A BUSY AND MERRY WEEK

Midseason Visitors Still Tax the Capacity of the Village.

Pleasures Indoors and Out Provide Pleasant Entertainment for Congenial Company.

MIDSEASON activities and pleasures indoors and out still hold sway, and many incoming guests are being added daily to those assembled here. The Village is still taxed very close to its capacity, and the week past has been a busy and merry one. Conspicuous among the special features which splendidly illustrate the cordial good fellowship which makes the whole Village like one great family, were the base ball frolic of The Carolina young people and numerous informal events.

The coming week will be filled to the brim with entertainment features, conspicuous among which will be a "championship" bridge tournament at The Carolina, and invitation medal play handicap mixed foursomes.
