

FURNISHED HOUSES.

A few cottages in Pinehurst remain unrented. They are comfortably furnished throughout with everything necessary for housekeeping, except bed and table linen, which may also be obtained at a small extra charge. Desirable parties, giving satisfactory references, can secure these attractive winter homes at reasonable rental.

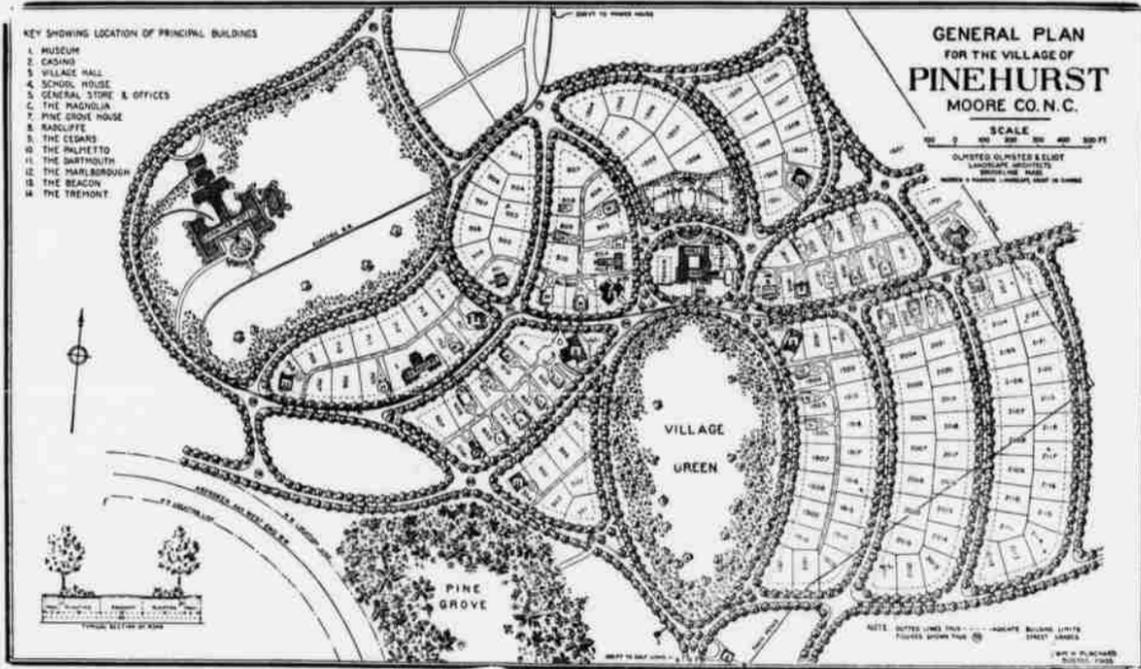

There are also SUITES FOR LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING and SINGLE ROOMS for those who obtain table board at the Pinehurst Casino.

For the security of both invalids and pleasure seekers, cases of pronounced consumption will under no circumstances be allowed admission. For information regarding rental of cottages or rooms, address

