Mr. and Mrs. Horace Waters and son Merrill started Wednesday for the north. Mr. and Mrs. Waters have spent the season in Pinehurst for several years always pleasant and most agreeable. We regret their departure and long for their return. We understand that they expect to spend the summer with Manager Hyde at Sudbury, Vt.

The many friends of Commodore Smith of Andover, Mass., who was a guest at the Berkshire for about three months early in the season were pleased to greet him again this week. The Commodore is one of those gentlemen whom to meet is to love and respect. He says he likes Pinehurst and is glad to be with us again. We return the compliment and say we are glad to have him with us again.

Dr. Alex. Marcy and daughter, Mrs. Alex. Marcy Jr., who, with her children, have been at the Cedars for the past four months, returned to their home in Riverton, N. J., last week. Mrs. Marcy was induced to come to Pinehurst this season on account of the health of her son, which hope was fulfilled, as his health was better this winter than ever before. Mrs. Marcy, while at the Cedars, won the love and esteem of all as she was ever ready to participate in the social life and served on the committee at the hall being a great help to the management. It is probable that we shall see her again next season.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Miss Mabel Wood of Asheboro has been engaged as stenographer in the General office. Miss Wood is an expert in her line and is giving the best of satisfaction.

One of the features of the Employees ball last Wednesday evening was the cake walk by Mr. Harry Norse and Miss Lydia Graves, which was undoubtedly the best thing of its kind ever given in Pinehurst.

Miss Georgia C. Simpson, who has for the past year and a half filled the position of stenographer at the General Office, has accepted a similar position in the office of the New York Journal. Miss Simpson has always been most courteous, filling her position with credit to herself and the management, winning the respect of all with whom she was brought in contact. While we regret her departure we wish her all success in her new field of activity and bid her a hearty God speed.

General Carrington's Call.

General Henry B. Carrington of Hyde Park, Mass., soldier, historian and writer, was a caller at the White House to-day. With black hair, containing barely a trace of gray, General Carrington can convince few people that he is 78 years of age, and that his military record includes not only years of service in the civil war, but many hard campaigns against Indians after the civil war.

General Carrington retired from the regular army in the seventies because of severe wounds received in Indian campaigns. He was adjutant-general of Ohio from 1857 to 1861, and made out and signed the volunteer army commissions of Garfield and Hayes. He also assisted in organizing the regiment which former President Harrison commanded, and he mustered 127,000 men into the Union army. He was made a colonel on the same day as Sherman, Heintzelman, Canby, Andrew Porter, Franklin, Fitz John Porter and others. Of that number only Fitz John Porter is living.—Boston Herald, April 3d.

"Of course, I am master in my own house," said Mr. Meekton a little indignantly. "How do you manage it?" "I tell Henrietta to do just what she pleases. And she goes ahead and does it."—Washington Star.

Ethel—Mama told me I could stay in the parlor last night while Mr. Huggard was calling on sister Bess. Elsie—Did she? Ethel—Yes, and it was great fun. We played "blind man's buff," and they let me be the blind man nearly all the time.—Philadelphia Press.
