

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA.

FOR THE BIG TOURNAMENT!

Advanced Guard of Amateur Championship Participants Come To-night.

As Far As Golfers Are Concerned all Roads Will Lead to Pinehurst During Coming Week

THE ADVANCE guard of participants for next week's big United North and South United Amateur Championship Tournament will come to-night, and from now on until the event opens every train will bring large additions. As far as golfers go all roads will lead to Pinehurst during the coming week.

MANY ENTRIES.

The Executive Committee of the Pinehurst Golf Club has answered scores of inquiries concerning the tournament from all over the country, the response to the invitations has been general, and the list of entries received thus early, is very large. The event will unquestionably be the most notable in the history of golfing here and one of the important tournaments of the year.

Every detail of arrangement is complete and perfect weather seems assured to add to the enjoyment and success of the occasion. Scores of workmen have been busy on the golf course for weeks past, preparing it for this important event, and the results are most satisfactory. This work has further been aided by a growth of grass, the result of last year's planting, and there is good sod on many portions of the fair green.

ENTERTAINMENT PLANS.

Plans for the entertainment of the visitors are well under way, and there will be many pleasant diversions in the way of social pleasures and sports for those who care for them.

Among the social events will be the weekly card parties at the hotels: The Holly Inn, Monday, The Berkshire, Tuesday, and The Harvard, Wednesday evening.

In addition there will be dances at The Carolina, Wednesday and Saturday evenings and The Holly Inn Thursday evening, and the afternoon teas at the Golf Club House.

In the way of sports the grounds of the Gun and Target-Pistol Club will be open to visitors during the entire week, and special events are to be arranged in their honor. A trap shooting tournament Thursday, and a target-pistol tour-namment Friday. Entries for either of these events may be sent to Herbert L. Jillson, the Secretary of these Clubs, at The Carolina.

Taken all in all the week will be the most notable in the history of Golf in the South.

ENTRIES CLOSE.

Entries for the Amateur Championship close on Tuesday, April 5th, for the Medal Play Handicap, Thursday, April except where they conflict with local railings.

THE PROGRAM IN DETAIL.

MONDAY, APRIL 4TH.

10:00 A. M.—Qualification round Women's Championship, eighteen holes, medal play, best eight scores to qualify. Cups for the best net and best gross scores.

1:30 P. M.—First round, eighteen

THE TIN WHISTLES LAST!

Their Tournaments Brought to Close With Medal Play Handicap.

Special Prize was an Autograph Copy of The Boss Presented by Author in Recognition of Name.

THE TIN WHISTLES closed their tournament season Tuesday, with an eighteen-hole medal play handicap. Among the most interesting of the prizes was an autograph copy of "The Boss" sent by the author, Alfred Henry Lewis, in recognition of the selection of the Club's name from his book. The book was given for the third best net score, and medals were offered for the first two best net scores.

President F. J. Bailey of the Kearsarge Golf Club, North Conway, N. H., playing with a handicap of nine, won the first with seventy-four net, H. W. Priest of Franconia, N. H., fourteen, finished second with seventy-five, and H. S. Gordon of New York City, twenty-two, third in seventy-seven.

THE SCORES.

	Out	In	Gr	Hdp	Net
F J Bailey,
Kearsarge, N H,	40	43	83	9	74
H W Priest,
Franconia, N H,	42	47	89	14	75
H S Gordon,
New York,	47	52	99	22	77
M B Byrnes,
New York,	47	53	100	20	80
L F Brigham,
Salem, Mass,	46	48	94	14	80
C E Harrison,
Wannamoisut, R I,	42	48	90	9	81
M C Parshall,
Warren, Pa,	42	43	85	4	81
M H Wilson,
Euclid, Cleveland,	43	49	92	11	81
W C Johnson,
Canoe Brook, N J,	46	46	92	10	82
T B Cotter,
Winchester, Mass,	55	62	117	35	82
A E Lard,
Columbia, Wash,	42	46	88	4	84
A I Creamer,
Kearsarge,	52	53	105	14	91
C A Lockwood,
Highland, L I,	60	62	122	26	96
A G Warren,
Rochester, N Y,					No card
Dr A C Potter,
Oakley Country, Mass,					No card
Walter A Berg,
Boston, Mass,					No card
A C Ketcham,
New York,					No card

THE 1903 CHAMPIONS

7th, and for the Open Southern Championship, Friday, April 8th. All entrants for the Handicap must state their club handicap or play from scratch.

Entries for the Women's Championship close Saturday, April 2nd, and post entries will, however, be received up to 9:30 A. M., on Monday, April 4th.

U. S. G. A. RULES GOVERN.

United States Golf Association rules will govern throughout the tournament, holes, match play, scratch, Women's Championship.

TUESDAY, APRIL 5TH.

10:00 A. M.—Semi-final round, eighteen holes, Women's Championship.

2:00 P. M.—Final round, eighteen holes, Women's Championship.

4:30 P. M.—Driving, approaching and putting contests for both men and women. Cups for winners in each event.

(Continued to Last Page)