

The Pinehurst Outlook

Published Friday, Twenty-five Weeks in the year, at

Pinehurst, Moore County, North Carolina,
(Founded by JAMES W. TUFTS.)

Leonard Tufts, Publisher.
Herbert L. Jillson, Editor.

Fifty Cents Annually, Payable in Advance;
Three Cents a Copy.

Address all Business and Editorial Communications to THE EDITOR.

Make all Remittances Payable to the Order of LEONARD TUFTS, Publisher.

Entered in the Post Office at Pinehurst, N. C., as Second Class Mail Matter.
(Copyright 1902.)

FRIDAY, FEB. 13, 1903.

THE RECOGNITION of the right to withhold from the negro his just and needed part of the public school fund because he fails to pay his part of the public school tax, would strike at the very foundation of the public school system. By the same reasoning, why should not the taxes of the rich, because they pay more taxes, be used for the education of the rich only, and the taxes of the poor used for the education of the children of the poor only? The weaker and more helpless the race, the louder the call to the strong to help.

We can correct our mistakes in the education of the negro, not by decreasing the quantity of his education, but rather by improving the quality of it—not by destroying the means of his education, but rather by directing it in proper channels.

All over the face of nature and of the universe it has been written in no unmistakable language that education of the right sort is a good thing for the plants of the field, for the beasts of the forest, for all created things. It needs must be a good thing then for man, God's highest creation, fashioned in His own image, endowed with His own faculties, with infinite capacity for good or evil. This unalterable law of God can not be changed by the color of a man's skin or by racial differences or differences of natural endowments—Hon. J. Y. Joyner.

PRETTIEST OF THE SEASON.

Afternoon Putting Contest at The Carolina Establishes Precedent.

The prettiest indoor entertainment of the season, thus far, was the putting contest at The Carolina Saturday afternoon, for dainty sterling cups given by Mr. E. A. Freeman of Montclair, N. J., and Mr. H. O. Curtis Davis of New York City.

Over sixty participated representing guests from the various hotels and cottages, and the trophies were won only by very close and skillful work.

Mrs. St. John Smith of Portland, Me., secured the womens cup with eighteen out of a possible eighteen, her nearest competitor being Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett of Buffalo, N. Y., who missed but a single putt.

The battle for mens trophy was well worth witnessing, Mr. F. J. Bailey of Chicago, Mr. Walter A. Berg of Boston, Mr. M. H. Wilson of Cleveland, O., Mr.

J. C. Powers of New York city, and Dr. F. Skaife of San Francisco, Cal., tying for first with eighteen each.

In the play-off, three putts each from the extreme mark, Mr. Bailey, Mr. Berg and Dr. Skaife dropped out and Mr. Wilson and Mr. Powers tied on nine each. In a second play-off, four putts each, Mr. Wilson scored twelve out of a possible twelve and Mr. Powers nine, his ball missing the hole by a hairs breadth on the last putt.

The contest took place in the small music room of The Carolina and was from three distances, which scores of one, two and three, respectively. Three balls with a single putt to hole, were allowed from each line. Several hundred interested people witnessed the contest, frequently bestowing applause.

The affair was in charge of Mr. Freeman and Mr. Davis, assisted by Mr. Arthur C. Ketcham of New York City. Following it the regular Saturday afternoon Golf Club House tea was served in the lobby, by the matrons of the week: Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett, Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. J. K. P. Hall, Ridgeway, Penn., from The Carolina; Mrs. W. H. Keith, of Watertown, Mass., Mrs. Geo. Burt, of Hartford, Ct., from The Holly Inn; Mrs. Mabel R. Eaton, Boston, Mrs. Arthur C. Ketcham, New York City, from The Berkshire; Mrs. W. R. Sanborn, Strafford, Vt., Mrs. Ida B. Moore, Union City, Pa., from The Harvard; Mrs. E. G. Hayes, Canandaigua, N. Y., Mrs. A. M. Kimber of Philadelphia, from the cottages.

POPULARITY CONTINUES.

Game of Hearts Has Many Devotees.

Forty-four participated in the weekly hearts party at The Holly Inn, Monday evening, demonstrating that this game is suffering no decrease in popularity. Miss Blanche Van Vooris, of Syracuse, N. Y., and Mrs. F. O. Skaife, of San Francisco, Cal., Mr. J. M. Briggs of Passaic, N. J., and Mr. Walter A. Berg, of Boston, secured the first and second prizes, and Mrs. F. W. Bradbury, of Providence, R. I., and Mr. H. L. Caswell of Parkersburg, W. Va., the consolations.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. A. I. Creamer, assisted by Mrs. William H. Barnett of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. S. S. Tribou of Baltimore, Md.

The weekly hearts party at The Carolina, Wednesday evening, proved most enjoyable. Mr. Walter Coulson, of Lawrence, Mass., and Mr. A. E. Lard, of St. Joseph, Mo., and Mrs. Lee B. Durstine, of New York City, and Miss Curtis of New Haven, Ct., won the prizes. The affair was in charge of Mrs. A. E. Lard and Mrs. C. S. Horton, assisted by Mrs. H. W. Priest.

The weekly hearts party at The Berkshire was well attended. The prizes were won by Dr. Mardock, Mr. Boardman, Miss Coy and Mrs. Davis.

EVENING OF TABLEAUX.

