AT SOUTHERN RESORTS

Season Under Way at Camden.

Camden, S. C., Jan. 11, 1906—The advent of the New Year finds the season fairly under way, and with all of the hotels open and many visitors here, this historic little town once more assumes an air of bustling activity.

The coming week will see the Polo men thundering up and down in preparation for their match, February 14th, against the Florida men at Orlando. Already the golfers crowd the links, and from the grove behind the Club House comes the reverberating bang of guns as the marksmen try their skill at the traps.

GOLFERS BUSY.

On Saturday, December 30th, the final round for a cup presented by T. E. Krumbholz, was played over the Country Club links between C. H. Yates, present holder of the Championship, and a new comer from Dyker Meadow, D. L. Edwards. Edwards caught Yates decidedly off his form and gained a rather easy victory by 4 up and 3 to play. Edwards promises to become a tower of strength to the Camden team in the match for the Withers Challenge cup against the Charleston golfers. Camden now has but one leg on the trophy while Charleston has two, and the Camden men will be obliged to put forth the best efforts in order to regain possession of the cup.

Saturday, Jan. 6th, was played the regular weekly handicap. A high wind blowing across the course was responsible both for the small number of entries and the high scores. These events are at nine holes only until February.

Following is the result:

	Gross	Hdep.	Net
Col. E. M. Green	51	8	43
H. M. Redpath	50	6	44
N. C. Boykin	52	8	44
D. R. Williams, Jr.,	54	8	46
C. H. Yates	47	0	47
A. J. Akin	54	6	48
D. L. Edwards	48	0	48
C. C. Brown	55	6	49
R. L. Barstow, Jr.,	57	4	53
B. D. Ticknor		No Card
J. B. Wallace		No Card

The Golf Committee announces the following programme for the season:

JANUARY 11, Putting and approaching contest for cup presented by D. R. Williams.

JANUARY 19 to 20. Handicap. Cup presented by Camden Country Club, 18 hole medal play. Prize for best net and best gross scores.

FEBRUARY 17. Team match, Camden vs. Columbia.

FEBRUARY 24-26. Hobkirk Inn cup, for winners of Saturday handicaps. Match play.

MARCH 3-5. Hotel Kirkwood cup. Mixed foresomes.

MARCH 10. Team match, Camden vs. Charleston at Charleston.

MARCH 17. Charleston vs. Camden at Camden.

MARCH 22, 24, 26. Club Championship eighteen holes each day. Open to members of monthly standing. Medal for best score. Camden Country Club Cup. Championship. Consolation Cup.

The Court Inn Cup, for best consecutive eighteen holes made during January, February and March, when properly attested.

The Camden Country Club golf team at present stands as follows:

1 C. H. Yates, 2 B. D. Ticknor, 3 R. L. Barstow, 4 D. L. Edwards, 5 D. R. Williams, 6 J. B. Wallace, 7 N. C. Boykin, 8 R. R. Daly, 9 W. N. Kerr, 10 H. M. Redpath. Several challenges are out for the coming week when positions are likely to be materially altered.

POLO PLANS.

At a meeting of the Polo Association held at the Club house on Tuesday it was voted to accept the challenge received from the Orlando Polo Club for a match game to be played at Orlando, Fla., on February 14th.

A galloping track has been laid out around the Polo field, and it is proposed to hold a pony race meeting during February and March. The polo men will report for the first practice of the year on Tuesday.
