

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. VIII; NO. 21.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL EIGHTH 1905.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

DR. HARBAN THE WINNER

Takes Championship Trophy in Final Round with Herreshoff.

An Exceptionally Brilliant Final Match the Culmination of Remarkable Week's Play.

THE fifth annual United North and South Amateur Championship Tournament ended yesterday, with a brilliant thirty-six hole final match between Dr. L. Lee Harban of the Columbia Golf Club, Washington, the veteran of many hard-fought battles, and young Fred Herreshoff of New York, who won distinction through his splendid fight against H. Chandler Egan in the finals of the amateur championship last fall, the Washington player winning by the narrow margin of one up.

The match takes its place as one of the most closely contested ever played here, equalled only by the finals between Walter J. Travis and W. C. Fownes, Jr., in this year's midwinter tournament, and a gallery of several hundred people followed it from start to finish.

Dr. Harban was two down at the end of the morning round, but he had evened matters on the twenty-fourth hole, gaining a lead of one up on the thirty-second, which he maintained to the end, the last four holes being halved, and all but the thirty-third being made in bogey.

THE CARDS.

MORNING.

OUT.

Harban— 5 6 3 4 5 5 5 4 5—42
Herreshoff—5 4 3 5 4 4 5 3 6—39

IN.

Harban— 5 3 5 4 6 5 6 3 5—42
42
84
Herreshoff—5 4 4 4 7 4 4 5 5—42
39
81

AFTERNOON.

OUT.

Harban— 5 5 3 5 3 5 6 4 5—41
Herreshoff—4 6 3 5 5 4 5 4 5—41

IN.

Harban— 6 3 4 4 5 5 6 3 5—41—41—82
84
166
Herreshoff—6 4 3 5 6 5 6 3 5—43—41—84
81
165

BECKER WINS CONSOLATION.

C. L. Becker of the Woodland Golf Club, Auburndale, had a walkover in the championship consolation with Lathrop E. Baldwin of the Flushing Country Club, New York, being at the top of his game and finding the New Yorker off, winning 13 up and 12 to play.

THE TROPHY WINNERS.

There was a cup and a gold medal for the winner and runner-up in the cham-in championship.

C. L. Becker, Woodland Golf Club, Auburndale, Mass., championship consolation.

J. O. H. Denny, Oakmont Golf Club, Pittsburg, second division or secretary's cup.

A. F. Southerland, Fox Hills Golf Club, runner-up in second division.

William C. Freeman, Montclair Golf Club, second division consolation.

A. C. Aborn, Montclair Golf Club, third

MISS MARY HOUGHTON DUTTON, OAKLEY COUNTRY CLUB, WINNER WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

pionship division, and cups and silver medals for the winners and runners-up in each of the three other principal divisions, together with cups for the winners of the consolation divisions. The full list of winners is as follows:

Dr. L. Lee Harban, Columbia Golf Club, Washington, first division or championship cup.

Fred Herreshoff, New York, runner-up division or treasurer's cup.

H. P. Rhett, Crescent Athletic Club, Brooklyn, runner-up in third division.

W. M. Weaver, Camden, N. J., third division consolation.

T. W. Weeks, Storm King, N. Y., fourth division or captain's cup.

Dr. C. W. Hutchings, Boston, runner-up in fourth division.

(Concluded on page twelve.)

MISS MARY DUTTON WINS

Match With Mrs. Paterson Brilliant Feature Women's Championship.

Stroke for Stroke Battle the Like of Which has Never Been Seen Here in Similar Contest.

THE Women's event in the Championship tournament was the most brilliant and hotly contested event in the history of the tournaments, Miss Mary Houghton Dutton of the Oakley Country Club, Watertown, Mass., winning the final round from Mrs. James Ford Bell of the Minekahda Golf Club, Minneapolis, by a score of 4 up and 3 to play.

The feature of the tournament, however, was Miss Dutton's defeat in the first round, of Mrs. M. D. Paterson of the Englewood Golf Club, New Jersey, who has held the championship against all comers for several years past, holds the women's record for the course, and generally regarded as a winner, by a single stroke on the home green. From start to finish the contest was of absorbing interest, a stroke for stroke competition the like of which has never been seen here in a similar contest, and which was uncertain in its outcome until the end.

Miss Dutton was three down at the fifth hole, but stood at the turn only one hole to the bad. On the twelfth she had evened matters, and on the twelfth gained a lead. The thirteenth was halved, Mrs. Paterson took the fourteenth, Miss Dutton the fifteenth, Mrs. Paterson the long sixteenth, and with the score even up and two to go, and Mrs. Paterson having the honor, the players faced the short seventeenth green.

Mrs. Paterson made a beautiful shot which overran the green, and Miss Dutton placed her ball for a possible two and what seemed a "sure" three. Mrs. Paterson made an excellent approach, Miss Dutton played two and missed, and Mrs. Paterson followed suit on the odd. Miss Dutton then missed for a win halving in four.

Mrs. Paterson pulled her drive into the rough on the eighteenth, while Miss Dutton sent a beauty straight down the course. Mrs. Paterson's second put her upon the edge of the course and Miss Dutton played short and on her third just cleared the pit on her fourth. Mrs.

(Concluded on page eight.)