

FIELD EVENLY MATCHED

Advertising Tourney Match Play Rounds
Closely Contested.

Trophy Winners had Work Cut Out for Them and There Were no "Walk Overs."

HE match play rounds of the Advertising mens tournament, were in the majority of cases, closely contested, and there were on "walk overs" in any of the various divisions. W. D. Moffat, the winner of the championship trophy, had work cut out for him throughout the match, and R. P. Nevin, who took the consolation, won on narrow margins. In the various rounds of the week there were numerous extra hole contests and the field was evenly matched throughout.

The story of the various contestants in detail, is told in the following complete summary:

SINCE TIME IMMEMORIAL.

Advertising Tournament Starts with St Andrews Custom.

One of the pleasing features of the Advertising Tournament was the manner in which it was formally begun, following a custom inaugurated at Cleveland, and which has been in vogue at historic St. Andrews since time immemorial.

Promptly at eight-thirty, the hour set for starting, President Frank Presbrey drove the first ball of the contest, a group of something like a hundred and fifty caddies being in waiting on the two hundred yard line, a lively scramble which could only be duplicated in the Southland, following; the possession of the ball meaning a five dollar gold piece.

This ball will be marked and retained by the association as a souvenir.
