GOLF CLUB MEETING.

Officers Elected for the Ensuing Year.

At the annual meeting of the Pinehurst Golf Club November 8, the following officers were elected: President, Leonard Tufts, Boston; Treasurer, Thomas B. Cotter, Winchester, Mass.; Secretary, Herbert L. Jillson, Worcester, Mass.; Governors, John B. McDonald, Frank Presbrey, New York City; Geo. Dutton, Harry Dutton, Alexander McGregor, Boston; J. Henry Hentz, Jr., Philadelphia; A. E. Lard, Washington; H. W. Priest, Franconia, N. H.; A. I. Creamer, Damariscotta, Maine.

It was voted to change the Club colors from green and white to green and red.

Satisfactory reports concerning work on the courses during the summer were received and plans for the annual mid-winter tournament were discussed.

RATTLING SPORT.

Early Hunters Find Quail Abundant and Make Good Bags.

Among the first to enjoy this season's quail shooting are Mr. and Mrs. Julian Day of New York City. On their first trip they secured nine quail and a woodcock, and on the second twenty quail. They report an abundance of birds, with the coveys large and numerous.

A Beautiful Booklet.

A new Booklet on Pinehurst is now ready for distribution, and it ranks as one of the most attractive of the many beautiful publications issued by the Management. The cover is a dainty creation of cream and gold, and the special feature of the book is half page color reproductions depicting the sports and social pleasures of the Village. These Booklets may be had on application at the Pinehurst General Office.

DR. CROCKETT RETURNS.

Will Be Located Here as Resident House Physician.

Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett of Buffalo, N. Y., who spent the season of 1902-3 here, will return for the present season, and their many friends will welcome the announcement with pleasure.

Dr. Crockett is a general practitioner of wide experience, one of the staff of instructors in the Medical Department of The University of Buffalo, and on the attending staff of two large hospitals. He is also a liberal contributor to the Medical Press and an author of several books upon medical subjects. He will be located at The Harvard previous to the opening of The Carolina and will probably also have an office at The Berkshire.

Mrs. Crockett is a general favorite and an active figure in social life.

A FREQUENT VISITOR.

John B. McDonald of Subway Fame, a Pinehurst Admirer.

Just at present the New York Subway and those who have been connected with the wonderful undertaking, is much before the public eye, and it will be interesting to note the fact that John B. McDonald, the contractor who did this work, is an ardent admirer of Pinehurst and a frequent visitor.

Mr. McDonald finds in Pinehurst's glorious air, bright sunshine and opportunities for outdoor enjoyment the necessary relaxation for a strenuous life and spends much time here each season. He is an enthusiastic devotee of golf.

AT THE MARKET GARDEN.

Summer has Been a Busy One and Plant is Admirably Equipped.

The summer has been a busy one at the Market Garden, and this very important food supply department will be prepared as usual to supply the Village with cucumbers, lettuce, radishes, spinach, parsley and other delicacies.