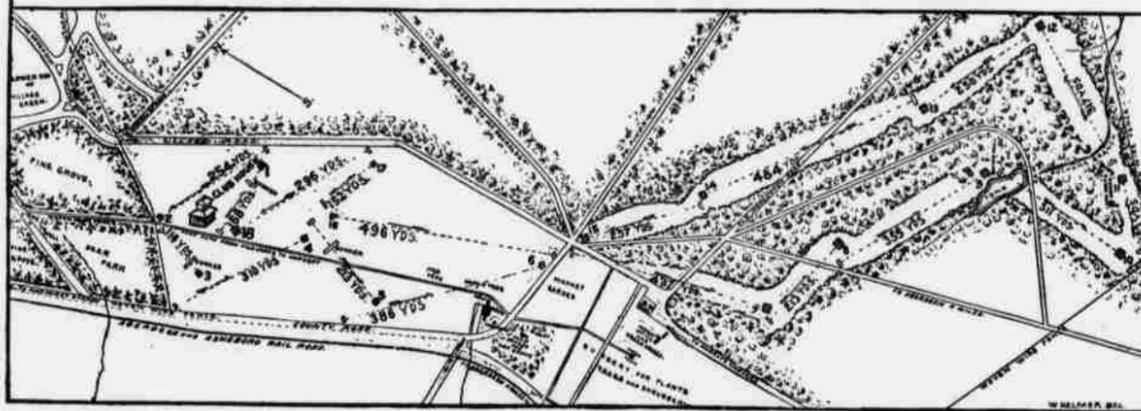

COTTAGE DEPARTMENT, Charles E. Kennedy, Agent, Pinehurst, N. C.

Write for Illustrated and Descriptive Circulars.

PINEHURST is a unique town in the Southland—apparently a Yankee village dropped down in the woods. It is located in highest and driest part of Moore County, North Carolina, in the well-known sand belt, and among the health-giving long-leaf pines. It is 70 miles southwest of Raleigh and 125 miles from the sea coast, at an altitude of 650 feet, and noted for its healthfulness. The village was founded by Mr. James W. Tufts, of Boston, in 1895, and consists of fifty cozy cottages, elegantly boarding and apart-casino, village hall, museum and other Carolina, the largest a magnificent four-this season, with ap-ed to gratify the most Holly Inn is quiet all modern comforts The Berkshire has more than double its up-to-date in every has a cafe where ex-may be obtained at building also con-game room, and a plied with the leading free use of the villag-also to be found here. substantially built, tered, well furnished, modern comforts and ing electric lights, water, and perfect Golf experts and all the hope of becom-excellent opportunity game. The Pinehurst been enlarged to fully laid out and and covers over 150 golfer is in charge a teacher are avail-days, even in the winter, when golf with comfort and There are also cro-courts, bowling alleys, liards, quoits and shuffleboard. The village offers unequalled attractions for refined people, at very moderate cost. Trolley cars connect with Southern Pines, a station on the Seaboard Air Line, eighteen hours from New York City.

PINEHURST GOLF LINKS
1. CLUB HOUSE, 168 YDS.	5. RIDGE, 213 YDS.	9. WIND MILL, 355 YDS.	13. WESTWARD HO, 285 YDS.
2. GROVE, 254 "	6. BARN, 386 "	10. DAM, 311 "	14. WILDERNESS, 484 "
3. SHORT ONE, 116 "	7. NURSERY, 437 "	11. GHOST WALK, 153 "	15. CROSS ROADS, 257 "
4. DEER PARK, 310 "	8. PUNCH BOWL, 213 "	12. BUCHANS BRANCH, 317 "	16. LONG ONE, 496 "
17. EASY ONE, 152 YARDS.		18. HOME, 296 YARDS.
TOTAL 5203 YARDS NEARLY 3 MILES.

It is located in highest and driest part of Moore County, North Carolina, in the well-known sand belt, and among the health-giving long-leaf pines. It is 70 miles southwest of Raleigh and 125 miles from the sea coast, at an altitude of 650 feet, and noted for its healthfulness. The village was founded by Mr. James W. Tufts, of Boston, in 1895, and consists of fifty cozy cottages, elegantly furnished, with everything necessary for housekeeping, except bed and table linen, which may also be obtained at a small extra charge. Desirable parties, giving satisfactory references, can secure these attractive winter homes at reasonable rental. There are also suites for light housekeeping and single rooms for those who obtain table board at the Pinehurst Casino. For the security of both invalids and pleasure seekers, cases of pronounced consumption will under no circumstances be allowed admission. For information regarding rental of cottages or rooms, address COTTAGE DEPARTMENT, Charles E. Kennedy, Agent, Pinehurst, N. C. Write for illustrated and descriptive circulars.

The village offers unequalled attractions for refined people, at very moderate cost. Trolley cars connect with Southern Pines, a station on the Seaboard Air Line, eighteen hours from New York City.

JAMES W. TUFTS, Owner,
BOSTON, MASS.

C. D. BENBOW, Res. Mgr.,
PINEHURST, N. C.