

East Orange; Miss Mary P. Wilbur, Canandaigua; and Mr. Aug. P. Thompson, Honesdale, Pa, were the prize winners Wednesday.

AMONG THE GUESTS.

The week has added many new faces to the congenial company assembled here among whom is Mrs. J. D. Westcott and her son, Mr. W. C. Westcott, of Union City, Pa., who return for the winter. Mr. Westcott will join them soon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brackhurst, Jersey City, are here for a short visit.

Rev. John Paul Egbert, New York, will remain some weeks.

Mr. F. P. Marsh, New York, is here for an indefinite stay.

Mr. George F. Brown, Philadelphia, is making a short visit.

Mr. Vinton Somers, Bridgeport, Ct., will remain some time.

Mrs. C. P. Heywood, East Orange, is making a short return visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. DeLore, Boston, are making an extended visit.

Mrs. C. Kense and Mrs. C. Fenstermaker, will remain some time.

At The Harvard.

Mr. J. Cousins and Mrs. H. W. Hughes, New York, are at The Harvard for the season.

At The Magnolia.

The week has been an important one at The Magnolia and many old and new friends have been added to the company assembled here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Q. Collins and S. Q. Collins, Jr., Norfolk, return for their second season.

Mrs. S. C. Henkel, Catawissa, Pa., and Miss Emily Engle, Sunbury, Pa., are here for a long sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Swanton, Newton centre, will remain some weeks.

Other late arrivals include Mr. Paul T. Collins, Portland, Ore.; Miss Eloise Hayden, Brooklyn; Dr. Bertha E. Dornbush, Pittsburg.

At The Lenox.

Mrs. J. A. Bethell, Philadelphia, is a late arrival.

At The Lexington.

Mrs. John P. Mooney, Master Frank Mooney and Miss Catherine J. Griffin, Bridgeport, Conn., are at The Lexington for an extended stay.

Seaboard Literature.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway has gotten out a very handsome calendar for 1906, a booklet entitled "Sketches of the South," and a winter tourist booklet, highly descriptive of the winter resorts along this line in the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida, which will be sent on application, enclosing a two cent stamp, to C. H. Gattis, Raleigh.

Guests of Miss Esther.

The eighth birthday anniversary of little Miss Esther Tufts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts, was made memorable for a merry company of children, with lunch at The Carolina and an afternoon of games.

Merry Picknickers.

A merry party of riders, under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Tufts, spent Wednesday on a saddle picnic, leaving at ten, lunching beneath the pines, and returning in the early afternoon. The day was absolute perfection.

ST. VALENTINE'S TOURNEY

Professional Contest in Connection Will Attract Many Golfers.

Big Week of Golf Assured and Many Players Will Come Especially for the Event.

ADVANCE interest in the annual St. Valentine's match play golf tournament which begins Wednesday February fourteenth and continues through Saturday, indicates a large field of entries, including many golfers from Washington, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, New York, Massachusetts, the South and elsewhere.

A gold medal will be offered for the best score in qualification and four divisions provided for with President's, Secretary's, Treasurer's and Captain's cups, and special cups will be offered for additional sixteens. There will also be cups for the runners-up in each of the principal divisions and the winners of consolation divisions, made up of the losers in the first round of match play.

Coming as the tournament does in connection with the visit of the famous English and American professionals, who meet Monday and Tuesday, in a seventy-two hole medal play contest for a purse of $500, the week promises to be a banner one.

A large influx of golfers is already assured, for the opportunity to combine witnessing expert professional play and to participate in an interesting tournament is a tempting one.

EXCELLENT HANDICAPPING.

Tin Whistles' Sixth Results in Closely Bunched Scores.

Excellent handicapping made the sixth event in the Tin Whistles' program, an eighteen hole medal play handicap, the closest and most interesting of the season seven of the contestants finishing between seventy-eight and eighty-two, with three tied at the latter figure.

J. E. Porter of Pittsburg, whose handicap, was five, was the winner of the G. L. Knight cup, offered for the best net score with a card of seventy eight, and E. E. Cameron of East Orange, took the second or Club cup at seventy nine, playing with a handicap of eighteen. I. C. B. Dana (10), made 80; C. L. Becker (0), 81; and A. I. Creamer (6), P. L. Lightbourn (22), and F. W. Kenyon (33), 82 each.
