TIN WHISTLE CHAMPIONSHIP

M. C. Parshall Defeats F. J. Bailey in Final Match Play Round.

Close Contest from Start to Finish
for Very Artistic Trophies of Silver and Gold.

A SPECIAL golf feature of the week which attracted much attention, was the first annual handicap "club championship" of the Tin Whistles. A series of close contests led up to the final round between the President, Fred. J. Bailey of the Kearsarge Golf Club, North Conway, N. H., and the Club Captain, Marshall C. Parshall of the Warren Golf Club, Parshall winning by a score of one up.

The trophies were artistic Pinehurst Golf Club seal watch fobs, hammered silver and gold for the winner, and a hammered silver and bronze for the runner-up.

The event was distinctly "Tin Whistle" in that partners were drawn for at the close of each round instead of following out the usual manner.

SWEETHEARTS AND WIVES

Saturday's Golf Tea is Where they Reign Supreme.

Young and Old Yield to Influence of Sunshine, Joyousness, Good Cheer and Sweet Music.

SATURDAY is the day of sweethearts and wives, and the visitors who would see Pinehurst at its best should attend an afternoon tea at the Golf Club House, seek a sunshiney corner on the balcony, and from this incomparable vantage point, observe Vanity Fair as she leads the merry throng past.

Merry faces and sunny smiles there are everywhere; here a group of chattering girls are exchanging gossip; there an aged couple are enjoying a second honeymoon; further on a bride and groom of younger years are standing, irreproachable in manners and raiment, oblivious to all but their happiness, even overlooking the delicious flirtation which is in progress on a settle near-by.

From under straw hats friends from the South smile greetings to friends from the North, who, though beginning to thaw, have not yet forgotten the terrors of ice and snow.

Golfing girls and golfing boys are hatless, coatless, bronzed and happy; pictures of health and vitality.

And all about tea is being sipped and dainty sandwiches nibbled while the laughter of merry, romping children rises above the hum of conversation.

And all the while there is music—real, sweet, music; and sunshine, glorious sunshine; and pure air, invigorating air; and joyousness, contagious joyousness—And one is glad to be alive; glad to be at Pinehurst!

WILSON THE WINNER.

Leads the Field in Thursday's Trap Shooting.

The weekly trap shooting tournament, a sixty target Magautrap event, thirty singles and fifteen pairs of doubles, drew a good field. The scores were indifferent but the contest was close enough to make the shoot interesting.

M. H. Wilson of Cleveland, whose handicap was eight targets, won with a net score of forty-one, leading A. E. Lard of Washington, D. C., scratch, three targets.

Other gross scores were, C. A. Lockwood New York, twenty-four; Arthur C. Ketcham, New York, twenty-three; Edward C. Hoyt, New York, twenty-two; J. D. Wescott, Union City Pa., and J. Howard Edwards, Brookline, Mass., nineteen.

The regular shoot was followed by two ten single bird sweepstakes, Mr. Lockwood winning the first with eight and Mr. Wilson the second with nine.

Next Thursday's shoot is a sixty target handicap event, fifteen pairs of doubles each from the Tower and Magautrap.
