PINEHURST IS "IT!"

Mr. Freeman's Party So Decides After Delightful Outing Here.

Visit is Brought to a Fitting Close
With Banquet at Which Good
Fellowship Reigns Supreme.

The outing of the party of prominent golfers headed by Mr. Wm. E. Freeman of New York City, was brought to a formal close with a banquet, tendered by Mr. Freeman, as a fitting close to a delightful trip. The event took place in the dining room of The Holly Inn Thursday evening and good fellowship reigned supreme until long after midnight.

The Party.

Covers were laid at the daintily decorated table for eleven, and there were present: Manager A. I. Creamer of The Holly Inn, the guest of the evening; Mr. William C. Freeman, the leader of the party, and a prominent New York advertising man, at the head of the advertising department of The New York American; Mr. B. F. Dutton, of Houghton & Dutton, Boston, Mass.; Mr. Percy R. Oliver, of Oliver & Jones, the Maiden Lane jewelers, New York City; Mr. P. F. Murphy, owner of the Mark Cross Company's stores, in Boston and New York; Mr. F. W. Larom, one of the managers of Mills & Gibbs, the wholesale dry goods merchants of New York; Mr. Charles H. Lester, general manager of Whitall Tatune Company, the Barclay street glass manufacturers, New York; Mr. George S. Brown, general manager of Pierce, Hutchinson & Company, manufacturers of the Star Shirts; Mr. I. C. Bates Dana, a retired lawyer of Worcester, Mass., now residing in New York City; Mr. Charles Dayton of the advertising department of The New York American; Mr. H. O. C. Davis of New York city and Mr. E. A. Freeman of Montclair, N. J., and Golf champion of the State.

At each plate rested a dainty souvenir menu, very attractive without; but more so within, with this tempting array of viands:

The Menu.

After the Dinner.

Following the dinner Mr. Freeman acted as toastmaster and there were remarks from all present; warm words of praise for Manager Creamer, "whose courteous attention has added so much to the pleasure of this outing;" enthusiastic words of praise concerning Pinehurst, "the garden spot of the Southland"; the heartiest kind of endorsement for the Pinehurst Golf Links, "not only unquestionably the finest in the South; but one of the finest in the country as well."

Mr. Murphy's remarks were in a particularly happy vein. At the conclusion of the banquet, toasts were drunk to Manager Creamer and Pinehurst, and the members pledged themselves to spread abroad that Pinehurst, as a resort for those who seek comfort, rest, recreation, golf and sport, is unquestionably "IT!"

At The Cedars.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitcomb, Philadelphia; Mrs. Robert B. Dashiell, Miss Eleanor Dashiell, Miss Nancy Dashiell and Master Robert B. Dashiell, and maid of Washington, D. C., are recent arrivals at The Cedars.

At The Lenox and Concord.

There were several pleasant social features at the Lenox and Concord during the week. Mr. H. H. Weeks of Belmont, Mass., gave a Welsh rare-bit party for Mrs. T. Noonan of Boston, on the eve of her departure after an enjoyable stay here, and Miss Gertrude Bates of South Weymouth Mass., entertained the guests at afternoon tea.

Recent arrivals who come for the season are: Miss Lida J. Hill, Chicago; Mr. A. A. Wescott, Miss Wescott, Hopedale, Mass.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters remained uncalled for at the Pinehurst Post-office December 31:

Son Born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts.

A telegram received in Pinehurst yesterday by Mrs. James W. Tufts, announces the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts, at Medford, Mass.

Special Sunday Music.

At the Union service Sunday morning at eleven in the Village hall, Mr. Fred H. Beyer of New York City, will play a cornet solo.

A Constant Reminder.

THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK has just issued a blotter with which it is well pleased, because it feels "that it is good." It is printed in two colors, red and green, and in addition to a concise and plain statement of facts about the paper, it contains a Calendar for the months of January, February, March and April, 1903.

The editor will be glad to mail these blotters free, upon request, to Pinehurst Lovers who desire to have a constant reminder of this Garden Spot of the Southland before them.
