

SIXTY-EIGHT PARTICIPANTS

Contest for Carolina Trophies Draws Large Field of Entries.

Miss K. C. Harley, J. A. Baker, Charles Jarecki and M. B. Byrnes are Cup Winners.

An eighteen-hole, medal play, handicap, with two classes, A and B, for The Carolina cups offered for the two best net scores in each class, was an interesting golf feature Saturday.

The entry list was the largest of the season, sixty-eight participating, and the players finished closely bunched, a single stroke winning the first cup in each class.

Miss K. C. Harley of Fall River, Mass., playing with a handicap of eighteen, and J. A. Baker of the Glen View Golf Club, Chicago, whose handicap was twelve, tied for the first cup in Class A with seventy-one net, each, Miss Harley winning in the play-off.

In Class B, Charles Jarecki of Erie, Pa., playing with a handicap of twelve, won the first cup with eighty-six net, leading M. B. Byrnes of New York, whose handicap was ten, a single stroke.

The detailed scores tell the story of one of the most closely contested events of the season.
