TRAP SHOOTING BEGUN.

Season Opened During the Week with Informal Shoot.

Through the interest of Mr. Arthur C. Ketcham of New York City, who is at The Berkshire for the season, with his family, trap shooting was given a good start during the week. Half a dozen sportsmen opened the season, trying at first, 25 single birds and following with several strings of ten each. Other events of an informal nature will precede the program of stated fixtures which begins in January.

The old blue-rock traps have been overhauled and put into excellent condition and the work of installing the Maugau-trap is being carried forward rapidly. Several important changes have been made at the grounds and others are contemplated, the most notable of which is the erection of a small club house or shelter.

The ladies manifest much interest in these events and a special effort is to be made to make the events attractive for them, and afternoon teas following events, are very possible and will add much to the social side of this splendid sport.

The Seaboard Air Line has just inaugurated on trains 27 and 66, additional Parlor car service between Southern Pines and Washington which will give Pinehurst exceptional day service over this line. Monday, Wednesday and Friday the train leaves Washington at 10.41 A. M., arriving at Southern Pines at 8.50 P. M., and Pinehurst, via the Pinehurst Electric Railroad, at 9.20. Returning, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, the train leaves Southern Pines at 9.36 A. M., arriving at Washington at 8.36 P. M. Direct connection with this train, at Southern Pines, will be made via the Pinehurst Electric Railroad, a car leaving Pinehurst at 9.06 A. M.

The buffet is to be made a feature of this service and excellent meals will be served at moderate cost. These parlor cars are equipped with six movable chairs at each end, four sections and a buffet compartment with six tables.

"The Seaboard Air Line," writes Travelling Agent, H. S. Leard of Raleigh, "has been put on this service for Pinehurst business; the car is run to Hamlet only that it may be cleaned. This with our other trains, gives us a splendid service, through sleeper one day and through parlor car the next, both ways."

A Republic of 6000 Monks.

An the east point of the sacred Mount Athos, on the Turkish peninsula Chalkidike, is a settlement of 6000 monks, scattered among twenty monasteries, the whole forming a monastic republic in the dominions of the sultan, to whom they are tributary. The yearly tribute they pay to Abdul Hamid is by no means a small one, but the sum is easily met by the republic, millionaires being among its members.

As an independent commonwealth the republic maintains its own ships, a sailing vessel, called Pokrov Presswjatyja Boflorotizy. A short time since this vessel lay in the harbor of the South Russian town of Taganrog. She is in reality a floating monastery. Painted black, she carries at her bow the large cross of the Panteleimon monastery of Mount Athos.

The captain, Fr. Gerassim, and the whole crew are monks from Mount Athos and wear the monastic dress. The ship's cargo consists of holy oil from Mount Athos for the Panteleimon monastery in Moscow. There is a church on board, and all of the crew live under the rules of their order—Boston Transcript.
