COMING TO ENJOY APRIL

Returning Friends Numerous Among Big List of Arrivals.

Delightful Weather and Affairs Indoors and Out are the Mid-season Pleasures

NOTICEABLE feature among the week's arrivals at the local hotels, has been the large number of returning friends who come to spend April here, and a big influx of far south tourists. Midseason still reigns and activities indoors and out have been conspicuous, prominent among them being the "Championship" bridge tourney at The Carolina, and invitation medal play mixed foursomes. The weather has been delightful, all the more appreciated in view of the reports of cold and snow which continue to come from the North.
