

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Beautiful golf weather.

Do you still write it '98?

The Holly Inn is rapidly filling up.

The Department Store has just received a carload of Irish potatoes from Michigan.

All the roads leading out of town are being repaired, and driving parties are now in order.

Episcopal services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Gregory in the Village Hall last Sabbath afternoon.

The Casino reading room contains the leading papers and magazines for the free use of all in the village.

The February term of Moore Superior court will open at Carthage January 30th with Judge Robinson presiding.

Rev. Mr. Emery preached a very spiritual sermon last Sunday morning, on the subject: "Waiting for the Lord's appearing."

A special car took a party of our villagers to Southern Pines last evening to witness the amateur dramatic entertainment in Kings Daughters Hall.

The business at THE OUTLOOK office has increased to such an extent that a new 10x15 Chandler & Price printing press has been added to the plant.

This (Friday) morning, the festival of the Epiphany, there was a service of holy communion at the Sunday school room in the Village Hall, at 10 o'clock.

The Christian union services will be held at the Village Hall at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning, with preaching by Rev. G. R. Ransom. All are invited to attend.

Choice cut flowers, roses and carnations at lowest prices supplied promptly through the Pinehurst Nurseries. See list of prices and leave orders at the Department Store.

A handsomely illustrated edition of THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK was published Oct. 28th. It contained a write-up of Pinehurst, the beautiful village for health and rest.—Southern Publisher.

Three wild turkeys were brought into the Department Store last Wednesday, and two others were received earlier in the week, making five in all. The birds were all shot in the vicinity of our village.

The Pinehurst base ball club has challenged the Carthage nine to play on our village diamond in the near future, and the Carthage people are expected to accept and bring a large crowd of rooters with them.

Pinehurst is soon to have a new industry. Improved machinery for the manufacture of carbonated drinks is being installed in the basement of the OUTLOOK building, and the new plant will soon be able to supply the trade in this section of the state.

The season in Pinehurst is opening up well and the hotels and boarding houses contain more than twice as many guests as in any previous year at this time. The cottages also are nearly all taken and indications point to the most prosperous season in the history of the village.

George Hutchinson, the electrician, of Southern Pines, has been taking F. H. Bacon's place at the power plant for several days, during the latter gentleman's illness. Mr. Hutchinson is a former resident of Pinehurst, and was employed here as an electrician and engineer for over two years.

The Pinehurst base ball nine went to Southern Pines last Saturday afternoon to play the Southern Pines team. After playing three innings the game was called on account of rain. A car load of rooters accompanied the boys to Southern Pines, and the people there, also, turned out in good numbers to witness the game. The teams will try conclusions again in the near future.

The Bishop of North Carolina, the Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D. D., will visit Emmanuel church, Southern Pines, on Sunday next, and administer the apostolic rite of confirmation. He will also preach and celebrate the holy communion. Service at 10.30 a. m. The bishop will accompany the Rev. Mr. Gregory to Pinehurst and preach in the Village Hall at 3.15 p. m.

Mrs. Rosana McCoy, a colored woman who has lived in the vicinity of Pinehurst for several years, was taken to Carthage last Wednesday and put in charge of the county authorities, having been adjudged insane. The case is a sad one, as the woman has a large family of small children, the youngest of which was taken with her. Kind neighbors have taken several of the younger children and it is hoped that homes will soon be found for the others.
