

MATCH PLAY ROUNDS RAPID

Close Contests Rule in All Divisions of St. Valentine's Tourney.

Extra Hole Battles Numerous and of Surprises There Were Many--
The Full Summary.

AN EVENLY matched field made the match play rounds of the St. Valentine's tournament of more than ordinary interest. Close contests were the rule rather than the exception, and many rounds required extra holes to decide them.

Of surprises there were several and excellent golf much, the match between J. D. Foot and C. L. Becker, in the second round of the consolation, with its medal play rounds of seventy-nine and eighty being conspicuous.

Mr. Becker was one up at the turn, but Mr. Foot evened matters on the eleventh, winning by one up on the home green with a halved five.
