

HOTEL OPENING DATES

Harvard and Holly Inn Entertaining
Many Early Comers.

The Carolina Will Open January
Ninth, and The Berkshire
January First.

VERY year now brings an increasing number of early guests and the present season which is no exception, will necessitate the early opening of the various hotels in the Pinehurst system. Many guests are already enjoying the beauties of the early season and December first will find an unusually large number here.

The Harvard has been open since November 1st; and The Holly Inn since Nov. 19th. The Carolina will open January 9th, the earliest date in history; The Berkshire January 1st.

The Lenox and Concord have been open since October 20th, and The Magnolia and Pine Grove House will open soon.

The general management of the hotels will again be in the hands of H. W. Priest, who will also have direct charge of The Carolina; A. I. Creamer returns to The Holly Inn, J. A. Sherard to The Berkshire and F. H. Abbott to The Harvard.

AT THE HARVARD.

Among guests at The Harvard are Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett and Masters Albert and Gillman Crockett of Buffalo, N. Y., who return for their second season. Dr. Crockett will be located at

The Harvard as Resident House Physician previous to the opening of The Carolina, and will have an office at the Mistletoe cottage.

Mr. F. W. Kenyon of New York, of "Tin Whistle" fame, returns to renew pleasant associations made last year, and will remain until Spring

Mr. G. DeWitt Williamson of New York, is here for an extended visit.

Mrs. B. B. Glenn of Sheffield, Mass., and Miss Ellen S. Carey of Buffalo, N.

Y., come for a long sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Day of New York, are enjoying the shooting with most satisfactory results.

Manager Abbott's staff includes Miss Florence Bartlett of Littleton, N. H., stenographer and bookkeeper; Brinie Ferren, chef; Clyde Ruggles, second cook; Mrs. Lucy Smith, pastry cook, and Miss Annie Ash, head waitress; nearly all of whom were here last year.

AT THE HOLLY INN.

The Holly Inn opens with many early guests: Col. and Mrs. B. S. Ashby of Passaic, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hervey son and daughter, of Far Rockaway,

AT THE LENOX.

Among the early season arrivals with Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Robinson are Mrs. Fiske, Miss M. M. Fiske and Miss Lizzie Olney of Bath, Me., who come to remain until May.

Miss Mary F. Mason of Andover, Mass., is here for a six weeks visit.

AT THE CEDARS.

Mrs. Alice M. Stacey of The Cedars is receiving guests, the early arrivals including Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Underhill of Winthrop, Mass., who return for their fifth season; Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Watts of Reading, Pa.; Mrs. Clara L.

AMONG THE COTTAGERS

They are Coming Earlier Than Ever
Before in History of Place.

Many Old Friends Return—The Demand Has as Usual, Been far Beyond the Supply.

THE number of cottagers already here is the most gratifying indication of the increasing popularity of this life, and an appreciation of the early months. The demand for these accommodations has as in the past, been far beyond the supply, and many old friends return.

Mr. Leonard Tufts and family, of Medford, Mass., are located at the Mystic for the season.

Mr. Frederick Bruce and the Misses Bruce, of New York, return to the Oaks for their fourth season.

Miss Elizabeth L. Piper, of Williamsport, Pa., is at the Walnut for her fourth season.

Mrs. E. G. Hayes and family, of Canandaigua, N. Y., return to the Yucca for their third season.

Mrs. Beulah M. Rhoades of Haddonfield, N. J., is at the Rose for her third season.

Mrs. Charles Hansel, of Rochester, N. Y., is occupying the Beech, and enjoying cottage life for the first time. She has, however, been a frequent visitor here.

F. A. King, and family, of Northboro, Mass., are occupying the Craddock.

Miss Wilbur and Miss Mary Masters Wilbur of Canandaigua, N. Y., are at the Dogwood for their fourth season.

Mrs. E. O. Schuyler, of New York is at the Plymouth.

Sunday Services.

The usual arrangements for Sunday services of various denominations, in the Village Hall, will be made later.

Trolley Connections.

The Pinehurst Electric Railroad is connecting with trains at Southern Pines, (Pinehurst Junction,) as usual.

TOURNAMENT TROPHIES FOR SEASON OF 1904-05.

N. J., and Dr. J. H. Packard of Philadelphia, being among the first to come.

Manager Creamer's staff includes nearly all of those who were here last year: B. J. Redmond, room clerk; M. W. Turner, cashier; Albert Lowry, head bellman; Walter Kaler, head porter; Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, housekeeper; John H. Yaeger, head waiter; A. M. Drammis, barber; A. M. Creamer, steward, and Joseph A. Oliver, Chef.

Lieber and Miss Lieber of Reading, Pa.; Mrs. E. T. C. Evans and son of Jamaica Plain, Mass., and Miss Currie of Winthrop, Mass.

Post Office Schedule.

For the present mails for the North are closing at 7:50 a. m. and 5:40 p. m., and arriving from the North at 9:30 a. m. and 5:45 p. m.