

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. IX; NO 17.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH TWENTY-FOURTH, 1906.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

MEDAL MIXED FOURSOMES

W. C. Fownes and Mrs. Donald J. Ross
Win Close Tie Play-off.

L. D. Pierce and Miss Check Well up and Rest of Field Finishes in Close Order.

TUESDAY'S medal play handicap mixed foursomes for cups offered for the best gross score, by Herbert L. Jillson, drew a field of twenty-four couples and resulted in an interesting tournament, in which close scores were the feature.

L. D. Pierce of the Woodland Golf Club, and Miss Florence Condon of Phil-

TIN WHISTLES' ANNUAL

The annual Club Championship tournament of the Tin Whistles began Wednesday afternoon with an eighteen hole qualification round, I. C. Bates Dana of Great Barrington, leading the field with a card of eighty-three. J. D. Foot of Apawamis, L. E. Wardwell of Megunticook, L. D. Pierce of Woodland and William C. Freeman of Montclair, tied for second at eighty-six, the balance of the field between eighty-seven and ninety-seven. The match play rounds, which will continue through today, promise many keen matches.

THE SCORES.

	Out	In	Gr.
I. C. B. Dana, Great Barrington,	40	43	83
J. D. Foot, Apawamis,	39	47	86
L. E. Wardwell, Camden, Me.,	46	40	86

L. D. Pierce, Woodland,	40	46	86
Wm. C. Freeman, Montclair,	40	46	86
H. W. Priest, Tedesco,	43	44	87
G. Lee Knight, Philadelphia,	41	47	88
H. C. Fownes, Pittsburg,	38	51	89
C. L. Becker, Woodland,	44	46	90
C. B. Fownes, Pittsburg,	45	45	90
J. O. H. Denny, Pittsburg,	46	45	91
W. C. Fownes, Pittsburg,	45	47	92
Geo. O. Russell, Arlington,	45	49	94
C. E. Cameron, East Orange,	48	46	94
H. W. Ormsbee, Brooklyn,	47	50	97
A. I. Creamer, North Conway,	48	49	97

FAILED TO QUALIFY.

H. S. Gordon, Kerhonkson, N. Y.,	50	48	98
George Worthington, Bennington,	52	52	104
C. H. Rosenfeld, New York,	54	50	104
T. J. Royce, Rutland, Vt.,	51	55	106
J. E. Kellogg, Fitchburg,	49	57	106
Maj. S. R. Smith, Wilmington,	52	57	109

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Annual Minstrel Show Promises to be "Bigger and Better."

Undiscovered Comets, Stars and Satellites Have Lots of Things
Up Their Sleeves.

TWO evenings of the coming week, Tuesday and Wednesday, at the Village hall, will be devoted to the second annual minstrel show, and the active committee promises evenings of entertainment which will eclipse all records of the past. In addition to the regular black-face minstrel acts there will be a topical song, local hits galore, adelphia, whose handicap was four, and W. C. Fownes of the Oakmont Club, and Mrs. Donald J. Ross of Boston, whose allowance was fourteen strokes, tied for the prize at 88 each, Mr. Fownes and Mrs. Ross winning an eighteen hole play off, scoring 89, net, to 92 for their opponents.

A MIDSEASON FROLIC—LAST WEEKS "SKIRTS VERSUS SKIRTS" BASE BALL GAME.

H. C. Fownes of Pittsburg, and Miss Kuhnen of Davenport, Iowa, (26), were second in 90. D. McK. Lloyd of Pittsburg, and Mrs. C. H. Rosenfeld of New York, (26), third in 92, and Frank Presbrey of New York and Miss J. R. Mix of Baltusrol, (6), and George Worthington, Bennington, Vt., and Miss Francis McNeely, (8), tied for fourth at 93 each, the balance of the field finishing in 107 and under.

THE SCORES:

	Out	In	Gr.	Hp.	N.
L. D. Pierce,	43	49	92	4	88
Miss Florence Condon,

W. C. Fownes,	45	57	102	14	88
Mrs. Donald J. Ross,
H. C. Fownes,	56	60	116	26	90
Miss Kuhnen,
D. McK. Lloyd,	56	62	118	26	92
Mrs. C. H. Rosenfeld,
Frank Presbrey,	48	51	99	6	93
Miss J. R. Mix,
George Worthington,	48	53	101	8	93
Miss Frances McNeely,
J. O. H. Denny,	49	53	102	8	94
Mrs. H. S. Denny,
William C. Freeman,	44	54	98	4	94
Miss Gertrude Gilbert,
C. E. Cameron,	58	67	125	30	95
Mrs. C. E. Cameron,
Harry Dutton,	54	56	110	14	96
Mrs. G. Lee Knight,
Dr. Ward,	55	65	120	24	96
Miss Gertrude Chandlee,
C. L. Becker,	49	56	105	4	101
Miss E. S. Check,
C. E. Harrison,	53	65	118	16	102
Mrs. H. G. Marvin,
G. O. Russell,	53	57	110	8	102
Mrs. I. C. Bates Dana,
E. E. Chandlee,	64	62	126	22	104
Miss Hodson,
Mr. Goss,	53	61	114	10	104
Miss Thayer,
George W. Daw,	56	64	120	14	106
Miss Clark,

W. F. Merrill, 59 66 125 18 107
Mrs. Hetherington,

No Cards: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Converse;
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sill; H. S. Gordon and Mrs.
Seabury Ford; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Climo.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CUP.

Mr. Perkins and Miss Fenno Win Annual Tennis Tourney.

The mixed doubles tennis tournament for the St. Patrick's day cups resulted in an interesting contest, R. R. Perkins and Miss Fenno winning the finals from C. H. Schoff and Mrs. E. G. Buckland.

In the semi-finals Mr. Perkins and Miss Fenno defeated L. P. Disbrow and Miss Merrill, and Mr. Schoff and Mrs. Buckland C. H. Johnson and Miss Dexter.

and numerous surr rises.

"In the Land of Cotton" will open the program promptly at eight-thirty o'clock, each evening. The first part will include songs, solos, sketches and instrumental selections, the closing number being the "Helen-Hunt two step," dedicated to the golfers of Pinehurst; a cornet solo with accompaniment by the "Smoke Brass Band."

The second part will be a one-act farce, "The Baby Elephant," replete with local hits and ludicrous situations. The combined entertainment will be something no one should miss.

The company will include some twenty-five undiscovered stars, comets and satellites, with Interlocutor P. J. Ward, at the head. The bones will be William White, William Murphy, James McNab, William Wilder; tambos, Charles Baxter, Henry Carroll, Ed. Ellis, William Hill.