PISTOL CLUB'S FIRST SHOOT.

Attractive Posters by John P. Benson Announce the Event.

The Pinehurst Target-Pistol Club is holding its first shoot, a handicap event with cups for the best gross and best net scores, as the paper goes to press, and considerable interest centres about the event.

Very attractive posters announcing the event are posted at various points about the Village. They are the work of Mr. John P. Benson, a well-known New York architect, and a brother of Frank W. Benson, the Boston painter. Mr. Benson and his wife are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Benson at The Carolina.

No. 11—A special fee of fifty cents, to be used in the purchase of suitable prizes, shall be required from each participant in stated fixtures.

No. 12—All disputes shall be referred to the Executive Committee and its decision shall be final.

SOCIAL PLEASURES MANY.

Guests of The Berkshire Enjoy Package Party and Cards.

A Package Party in which a company of forty people, including many of the Villagers, participated, furnished a pleasant evening at The Berkshire last week.

The Friday evening euchre party was well attended. Mrs. A. V. Secor of Brooklyn, won the first "mens" prize, and Mr. Robert Russell of Brooklyn, the second. Mrs. M. J. Matson of Boston, and Mrs. F. W. Carlin of Brooklyn, were the winners of the womens prizes.

The weekly card parties will be held Tuesday evening in future. The change was inaugurated this week with a hearts party. Mrs. C. P. Welles of Towanda, Pa., and Miss McClellan of East Orange, N. J., were the winners of the "mens" prizes, and Mrs. E. G. Hutchinson of Lancaster, Pa., and Miss Alice Taggart of New York, the womens.

AMONG THE GUESTS.

Mr. R. C. Lincoln of Hartford, Conn., is here for an indefinite sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Church and Miss Anna Church of Boston, have gone after a week's visit.
