Not Yet.

Her face would stop a clock, they said;
But tho' it's seen afar,
No face of which we've ever read
Has ever stopped a car.

SPLITTING THE DIFFERENCE.

Lady Customer (in book store)—Give me a copy of "Romeo and Juliet."
Clerk—Yes, miss. A dollar and a half please.
Lady Customer—I find I've only got 75 cents, just give me "Romeo."

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.
