

BASKETBALL BEGUN.

Village and School Teams Play First of Series of Games.

The first of what promises to be an interesting series of basket ball games was played Wednesday, between the Village team, Captained by Clarence Smith, Bethlehem, N. H., and the School team captained by F. T. Blake, of Worcester, Mass., Captain Smith's team winning by a score of 6 to 2.

The first or ten minute half was won by Cole who was left unguarded by Smith, leaving him clear to make the basket, giving the Village a lead of 2 points. The second or fifteen minute half, was a lively one, both sides warming up to the work. Finnegan who was left unguarded for a second, got the ball and made a clean score. The school team then got the ball and passed it up the field, Smith finally scoring.

The Village team then got the ball, Smith making the basket in short order.

The line up:

VILLAGE		SCHOOL
Cole, Reynolds	R. F.	Smith, Lester
Finnegan	L. F.	Abbott
Cole, Ray	C.	Blake, Capt.
Smith, C. Capt.	R. G.	Wilson
Jones	L. G.	Crockett

The Summary:

Baskets by Finnegan, C. Smith, Reynolds Cole, L. Smith.

Fouls—Finnegan 2, Ray Cole 1.

Time, ten and fifteen minute halves.

Referee, Blackburn.

Timer, Dr. Jones.

The management of the teams is in the hands of Lester Smith, of New York, and Raymond Cole, of Bethlehem, and games have been arranged for the balance of the season, the next being scheduled for Tuesday afternoon next, on the school grounds at 3 o'clock.

BIG WEEK OF GOLF.

Second Annual Spring Tournament Will Draw Big Field.

A big week of golf is being planned in the second annual Spring Tournament which begins next Wednesday and continues through Saturday.

Play will begin Wednesday with a qualification round, and four divisions will be provided for with the President's, Secretary's, Treasurer's and Captain's cups. There will also be a cup for the runner-up in the principal division and for the winners of consolation divisions.

The entry list will include many prominent golfers from outside, and there is every indication that the number of starters will exceed the St. Valentine's tourney, in which one hundred drove from the first tee in qualification. Entries close Tuesday night, March 13th, and may be made either by letter or wire.

Donkey Rides For Children.

The donkey rides at The Zoo have become so popular with the children, that many parents have requested Mr. Benson to have the animals taken into the Village, so that the children may ride by the hour. Arrangements have been made whereby two donkeys will be at the childrens' disposal every fine afternoon from one o'clock until four. They will be stationed at the deer park, in charge of Uncle Charlie Cotton.

AFFAIRS OF A BUSY WEEK

WOMEN VS MEN.

Novel Base Ball Game Planned for This Morning.

The young people of The Carolina are planning a merry frolic for this (Saturday morning) at eleven, a base ball game in which the young men will play the young women, under certain handicaps.

Some of these are that they wear skirts, catch, throw and bat left handed. Not only a ludicrous, but an evenly matched game is assured.

Mr. Dana Sets Fast Pace.

I. C. B. Dana, of Great Barrington, made a record score of thirty-four going out, Wednesday, which takes its place with the best of the amateur records:

4 5 2 3 3 4 5 3 5-34

This is six strokes below Bogey, and as golfers say, going "some!"

Mr. Foot Makes Record Score.

J. D. Foot, of Apawamis, was going fast in Wednesday's Tin Whistle tourney, with a record of seventy-six, three strokes below Bogey.

The card:

Out—4 5 3 4 3 4 5 2 5-35
In —4 4 5 4 5 5 6 3 5-41-76

Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Robinson, of The Cedars, gave an afternoon tea, Tuesday afternoon, entertaining nearly forty guests.

L. E. WARDWELL WINS.

Leads Cyrus. A. Taft a Single Target Trap Shooting Tourney.

The second event in the winters trap shooting tournaments developed a pretty contest between L. E. Wardwell, of Camden, Maine, and Cyrus A. Taft, of Whitinsville, Mass., Mr. Wardwell winning with forty-one and a single target. E. J. Wardwell was third and C. A. Lockwood, of New York, fourth. The event was fifty singles, and shot from scratch.

Merry Saddle Picnic.

A merry company of riders enjoyed a saddle picnic at Thagards, Monday, leaving at ten, lunching beneath the pines and returning in the early afternoon by the "longest way back."

Base Ball Tuesday.

The Carolina and Village teams are planning a fast game of ball for Tuesday afternoon, the Village making a special effort to retrieve lost honors. The game will be called at 3:15.

Gymkhana Tuesday.

A Gymkhana has been planned for Tuesday morning next, at eleven A. M., and a program of much interest is being arranged which will include many new features.

Cup for Bell Boys.

Mr. Harry Dutton, of Boston, has contributed a very handsome cup for a medal play handicap to be played by the bell boys of The Carolina in the near future.

Saddle Picnic Wednesday.

A general invitation to attend a saddle picnic Wednesday next, with the start from The Carolina at ten A. M. is extended.

COL. BOGEY INVINCIBLE.

Has Matters Much His Own Way in Tin Whistle Tourney.

The doughty colonel, Bogey, had matters pretty much his own way in Wednesday's match play handicap for the Herbert L. Jillson cup, and ball sweepstakes, losing very few of his matches.

J. D. Foot, of Rye, scratch, and R. R. Perkins, of New York, ten, tied for first, each two up, and H. C. Fownes, Pittsburg, (2), M. H. Wilson, Cleveland, (10), and L. E. Wardwell, Camden, Me., (3), were bunched at second place with one up each.

Other scores follow: I. C. B. Dana, (5), even up; H. W. Priest, (9), 1 down; W. C. Fownes, (4), two down; Geo. O. Russell, (8), J. E. Soule, (20), G. Lee Knight, (4), each three down; C. L. ## SEVENTY-SEVEN YEARS OLD.

Mr. D. N. Clark's Friends Make Merry at The Berkshire.

The seventy-seventh birthday anniversary of D. N. Clark, of Westville, Ct., was very pleasantly observed at The Berkshire Friday evening last, with a package party in which the guests generally participated. After social greetings, pleasures and refreshments, Mr. Clark was called for and presented with a loving stein and a silk umbrella by Mr. Charles Clark, of Derby, Conn., Mr. Clark responding pleasantly, thanking his friends for their many expressions of good will and wishing them all a ripe old age, health, wealth and happiness. A monster birthday cake was then cut and distributed, the whole rounding out a delightful evening.

Mr. Clark has been an annual visitor since the inception of Pinehurst and his friends are many.

Whist at The Berkshire.

Whist continues popular at The Berkshire, the Wednesday evening party being well attended. Mrs. J. McV. Mackall, Mrs. F. H. Abbott, Mrs. C. E. Gilbert, Mr. John Peterson, Dr. T. R. Williams and Mr. L. M. Stelley were the prize winners.

Old Plantation Reminiscences.

Mrs. Anita Hendricks Spence, of Tennessee, plans a visit to Pinehurst during the coming week, and during her stay will entertain with "Reminiscences of the Old Plantation Facts and Fancies of Dixie Land."

Mrs. Spence is widely known as an entertainer, and her visit will be anticipated.
