THE CAROLINA CUP!

A. E. Lard Wins it with Score of Forty-Four out of Fifty.

Fourth Shoot in the Winters Program is by far the Most Interesting of Series.

Thursday's shoot for The Carolina cup, the fourth event in the winter's stated program, fifty single birds, was by far the most hotly contested and interesting of the series, and not until the match was nearly over was it possible to pick the winner with any degree of certainty. A. E. Lard, of St. Joseph, Mo., won with forty-four, from W. C. Cady, of Brookline, Mass., who scored forty-one, both shooting from scratch.

The participants were A. E. Lard, W. C. Cady, M. H. Wilson, Cleveland, O.; H. Nelson Burroughs, Philadelphia; C. A. Lockwood, Brooklyn; I. C. B. Dana, New York City, (scratch); Frank Presbrey, New York City; Carl Gildersleeve, Warren, Pa.; Arthur C. Ketcham, New York City; C. W. Baker, New York city, (6); Philip Randolph, Philadelphia, (8); M. C. Parshall, Warren, Pa., (9); Philip Randolph, Jr., Philadelphia (10).

The detailed scores of the four leaders were as follows:

Player	Score
Lard	44
Cady	41
Ketcham	34
Presbrey	32

Other scores were: Lockwood, 30; Wilson, 29; Burroughs, 27; Gildersleeve, 24; Randolph, 23; Baker, 20; Dana, 19; Randolph, Jr., 18; Parshall, 16.

The shooting of the handicap allowance birds was unnecessary, as a glance at the scores will show.

GOLF TOMORROW.

Handicap Medal Play Event for the Priest Trophies.

Tomorrows' golf tournament is an eighteen hole handicap medal play event for the magnificent H. W. Priest trophies, now on exhibition at The Carolina, and offered for the best net and best gross scores.

A special feature which is arousing much interest among the "frolicsome golfers," is the "unique tournament" for The Harvard cup. Competitors are privileged to use but two clubs, the driver and the putter. The putter must be used for all strokes except putting and the driver for putting only. The event is open to men and women and the field promises to be a large one.

Two events are booked for the following Saturday. The first is a men's tournament for The Berkshire cup, open to all who have never played golf prior to Jan. 1, 1902. There is also a womens tournament for the Tufts cups, offered for the best net and best gross scores.

Entries for these stated tournaments should be made at the Golf Club House as far in advance as possible.
