PUTTING--NAIL DRIVING.

Participants and Onlookers Find
Pleasure in Both at Carolina.

A putting contest at The Carolina Monday proved as popular as ever; both participants and onlookers finding pleasure in it. Mrs. E. F. McCann and Mr. Frederick Correll, of New York City, made the best score of the afternoon.

Following the putting there was a nail driving contest for women, Mrs. J. Grant Anderson, Pittsburg, and Mrs. R. E. Mertens, New York, winning first and second, respectively.

F. A. KING WINS.

Takes Berkshire Cup in Men's Singles Tennis.

F. A. King, of Northboro, Mass., was the winner of the men's singles for the Berkshire cup which were played during the week, defeating L. E. Wardwell, of Camden, Me., 6-4 6-4, in the final round.

In the preliminary round Mr. King defeated H. Nelson Burroughs, of Philadelphia, by default, and Mr. Wardwell, Charles Presbrey, of New York, 6-1 6-3.

Local Golf Rule Change.

Considerable satisfaction is being manifested by the disposal of the local rule which has hitherto prohibited golfers from soleing clubs when balls lie outside the posts which define the fair green of the various holes. This rule is not generally observed elsewhere, and the greens committee decided that it would be desirable to abolish it here.

MISS ETHEL CHECK, EAST ORANGE, N. J.
Miss Check was the winner of the St. Valentines cup in last week's golf tournament.

Great pine forests skirt the beach. The mingling of the salt air with the ozone of the pines makes this the most charming of resorts.

We conduct our own farm and dairy, plenty fish and oysters, thus assuring our guests the best of everything for the table. Beautiful drives through the pines and along the beach. Splendid golf course. Best wild fowl shooting in America. You cannot come to a spot where you will be more charmed than here.
