

Food for Thought.

My trip across the sea would bring,
Sweet thoughts that I might treasure,
Had it not been that many a thing
Came up to mar my pleasure.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A fine line of native wood souvenirs is on sale at the Department Store.

Our villagers are requested not to remove papers or magazines from the Casino reading room.

The guests at Holly Inn enjoyed a donkey party in the new music room yesterday afternoon.

Miss Julia Magruder, the writer of pleasant tales, says she considers the climate of Pinehurst ideal.

New goods are being received at the Department Store every day. The stock is first class and up-to-date.

The Casino reading room contains the leading papers and magazines for the free use of all in the village.

Mr. Pool of Deep Creek brought to town the skins of two mixed silver gray and brown foxes last Monday.

The "Berkshire" is rapidly filling up with guests and is proving one of the most popular hotels in the village.

Rev. Mr. Emery will preach at the Christian union services in the Village Hall next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

FOUND—A small gold ring. The owner can have the same by applying at the General Office and describing property.

Owing to the large increase in the business at the post office it has been necessary to employ another clerk and Miss Maud Clark has been secured for the position.

Choice cut flowers, roses and carnations at lowest prices supplied promptly through the Pinehurst Nurseries. See list of prices and leave orders at the Department Store.

North Carolina has three bishops of the Episcopal church: the Bishop of North Carolina, the Bishop of Wilmington, and the Bishop of Asheville. This latter bishopric was created at the recent convention in Washington.

The guests at Holly Inn are never at loss for amusement. Nearly every afternoon and evening a social gathering of some kind is arranged and the season is proving very pleasant for those who are stopping at Pinehurst's principal hostelry.

Last evening the Holly Inn had one hundred and six guests who are here for the season, more than double the number that were here last year at this time. From the number of rooms that are engaged ahead it is certain that the Inn will soon be filled.

Holy communion was celebrated at the Village Hall on Friday morning last (Epiphany) at 10 o'clock. A large number of communicants attended the service, which was made very impressive by the earnestness of the Rev. Henry T. Gregory, rector.

Rev. Mr. Ransom of Southern Pines, conducted the Christian union services last Sabbath morning in exchange with Rev. Mr. Emery. A large and interested audience listened to the sermon so well presented on the text Genesis 32:26—"I will not let thee go unless thou bless me."

All persons sending communications or contributions to the columns of THE OUTLOOK should sign their names to the letters, if they wish them to receive notice. The name is not necessarily for publication, but is required as a guarantee of good faith. Anonymous letters are consigned to the waste basket.

The wagonette party to Pinebluff last week had a very enjoyable time. The warm balmy weather reminded one of a fine northern day in September. The party was composed of Mrs. and Miss Warden, Mr. Squire and family, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Harrington, and Mrs. Burgets. Mr. F. T. Spinney acted as whip.

Great interest is being taken in bottle pool at Holly Inn. Nearly every afternoon and evening the pool room is thronged with players and the expression "five off" is often heard and keeps the spectators in good humor. There is some talk of a tournament being arranged in which the experts will be pitted against each other.

Arrangements are being made for a bowling tournament between Pinehurst and Southern Pines teams and games will probably be played at both Pinehurst and Southern Pines alleys. Our village has many good bowlers and our neighbor also boasts of many experts. A contest between the two teams would doubtless prove interesting.

Mrs. F. H. Wigfall, who spent a few days in our village last week, was compelled by failing health to hasten home to Baltimore where she could be placed in a sanitarium with constant attention from physicians and trained nurses. Mrs. Wigfall is a daughter of the late Prof. Welling who for many years was the distinguished president of Columbia University, Washington, D. C.

Sunday Evening Concert.

A large company assembled in the new music room at Holly Inn last Sunday evening to enjoy the regular concert by the orchestra. This was the first time the new music room was used for this purpose and the peculiar formation of the room tended to improve the volume of the music. The following program was very pleasing to those present:

Polonaise—"Triumphale," Tobani
Overture—"From Dawn Till Twilight," Bennet
Violin Solo—"Air in Olden Style,"
Mr. Ellis.

Grand Selection, including airs from "Prophet,"
"Aida," "Cavalleria Rusticana,"
"Boabdil," "Tannhauser," "Pagliacci," "William Tell."

Duo for Cornet and Saxophone, Mendelssohn
Messrs. Poole and Brooks.

Air—"La Cinquantain," Marie
Singing—"God Be With You till We Meet Again"
By the Audience.
