

The Pinehurst Outlook

VOL. VI., NO. 14.

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, FEB. 27, 1903.

PRICE THREE CENTS

SEVENTY-EIGHT ENTRIES!

Saturday's Golf Tournaments Bring Out an Immense Field.

Mrs. Arthur C. Ketcham, G. F. Parrish, W. M. Oler and J. G. Thorpe Cup Winners.

The golf tournaments of Saturday were conclusive proof that Pinehurst's season is well along. In the two events were seventy-eight entries. The stated fixture was an eighteen-hole handicap match play event for men and women, who have never made eighteen consecutive holes in less than one hundred, and the handsome trophy was given by Mr. Frank Presbrey, of New York City. As a special feature an open match play handicap event was also played with cups for the best net and best gross scores.

Mrs. Arthur C. Ketcham, of New York City, (17) won the Presbrey cup, with a net score of ninety-five, with J. W. Wilcox, of Boston (scratch) a close second in ninety-six, and Miss Helen Barnett, of New Haven, Ct., (17), third in ninety-seven. The next fourteen players finished under a hundred and eleven. There were many ties in the long list.

G. F. Parrish, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., (20) and W. M. Oler, of Baltimore, (27) were tied for the net score cup in the open handicap, with seventy-six each, four strokes better than their nearest opponents, C. R. Corwin, (22) and W. M. Whiting, both of Boston, (10) who finished in eighty net. J. G. Thorpe, of Boston, (scratch) won the gross score cup easily in eighty-eight. E. A. Freeman, of Montclair, N. J., who was generally regarded as the winner, was prevented from playing by a sprained wrist.

The day was a perfect one and many onlookers were on the course.

Presbrey Cup.

The players were as follows:

Miss E. B. Post, New York City; Mrs. St. John Smith, Portland, Me.; Miss Barnett, New Haven, Ct.; Mrs. Arthur C. Ketcham, New York City; Mrs. Chas. Fay, New York City; Mrs. J. B. Miles, New York City; Miss M. A. Cray, Warren, Pa.; Miss Carrie Check, East Orange, N. J.; Miss Helen Barnett, New Haven, Ct.; Miss Ethel Check, East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. M. A. Crockett, Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Davis, Tenafly, N. J.; Miss Priest, Boston; Miss Stackpole, Ridgeway, Pa.; Miss Bradbury, Providence, R. I.; Roy H. Keith, Watertown, Mass.; Dr. T. J. King, Boston; F. J. Bailey, Chicago; F. H. Brown, New Haven, Ct.; Dr. F. W. Skaffe, Toronto, Can.; Walter A. Berg, Boston; E. B. Lockwood, Jamaica, L. I.; George C. McNeir, New York City; J. M. Merrill, New York City; H. N. Burroughs, Philadelphia; J. McCutcheon, New York City; H. Eldridge, New York City; C. F. Wills, New York City; W. J. Noonan, Boston; George Baird, Washington, D.

Ketcham, New York City; Sydney L. Smith, New York City; W. J. Fleming, Cleveland, O.

Open Handicap.

The participants were as follows: R. D. Reynolds, New York City; W. C. Cady, Brookline, Mass.; A. T. Leavitt, Wollaston, Mass.; W. T. Morton, Al-

PROMINENT GOLFERS AT PINEHURST, No. 3.

George C. Dutton of the Oakley Club, Boston, and Winner of the Pinehurst (1901) Championship.

Photo for the Pinehurst Outlook by Merrow.

C.; J. B. Miles, New York City; George W. Brown, Boston; J. W. Wilcox, Boston; J. S. Seabury, Boston; S. L. Mather, Cleveland, O.; George H. White, Boston; C. S. Caldwell, Washington, Pa.; A. S. Malcolm, New Haven, Ct.; Geo. C. Clausen, New York City; H. W. Mason, Boston; Dr. G. W. Murdock, Cold Spring, N. Y.; W. F. Merrill, New Haven, Ct.; John Pierce, New York City; Willie bany, N. Y.; W. M. Oler, Baltimore; M. D. Cray, Warren, Penn.; M. D. Mason, Boston; H. O. Curtis Davis, New York City; D. W. Cooke, New York City; A. Shiland, New York City; W. M. Whiting, Boston; J. F. McLain, New York City; Capt. J. P. Crane, Woburn, Mass.; A. L. Hill, Weymouth, England; W. S. North, Chicago; J. R. Whittemore,

(Continued to second page)

THE FROLIC SOME SHOOTERS!

In Pajamas and Impossible Attitudes They Shoot Clay Birds.

C. A. Lockwood of New York City, Takes Silver Cup—Last Friday's Shoot.

The "Novelty Shoot" for a silver cup by the "Frolicsome Shooters," which took place at the Trap Shooting grounds, Saturday afternoon, was mainly to furnish amusement, and in this particular it was eminently successful, but some excellent scores were also made. A feature of the program was the ludicrous rigs worn by the participants, pajamas, summer suits and the like being conspicuous. C. A. Lockwood, of New York City, won with ten kills.

There were seven events in all as follows:

Five birds, gun below the elbow.

Five birds, any old way.

One bird, "blind shooting," each shooter to shoot sitting in a chair.

One bird "flushing shot," shooter to advance toward trap, trap sprung without call.

One bird, shooter to stand on top of trap house and call for bird.

One bird, "mysterious," gun to be loaded by outside party, and shooter not to know which barrel was loaded, one trigger only to be pulled, gun to be examined after each shot.

One bird, "battery," shooter to lie on back, feet toward the trap, gun pointed toward the feet, to call for bird and rise to a sitting posture before shooting—three birds pulled.

The participants were: C. A. Lockwood, Arthur C. Ketcham, Dr. L. J. Davis, New York City; H. Nelson Burroughs, F. A. Potts, Philadelphia; Carl Gildersleeve, M. C. Parshall, Warren, Pa.; M. H. Wilson, Cleveland, O.

These were the scores:

| 1st Event | Lockwood     | 2nd Event | Other Events |
|-----------|--------------|-----------|--------------|
| 10110     | 11111        | 10010-10  |              |
|           | Burroughs    |           |              |
| 10001     | 10111        | 01000-7   |              |
|           | Potts        |           |              |
| 00110     | 11110        | 00010-7   |              |
|           | Gildersleeve |           |              |
| 00111     | 10010        | 01000-6   |              |
|           | Parshall     |           |              |
| 01000     | 11101        | 10000-6   |              |
|           | Davis        |           |              |
| 00000     | 10111        | 01000-5   |              |
|           | Wilson       |           |              |
| 00110     | 11101        | 00000-5   |              |
|           | Ketcham      |           |              |
| 00000     | 11100        | 10000-4   |              |

The afternoon closed with a sweepstake shoot which Lockwood won. Other events of a similar nature are already planned which promise to furnish plenty of amusement for participants and onlookers.