

THE CAROLINA

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Carolina is a magnificent four-story building completed in 1900. The interior is a model of elegance, with appointments calculated to suit the most luxurious tastes. The hotel accommodates four hundred guests and is provided with fifty-four suites with bath. The cuisine and table service are unsurpassed.

The house contains every modern comfort and convenience, including elevator, telephone in every room, sun rooms, steam heat night and day, electric lights, and water from the celebrated Pinehurst Springs, and a perfect sanitary system of sewage and plumbing.

RATES: $4.00 Per Day, $21.00 Per Week and Upwards.

H. W. PRIEST, Manager.

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.

Rates: $3 per Day and Upwards; $18 per Week and Upwards.

A. I. CREAMER, Manager.

AT THE HOTELS!

Many Guests Will Remain Until Well Along Into May.

The Berkshire, Harvard, Magnolia, Lenox and Concord Still Well Filled.

Visitors are lingering here, reluctant to depart. The Holly Inn closed Thursday after the most successful season in its history, but The Berkshire, The Harvard, The Magnolia and The Lenox and Concord still have many guests.

The Berkshire will remain open as long as the number of guests warrants it and as is announced on the first page, The Westinghouse and Miss Marjorie Westinghouse of New York city, have gone after their second and extended visit here this season.

James C. Stewart of Worcester, Mass., made a flying trip during the week to take home Master Howard who has spent the winter here.

Mr. Van Tassel Sutphen, editor of Golf, was a visitor during the week, coming to secure material for a descriptive article on the Pinehurst golf links. He was accompanied by Mr. Livingstone Rutherford, of New York city.

Mr. H. P. Burchell, sporting editor of The New York Times, was a visitor during the week, making a visit for the purpose of familiarizing himself with the place.

Mrs. A. C. Northrop and Miss Walton

Unduly Cautious.

Wife—"Aren't you afraid this deal may land you in jail?"

Husband—"Nonsense. You seem to forget that millions are involved."

Harvard will be kept open during the entire summer. Card parties, riding, driving, golf, croquet and shooting are occupying the attention of guests.

THE HOLLY INN.

List of Arrivals for the Closing Week was Large.

The list of arrivals for the closing week at The Holly Inn was large and many of the guests moved to The Berkshire with the closing of the hotel.

Mrs. Louis H. Torrey, son and daughter, of Worcester, Mass., go to The Berkshire to remain for an indefinite period.

Mr. Ferd W. Conkling and Mr. Robert P. Conkling of New York city, go to The Berkshire to remain until well along in May. They are delighted with Pinehurst and its climate and are already planning to come again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Westinghouse, Miss of Waterbury, Ct., have gone after several days stay here.

Mr. F. N. Benham of Derby, Ct., and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Benham of Caldwell, N. J., were visitors during the week.

Mr. Julius S. Weil and Mr. J. Rosenwald, of Chicago, enjoyed several days golf during the week, and were delighted with the course.

Mrs. G. H. Curtiss and Miss Curtiss of Chicago, are late arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Olmstead, Miss Olmstead of Hobart, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cross, Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. C. M. Pettis, New Haven, Ct.; Miss Hangham, Lancaster, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Ross, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bower, W. J. Cummings, Boston; Mr. G. Estabrook, Saginaw, Mich.; Mr. Charles Johnson, Morristown, Pa.; Mr. Edson G. Davidge, Miss Davidge, Middletown, N. Y., were recent visitors.