BABY PARTY AT CAROLINA.

Young People Planning Merry Frolic Next Week Wednesday Evening.

The young people of The Carolina are planning a "Baby party" for next week Wednesday evening, March 15th, to which a general invitation is extended to Village guests. The only condition is that all those who come shall impersonate a child 12 years of age or younger.

Considerable interest is being manifested for the possibilities for a jolly evening and amusing costumes are great.

and the party promises to be one of the season's merriest frolics.

The program will open with a grand march at nine o'clock, and participants will assemble in the small ladies' parlor previous to entering the music hall. Prizes will be awarded for costumes, elaborate and ludicrous.

Mr. Gordon's Fine Dogs.

Mr. W. J. Gordon of New York, who is completing a ten days visit with his brother, has with him an exceptionally fine bird dog in "Lancelot" of the Top Notch kennels, a bench show winner, for which Mr. Gordon paid $1,000 recently. He also brought two other valuable bird dogs.

Still Without Sense.

"I was knocked senseless when a small boy," "Well, doesn't the doctor think you'll ever get over it?"
