

BASE BALL PLANS.*Prospects for Series of Interesting Matches Satisfactory.

Manager Edd Ellis is giving the game a good share of attention these days and rapidly getting matters into shape for a series of games to be played during the season. The Carolina already has a team in embryo, the village nine is practically selected, and it is possible that The Inn will contribute a third team.

The Management has become much interested in the sport through the interests shown by visitors, and is planning to lay out a diamond across the railroad from the Country Club House, at a location which is admirably suited and which will centralize interest.

editor. "I have called to get some of the details of the wedding."

"Goodness!" replied Mrs Jones, in dismay. "They're all gone. You ought to have come last night. They ate every scrap."

Alimony Barred.

Lawyer—Alimony cannot be legally collected, so I think we can get you out of that part of it.

Client—That's good. But how do you figure it out?

Lawyer—Marriage is a lottery isn't it? Client—That's what—and I drew a losing number.

Lawyer—Then, marriage being a lottery, alimony must be a gambling debt.

JAMES G. BATTERSON, WINNER FIRST ANNUAL ADVERTISING TOURNAMENT, 1905.

What He Wanted.

Passing through the country, a tramp stopped at a farmhouse.

"It is needless to ask you the question, madam; you know what I want."

"Yes," replied the lady, "I know what you want badly, but I've only one bar of soap in the house and the servant is using it. Come again some other time."

Not a Scrap Left.

The editor of a flourishing journal in a California town recently called at the "home of the bride's parents" the day after the wedding. He was desirous of telling his readers all about the event, and wished to give the young couple a good "send-off" as well. The bride's mother met him.

"Good morning, Mrs. Jones," said the

ENTERTAINMENT FEATURES.

In addition to the Golf interest of the week, numerous entertainment features have been planned both in social pleasures and outdoor sports. Prominent among these will be an evening of tableaux at the Village Hall, dances at The Carolina and Holly Inn, and a banquet at The Carolina at which tournament participants will dine together with the ladies accompanying them. There will also be a paper chase, and trap and pistol shooting contests.
