

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. VIII; NO. 11.

SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY TWENTY-EIGHTH, 1905.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

AN OBSERVATION PARTY

Delightfully Novel Evening Entertainment at Holly Inn.

Guests Perplex Themselves With Various Clever Problems—Mrs. Hobart Wins First Prize.

THE observation party at The Holly Inn Tuesday, proved a delightfully novel evening for a large party which included many of the Villagers, and an hour was pleasantly spent in figuring out the problems presented.

In the centre of the Dutch room some sixty different subjects were arranged and each numbered and the guests were given a limited time to guess what they represented. The prize winners were Mrs. J. C. Hobart of Cincinnati, Miss Bessie Otis Hinckley of Chicago and Mr. H. W. Cost of St. Louis.

THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Birthplace of Burns—Stove.
The Peace Makers—Scissors.
Oliver Twist—Rope twisted.
Pillars of Greece—Candles.
Deer in Winter—Cucumber.
A Bit of Plymouth Rock—Trousers.
Relies of War against Turkey—Wish bone.
The End of Ambition—Letter "N."
The Last of the Red Skins—Apple parings.
A Little Mother—Vinegar mother.
Weapons that Conquered Indians at Philadelphia—Pen.
A Messenger—One cent.
Two Sides of a Vote—The eyes and nose; (I's and No's.)
Devoted Young Man—Bow; (beaux.)
Mode of Ancient Punishment—Stripes.
Youth and Old Age—17—76.
Lay of Last Minstrel—Eggs.
Out for the Night—Lamp extinguished.
The Trapper—Cheese.
Fruit Piece—Half of an apple.
A Drive Through the Wood—Nail driven in piece of wood.
Something to Adore—Key.
Medallion Head on Copper—Copper penny.
The Village Friar—Frying-pan.
View of Long Branch—Branch of a tree.
Not a Poet, though Shelley—Nuts.
Bust of Great Commentator—Potatoes.
The Tutor—Zobo Instrument.
The Place of Departed Spirits—Empty whiskey bottle.
Tax on Tea—Tacks on tea.
All is not Gold that Glitters—Brass.
The Swimming Match—Match in water.
The Worn Travelers—Old shoes.
View of Brussels—Piece of Brussels carpet.
The Flower of The Family—Flour.
Our Greatest Colonel—Kernels of rice.
The Little Lamplighter—A match.
The City of Ireland—Cork.
A Study in Pears—Picture of a cake of Pear's soap.
The Choir—Twenty four sheets of paper.

A Stirring Subject—Spoon.
One Yard—36 inches.
A Perfect Foot—12 inches.
The Light of Other Days—A candle.
Memoirs of the Great—Ashes.
Companions at Bath—Sponge and towel.
A Pair of Black Eyes—Black wire eyes.
Sweet Sixteen—Sixteen lumps of sugar.
Ruins of China—Broken dish.
An Absorbing Subject—Sponge.
The Sower of Tares—Needle and thread.
The Pretty Walter—Tray.
A Bad Spell of Weather—"Wether."
Before Tea—Letter "S."
After Tea—Letter "U."
A Good Match—Parlor match.
The Tax on Woolen Goods—Tacks on wool.

RUSSIAN BRASSES.

Exhibit of Unusual Artistic Interest at Department Store.

Lovers of the artistic will be charmed with the display of Russian brasses which may be found at the Department Store. The collection covers a variety of subjects, are all beautiful in color, line and form, each showing, as Hubbard would express it, "the loving marks of the hammer."

There are candlesticks, trays, pitchers, tea pots and many novelties such as a

POPULARITY INCREASING

Target Pistol Shooting Claiming Increasing Number of Participants.

Winter's Stated Tournaments Begun Tuesday and J. R. Goodall Wins Sterling Trophy--Friday's Shoot.

EACH succeeding week adds to the interest in Target Pistol Shooting and adds new faces to those who are taking part in the various tournaments. Many women are now included among the members and are manifesting great interest in the sport.

Friday's shoot, twenty-five shots at 50 yards, developed a pretty contest between John Hafner and Dr. George S. Hill, Hafner winning with 225 to his opponents 216. F. A. King was well up in front with 208. Mrs. B. B. Glenny, scratch 179, leading her nearest opponent four points.

THE SCORES.

	Gr.	Hdp.	Net
John Hafner, New York,	175	50	225
Dr. Geo. S. Hill, Marblehead, Mass.,	141	75	216
F. A. King, Northboro, Mass.,	133	75	208
J. R. Goodall, St. Louis,	125	60	185
Mrs. B. B. Glenny, Sheffield, Mass.,	179	0	179
Parke Wright, Buffalo,	82	90	172
B. W. Norton, Boston,	79	90	169
R. S. Cleaves, Boston,	79	75	154
W. E. Scott, Portland,	91	50	141
M. H. Turner, Boston,	40	90	130

TUESDAY'S TOURNAMENT.

Tuesday's contest was the first of the winter's stated program, arranged by and for Sterling trophies offered by the Management. The field of participants was the largest of the season and included many new members. The trophy offered for the best net score went to J. R. Goodall with 426 net, with Dr. Hill second in 389 and Mrs. Glenny third with 378. The handicapping was admirable as the scores show.

THE SCORES.

	Out.	In.	Gr.
Goodall,	356	70	426
Dr. Hill,	239	150	389
Mrs. Glenny,	378	0	378
Turner,	216	150	366
Storer,	179	150	329
Norton,	174	150	324
Scott,	256	60	316
Hafner,	304	0	304
Ward,	126	100	226

FRANK PRESBREY, NEW YORK, PRESIDENT OF THE NEWLY-FORMED AMERICAN GOLF ASSOCIATION OF ADVERTISING INTERESTS.

Bridal Scenes—Knot.
The Castaways—Old rubbers.
Strong Attractions—Magnet.
Kindred Souls—Slipper soles.
Fireside Companions—Andirons.
Connecting Links—Chain.
The Skippers Home—Cheese.
Common Sense—Onions.
Milk Maid—Butter.

LOST!

A solitaire diamond ring; black enamel setting. Return to Miss Hinckley Holly Inn, and be rewarded.

table call bell, made in imitation of a mortar and pestle.

Candy Pull at Holly Inn.

A number of the guests at The Holly Inn enjoyed an old fashioned candy pull in the big kitchen of the hotel recently. Dressed for the occasion in big aprons, it was a jolly party from the time the candy was given out in big warm lumps, until it was pulled white and hard.