Mr. Taylor Entertains.

Mr. Charles L. Taylor of Pittsburg, entertained very delightfully at the Country Club House Friday evening, covers being laid for twenty guests.

Informal affairs of this character are becoming frequent here and are much enjoyed.

Her Gifts.

Her present to him was a kiss,
With rapture all aglow;
And long it lingered on his lips
This time a year ago.

They married; but at Christmastide
No more he thanks his stars,
Her present lingers on his lips—
But now it is cigars.

—McLandburg Wilson, in N. Y. Sun.

Natives of Maine Reunion.

The annual reunion of Natives of Maine will be held at the home of Mr. J. C. Webster, Page street and Connecticut avenue, Southern Pines, Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who have lived any length of time in the Pine Tree State.

Of Sorosis Shoe Fame.

Mr. Alexander Little, of Sorosis Shoe fame, and party, including Miss Belle Little, Mrs. Lillian Gerould and Mr. Edwin Gerould of Boston, spent a portion of the week here in Mr. Little's private car "Signet" en route for an extended trip, which will combine business and pleasure. The party will make stops at the principal cities and chief points of interest, including New York, Washington, Asheville and New Orleans.

Slips of the Tongue.

A well known literary man tells the following anecdotes of amusing slips of the tongue:

A certain minister was reading a chapter from the New Testament when his congregation was treated to this surprising version of a famous passage, "And Peter crowed three times and the cock went forth and wept bitterly."

Another story tells of a man who, on being asked concerning his familiarity with music, replied that he knew but two tunes: "God Save the Weasel" and "Pop Goes the Queen"—Harper's Weekly.

The Hills of Desire.

Last night I saw them in a dream,
And marvelled till the morn—
The purple hills, the sunlit hills,
The hills where I was born.

Those gentle slopes I shall not climb,
Though long I may aspire;
Still will they gleam in each fond dream,
The hills of far desire.

—James Owen Tryon, in N. Y. Sun.

"MERRY MASQUERADERS."

Miss Gene Prentiss, Abington, Mass., who won the prize for the most elaborate costume at the annual masquerade ball of the Village employees in a gown similar to this.

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.
