JACKSON SPRINGS WATER

Cures indigestion, relieves rheumatism and the milder forms of kidney diseases. The spring is a freak of nature bubbling forth at the rate of a gallon a minute from the only large solid stone in the sand hill section. It should be seen. There is a first class hotel immediately at the spring kept by Mrs. Baxter, formerly of Pinehurst. For the bottled water and train schedules (ten miles from Pinehurst) see Mr. Berry at the depot.

VILLAGE DEFEATS CAROLINA

Second Base Ball Game of Series is a Rattling Contest.

Corking Drive to Left Ties Score, but Wild Throw Loses Game by Single Run.

THE Village and Carolina nines crossed bats on the Village Green for the second game of the season, Tuesday afternoon, and the victory of the Village team, three to two, was uncertain until the last man of the opposing team was out.

Of brilliant plays there were many, conspicuous among which was a triple by Finnegan, Frawley, Trafton and Hannan of The Carolinas, and a double by Diffin and Page of the Village. And when Mulcahey sent a corking drive to left, in the first half of the eighth, letting in two of The Carolina men who filled the bases, and tying the score, the rooters went wild. A wild throw, however, in the last half of the eighth gave the Village team the extra and winning run.

Both pitchers were in excellent form and their work was one of the features of the afternoon, but the players found the ball occasionally, giving an interest to the game which the first contest did not contain. Finnegan of The Carolinas struck out thirteen and Eastman of The Village twelve men.

The company of onlookers was large and included many guests of the Village who are showing a lively interest in the battles which are to follow.

P. J. Ward of Boston, umpired with a skill born of long experience giving general satisfaction to all concerned.

The Village nine has adopted the name of The Holly Inn team owing to the fact that many of the members are from this hotel, and in future will play under this name.

A challenge from the Southern Pines nine was accepted and the game will be played Thursday at Southern Pines. A return game will be played here shortly.

The make up of the teams was as follows:

VILLAGE.	CAROLINA.
Eastman, p.	Frawley, 2b.
Page, c. (Capt.)	Pollett, s. s.
Diffin, 1b.	Edson, 3b.
Mulcahey, 2b.	Hannan, 1b.
Thomas, s. s.	Keyes, r. f.
Ruggles, 3b.	Mulcahey, c. f.
Wills, l. f.	Finnegan, p. (Capt.)
Nute, r. f.	Baxter, l. f.
McGovern, c. f.	Trafton, c.

The score by innings:

VILLAGE, 0 1 0 0 1 0 1 0—3
CAROLINA, 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—2

Target Pistol Tournament Shows Result of Excellent Handicapping.

G. N. McMillan, Detroit, and Mrs. St. John Smith, Portland, are Trophy Winners.

CLOSE scores were a feature of the weekly tournament of the Target-Pistol Club, and excellent handicapping bunched the contestants well together. In the mens event the field finished between three hundred and thirty-one and three hundred and eighty-seven, and in the womens class a marked improvement in the scores was noted.

G. N. McMillan of Detroit, Mich., won the mens cup with a net score of three hundred and eighty-seven, leading C. A. Lockwood of New York, only fourteen points.

Mrs. St. John Smith of Portland, Maine, won the womens trophy, a Stevens Target Pistol offered by THE PINEHURST OUTLOOK, with a net score of three hundred and seventy-three, with Miss Edna L. Toffey of Jersey City, second, with two hundred and ninety-seven.
