AT SOUTHERN RESORTS

Busy Week at Camden.

CAMDEN, S. C., Feb. 6—Polo, golf, coaching and numerous social features have filled in a busy week, and delightful weather has contributed to the enjoyment of all.

To begin with, there was polo on Monday afternoon, and the bright skies and warm sun lured several hundred to witness Camden's favorite pastime. It was a good game, filled with thrilling runs and timely stops, which brought forth frequent applause.

On Sunday the polo team leave for Florida, with the hope of taking Orlando's measure and returning once more to Camden with new laurels won. The team who go are, R. L. Barstow, Jr., K. G. Whistler, W. C. Salmond, A. D. Kennedy, Jr., N. C. Boykin and Sidney Smith. The ponies, twenty of them in all, start on Saturday, to give them time to recover from the long journey before the opening match on Tuesday.

The first of the coaching trips to Mulberry, took place on Tuesday the 29th, changes are of almost daily occurrence. A week ago Barstow led the team with Yates in second place and Edwards third. Then Yates went up and resumed his old position at the head, while Barstow succumbed in turn to Yates and Edwards. Then Edwards ousted Yates again, and at this writing holds the honor.

In Saturday's handicap event a good sized field turned out. The air was cold for low scoring and a strong wind blew the balls about like chips on the putting greens, but the winners score was creditable. The result:

of January, and the drag was filled with a jolly party, numbering among its guests; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Kerr, of Mostly Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson Smith, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Barstow, Jr., Boston, and Miss Florida De Pass.

On Thursday, the "Dixie" had as passengers, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Kerr, Mrs. Heywood Drayton, Jr., Mrs. Jack Conway and Mr. M. L. Parrish, Philadelphia; Mrs. W. H. Manning, Saratoga; Miss Shearson, New York; and Mrs. B. D. Ticknor, Great Barrington; with Mr. R. L. Barstow handling the ribbons. There were fully fifty others gathered about the lawn beneath the picturesque old trees, when tea was served, and these excursions bid fair to rival the polo games to point of attendance.

On the Club House veranda the talk is all of the golf team's trip to Savannah on Wednesday next, and the competition for places on the team is at fever heat. Danbury Brandreth, a veteran metropolitan player, has displaced Dr. Daly for the best position, and declared his intention of climbing up the ladder toward the leaders. Among the first four the events will begin this week. In past seasons trap shooting has proved one of the most attractive features at the Club, and the committee are sparing no pains to make this season a record breaker.
