WEEK BRINGS MANY GUESTS

Old Friends and New Faces Added to Company Assembled Here.

Social Pleasures Indoors and Out Entertain Big Crowd of Midwinter Visitors.

HE WEEK has added many new faces to the big company gathered here, prominent among whom are returning friends and season guests. Social pleasures both in doors

Carolina was one of the pleasant features of the week, three evenings being devoted to play for a sterling trophy. The success of the affair which was arranged by Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett will, doubtless, lead to others. The final rubbers are being played as THE OUTLOOK goes to press.

Various informal dinners are becoming a charming feature of life here and dancing is much enjoyed upon two evenings each week.

AMONG THE GUESTS.

Among the weeks arrivals were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Walker, of Richmond, who return for their third season, and are greeted cordially by many former acquaintances. Mrs. Walker is a charming woman who is a general favorite.
