senators . . . generals have died . . . captains are colonels . . . heroes of battle are leaders of industry.

Mothers, wives and daughters still write the war department frantically searching for information about the Unknown Soldier . . . "He may be ours."

Some of Country's Leading Trotters Gathered Here

Activity at Race Track Increased by Arrival of Eight Head for Smith's Newbrook Stables

By Lou Koch

Activity at the Pinehurst Race Track, winter training ground of some of the country's crack threats to the harness horse circuits each year, is continually increasing.

Among the most recent arrivals at the track are eight head at the Newbrook Stables, owned by H. Stacy Smith of Newark, N. J., under the training charge of Karl (Vermont) Recor. Recor has set a high mark as a horse trainer in the harness class and has brought in innumerable winners during his career in the upper circuits. This is the ninth season that Smith has been shipping his stable of trotters and pacers to Pinehurst for winter training. This fact, plus the prominent position the Newbrook Stables hold in money and race-winning class, is one of the finest recommendations for the general suitability Pinehurst bears as one of the choicest winter training centers of the world.

The present string at Newbrook Stables includes three 3-year olds, Freckles, Judge Mahoney and Garioca; three 2-year olds, Sun Dial, Harris and Blair and two yearlings, Glorianna and Dana.

Freckles, (2:04), by Guy Day, Dam Lockaway Express, is a most prospective looking race colt. At the Newark meet this season Freckles came within one-half of a second of the world's record of the famous Mr. Watt, 2:03 1/2 over the half-mile track. Carioca (2:06), by Spencer, dam Carolyn, was winner of 11 starts out of 15, a promising candidate for next year's all-age events. Judge

(Continued on page 2)

Pine Needles Club's New Grass-Greened Course Opened For Play Yesterday

Foursome From Staten Island Enthusiastic in Praise of Layout; E. J. Maloy Hold Record—at 89

MANY IMPROVEMENTS MADE

By Robert E. Harlow

Another great Sandhills golf course was re-dedicated yesterday when the Pine Needles was opened for play for the first time since the greens were changed from those of sand to grass.

During the summer grass greens, ample in size, averaging 6,000 feet in area, and undulating just enough to make putting interesting, were installed. There are other improvements: large tees, new ladies' tees on some holes, changes in some fairway design and the installation of more than five miles of pipe for watering.

The Pine Needles justly famous 18-hole putting course just in front of the Hotel is a carpet of perfect green and in fine condition for putting. A children's putting course has been added.

Thus, golf in the Sandhills takes another step in increasing the prestige gained through 40 years of golf in Pinehurst.

Emmett E. Boone, Sr, manager of the Pine Needles arrived yesterday and was present when the flags were put up on the course's brand new grass greens. George T. Dunlap, Sr. was the first golfer to try out these surfaces and reported them as possessing qualities which give the ball a true roll.

The Pine Needles course was built by Donald Ross in 1928 and this famous architect took advantage of the rolling country which surrounds the Pine Needles Inn to construct 18 individualistic, testing and very beautiful golf holes through the pines.

The first foursome to tee off on the revamped course was composed of E. J. Maloy, Arthur Thompson, William T. Featherston and Thomas V. Cantwell, all members of the Richmond County Country Club of Staten Island. They are guests at Pine Needles and were enthusiastic in their praise of the layout. Mr. Maloy, with an 89, has the satisfaction of holding the new course record, at least until today.

Johnny Capello, who was connected with the Pinehurst professional staff for 15 years, is now in Pine Needles and will be joined later by Ted Turner of Pine Valley. Capello is located at the Hyannisport Club, in Massachusetts, in the summer. Angus Maples is greenkeeper.

From the Blue tee markers Pine Needles measures 6,345 yards, and from the White tee markers, 6,117 yards. The distances and par for the longer course:

Hole	Distance	Par
1	400	4
2	458	5
3	435	4
4	142	3
5	366	4
6	200	3
7	412	4
8	408	4
9	316	4
Out	3,182	35

Hole	Distance	Par
10	318	4
11	404	4
12	375	4
13	365	4
14	195	3
15	385	4
16	456	5
17	175	3
18	425	4
In	6,117	35

Total yardage—6345; Par—70.

A description of these holes will be published in a later issue.