

THE CAROLINA OPENING.

Hotel Will Open Its Doors Thursday
With Large Number of Early Guests.

House Starts With Complete Equipment—Many Old Guests Will Register Early.

The magnificent Carolina opens its doors next Thursday, and the largest number of first day guests in the history of this hotel is assured. Manager H. W. Priest has been busy at the house for several weeks past, and under his skillful management, order has rapidly shaped itself out of chaos.

The house has already established an enviable reputation for starting as fully equipped as at the height of the season, and this year will be no exception to the general rule. There certainly is no finer hotel in the South than The Carolina, or a manager who looks after the luxurious comfort of his guests with more painstaking care and intelligence than Mr. Priest, and no one has a more helpful assistant in the person of a wife. Mr. Priest wins friends because of the service he provides, and Mrs. Priest is loved by all who know her because of her charming personality.

THE EARLY GUESTS.

Among the first guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freeman, E. A. Freeman and the Misses Freeman of Montclair, N. J. The Freemans have been visitors here for several years and have many warm friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Hentz, F. Walter Hentz and J. Henry Hentz, 3d., of Philadelphia, Pa., will be located here for the winter and their third season. Mr. and Mrs. Hentz are charming people who are general favorites.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Barnett and the Misses Barnett of New Haven, Ct., whose visit at The Holly Inn last winter, is pleasantly remembered, will be among the first comers. Mr. Barnett is the third vice-president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad.

Mrs. J. A. Ballantyne and children of Wilkinsburg, Pa., will spend the winter here, renewing pleasant associations made on a previous visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Steele of Brooklyn, will come early for a return visit and an extended stay.

Mr. E. W. McMillan and family of New Haven, Ct., are expected very shortly for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wetheimer of Pittsburg, who are now located at The Holly Inn, will be located here for the season.

Judge C. D. Gregory of Albany, Mr. W. P. Shaw, Dr. E. G. Cox and Mr. F. M. Hamill, of Albany, will be among the early guests comers, who will come for a few weeks' golf and social pleasure.

Mrs. Ellen M. Thompson of Minneapolis, Minn., returns for the winter. Mrs. Thompson is a charming woman, who is extremely popular.

Other early guests will include Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Austin, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Parsons Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Childs, New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wyatt, West Chester, Pa.

THE HOTEL STAFF.

Manager Priest's staff includes: E. R. Wingate, Jr., who comes for his second year as chief clerk. W. N. Hobbs, of the Poland Springs House, will be cashier and W. E. McMann, front clerk. Frank Hunt returns as night clerk.

Harry Bennett at the Empire Hotel, Boston, for many years and during the past season at the Mt. Kineo House, Moosehead Lake, will be head waiter.

Charles W. Colby for many years with Mr. Priest, both at The Carolina and Hotel Preston, returns as steward, and Antony Danzi is here for his second season as chef. Mr. Danzi has had a wide experience at various hotels including The Maplewood, The Frontenac, The Chamberlin, and was for four years at the Manhattan Club, New York.

Joseph Cambetti during the past season with Mr. Priest at Hotel Preston, will be the pastry chef.

Mrs. E. R. Wingate, Jr., assumes charge of the housekeeping department for the third season, and Fred Knight, the porter, who carried the first trunk into The Carolina on its opening, returns as head porter.

John Mulcahy will be the head bellman, and William Carpenter the engineer and electrician.

Catholic Mass Each Sunday.

Mass will be said regularly at the Village Hall for the present each Sunday at six A. M., by Reverend Father Harrington of Washington, D. C.

Guests at The Magnolia.

Mr. H. C. Long and Miss Alice Long of Indianapolis, Ind., are at The Magnolia, for the winter.

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.