An Exceptional Unique and Interesting Program Assured.

Arrangements for the evening of tableaux, at the Village Hall, next Wednesday, have progressed rapidly. An exceptionally unique and interesting program is assured. Each member of the committee of women who have the affair in charge is responsible for a tableau. These will be somewhat after the character of living pictures. As far as arranged the program is as follows: Exhibit of the "Pinehurst Nurseries"

"The Three Fates" Miss Reynolds
"Is a Caddy Always Necessary?" Miss Stackpole

"A Story without Words" Mrs. E. G. Hayes
"Keep your Eye on the Ball" Miss Stone
"Types" Mrs. A. C. Ketcham
"Lover's Lane" Miss Tewksbury

"Babes in the Woods" Miss Bradbury
"Pinehurst" (C) Ones Miss Newell
Mrs. C. S. Horton

The entertainment will begin at 8:30. The admission will be 50c, the proceeds being devoted to the public school fund of this township.

PROGRESSIVE GERMAN

Events Arranged for To-morrow Evening at The Carolina.

The progressive Valentine German, arranged for to-morrow (Saturday) evening at The Carolina, will without question, be the most delightful feature of the social season thus far. A general invitation is extended.

The gentlemen will draw partners and all ladies will progress. Dainty favors are being prepared.

Sunday Evening Music.

The following is the program for the Sunday evening concert by The Carolina Orchestra, Trev. Sharp, Director:

Gounod	Marche et Cortège	"La Reine de Saba"
Bendix	Fantaisie	"Tone Pictures of the North and South"
Adam	Vocal Solo	"Cantique de Noel"
Briccialdi	Grand Fantaisie	"Il Vento" (The Wind)
Verdi	Selection	"Il Trovatore"
Bartlet	Vocal Solo	"A Dream"
Klughardt	'Cello Solo	Concerto
Tomer	"God Be With You"	Hymn
	(Guests Please Join in Singing)

Drag Fox Hunt.

Something "excitin" was provided Wednesday in the way of a drag fox hunt. A dead fox was drawn through the Village and a pack of a dozen hounds let loose at a stated time. Quite a number followed on horseback and hundreds looked on and listened to the music.

Weekly Social Events.

Guests of the Village are invited to participate in the following informal weekly social events:

TUESDAY EVENING—Card party at The Berkshire.

THURSDAY EVENING—Dance at The Holly Inn.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON—From four until five, tea at the Golf Club House.

SATURDAY EVENING—Dance at The Carolina.

These affairs will be in charge of matrons selected from the various hotels.

A general invitation is also extended for the Sabbath evening concerts at The Carolina.

Can You Guess It?

My first is what a young woman does when her sweetheart is absent—Pine.

My second is a modern journalist who is known throughout the land—Hurst.

My whole is the name of one of the most famous of winter resorts—Pinehurst.

OUTING TROPHY SHOOT!

Scores Indifferent but Match Close and Interesting.

H. Nelson Burroughs Wins with Twenty—M. H. Wilson and A. E. Lard Close Upon his Heels.

The second shoot in the winter's set program of handicap events, twenty-five single birds for the magnificent "Outing" trophy, was won by H. Nelson Burroughs, of Philadelphia, Pa., (3) with a score of 20, with M. H. Wilson, of Cleveland, Ohio, (5) a close second in 19, and A. E. Lard, of St. Joseph, Mo.; (scratch,) third with eighteen.

The day was ideal and in the large gallery present ladies were conspicuous. The scores however, were hardly what would be expected under such favorable conditions, and it is rare indeed when as handsome a trophy is won with as low a score; but in spite of this the contest was a close and interesting one, uncertain in its results until the finish.

The participants were: H. Nelson Burroughs, Philadelphia, (3); A. E. Lard, St. Joseph, Mo., (scratch); M. H. Wilson, Cleveland, Ohio (5); Philip Randolph, (scratch) Philip Randolph, Jr., (5), Edward Connor (3), Philadelphia; M. C. Parshall, Carl Gildersleeve, Warren, Penn., (5) each; F. A. Potts, (scratch); Chas. W. Baker (5), Arthur C. Ketcham (5), C. A. Lockwood (scratch), New York city; John E. Newell, Cleveland, O., (scratch); Herbert L. Jillson, Worcester, Mass., (3).

The full scores were as follows:

Burroughs	100101011101111011111111—20
Wilson	10110111000111000111110011101—19
Lard	1111110101000011110111111—18
Parshall	01110000011100110111010110001—15
Gildersleeve	10100111001111010010011010101—15
Newell	100011010000111010011111110—14
Jillson	11011000011101001100111010000—14
Lockwood	1000001111101110011000010—12
Randolph	0101001001001000100100110101—10
Baker	0000100010110111011000000—9
Ketcham	1000011000100010010011000000—9
Potts	0001000001001110001001000—7
Randolph	0000001110100010000100000—6

The shoots will be held Wednesday morning during the balance of the season. The hour for starting has been fixed at eleven o'clock for the convenience of those who may wish to witness the sport, and a special invitation is extended to the ladies.

Next week's shoot, fifteen singles and twenty doubles, will be for the Priest trophy.

Carolina vs Holly Inn.

A mixed foursome team match between guests from The Carolina and The Holly Inn was a feature Thursday, of which mention will be made next week. The Holly Inn team won.